WAR CLOUD IS LIFTING:—

Three or four items of news that have not figured on the front page of the last day or two are a good deal more important to us in a business sense than the reports of desperate battles in Belgium and France. One was the statement published in a dispatch from Philadelphia that as a result of the rapidly increasing foreign demand for anthracite coal a number of colliers which were closed last spring are making preparations for early resumption in September. Thousands of men who have been out of work or on half time are promised full time, beginning on Monday. Orders for coal are pouring into Pennsylvania from every part of the globe. The Belgian and Russian cold fields are affected by the war, which has also curtailed the activity of the Welsh mines. Europe is calling for our coal, just as she is calling for our wheat.

Another encouraging item comes from Pittsburgh, which reports that the steel companies there are completing arrangements that are expected to develop a tremendous amount of actual business out of the wide inquiry for steel now steadily coming to them from Europe, South America and other countries. Within forty-eight hours inquiries for semi-finished steel, totaling more than 100,000 tons, had been received from England alone.

Another cheering note is sounded in a New York dispatch which points to the re-employment of a large number of stevedores and ship laborers, indicating the gradual return of normal conditions in the commercial field.

All these are rainbow signs showing that the flood of business disturbance is beginning to abate. We are still short of ocean transportation, but we have got the foreign demand, we have got the goods to supply it, and we have the money to get the ships. Under the circumstances it will be impossible to bottle up our commerce much longer. Its outward flow has, in fact, already been resumed to some extent. But it will not be long before

MONDAY IS THE LAST DAY TO QUALIFY FOR VOTING. DO IT.

BE SURE TO REGISTER MONDAY THAT YOU MAY VOTE ON NOVEMBER 3RD. IT IS AN IMPORTANT DUTY THAT YOU OWE YOUR NEIGHBOR AND YOURSELF.

The Berne Witness wants us to make another denial of the untruthful charge that we drew $5,700 from the county last year. For their benefit we shall do so in due time, though we believe they know now just exactly what we did draw and that they are making misleading statements on this matter purposely.

TOMORROW IS THE DAY SET APART BY PRESIDENT WILSON WHEN EVERY CITIZEN OF THIS GREAT NATION SHOULD OFFER A PRAYER FOR WORLD-WIDE PEACE. DON'T FORGET IT. DON'T NEGLECT IT. IT IS AT LEAST A SPLENDID EXAMPLE FOR OTHER NATIONS OF THE WORLD AT THIS TIME OF EUROPEAN CONFLICT. LET YOUR PRAYER BE SINCERE AND EARNEST AND ACCOMPANY IT WITH A PRAYER OF THANKFULNESS THAT THIS GREAT COUNTRY IS AT PEACE WITH ALL THE WORLD.

Election day comes four weeks from next Tuesday and they will be busy weeks. The democrats have been attacked during the past six months by office seekers who are willing to wreck the party that they may hold office, and every man who loves the democratic principles for which we have fought so long and so consistently should buckle on the harness and help fight. Any one who cares to investigate will find that nearly every charge that has been made by the anti-democrats is either false or exaggerated, the work of professional politicians. Get ready for a four week's battle.

REGISTER MONDAY

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—The three state committees are working under a full head of steam, to complete arrangements for the final registration period beginning Monday. For several weeks the republican and democratic leaders have been devoting practically all their energy toward perfecting an organization to be used on registration day.

The importance of the registration was voiced today by one of the managers of the republican campaign who said his party will either win or lose the election on Monday. What he meant was that if republicans do not take an interest in the registration it will be very difficult for his party to make a good showing on election day.

The republicans had a sad experience with the registration two years ago when fully 60,000 voters of their party either failed or refused to register. The failure of a large per cent of the voters of either party to register Monday will mean, as a matter of course, that the party will be seriously handicapped on election day. At all of the headquarters a large number of stenographers and clerks have been getting out letters to the voters impressing upon them the importance of taking an interest in the election.

At the democratic headquarters today confidence was expressed that the democrats generally are manifesting a deep interest in registration matters. However, Chairman Bernard Korbly called attention to the fact that no man who fails to register will be permitted to vote at the election in November.

The law is very plain on this subject. Either a voter must register at court of Squire J. K. Rinehart by Miss Lillie Butler, a Geneva girl, against Paul Painter, second son of John H. Painter, of this city, and Constable L. K. Plessinger is carrying a warrant which will be served on the young man late this afternoon. The affidavit is in the form of paternity charges, and it is understood that an effort today by Painter's attorneys, Mock & Mock, to get a settlement of the proceedings without prosecution in court proved unavailing. Until an arraignment in court further facts in the case are unobtainable.—Bluffton News.

BURNING STRAW STACK.

Endangered Barn of George Berning, Near Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berning, living a mile and a half south of Williams, who were here on business this morning, were called home about 11 o'clock by a fire which started in a straw stack about six feet from their barn, endangering the buildings. The grandmother and two children were at home alone at the time, but neighbors came to the assistance and the barn was doused with water to prevent its burning, while all possible means were taken to get it under control. They were successful and the fire was confined to the straw stack. Mr. and Mrs. Berning left their home and rig in this city and were taken home in quick time by automobile. The origin of the fire is unknown.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 3.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Four persons were burned to death, one seriously injured and four others saved themselves by leaping from the second story window in a fire which destroyed the home of John Stultz, ten miles south of here early this morning. Mrs. Elizabeth Stultz, aged 72, an invalid; Mary, aged 13; Fred, aged 9; Tracy, aged 6, all children of John Stultz, were the victims.

HANDS IN REPORT.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—W. K. Hatt, engineer of the Indiana Flood commission, and named by the governor to study the flood conditions and to make recommendations to be acted upon in the next legislature, has made his report to the committee. The report is of a general nature and declares that "detailed surveys and studies" were necessary before works could be constructed.

MR. BUTLER ON VACATION.

Omer Butler is working for City Mail Carrier Mel Butler, who is taking a short vacation, and Will Trout is taking care of the parcels post deliveries.

the special registration in September or the regular registration in October or he loses his right to take part in the general election.

Chairman Korbly says that every good citizen ought to vote and that in order to be able to vote of course must register. He said that it is his belief that the democratic voters generally are so deeply interested in the situation that they will qualify to vote at the election by registering on Monday.

The law provides that the registration board continue in session two extra days if a petition is filed by a small number of voters. All the parties are so anxious to have their voters registered that it is likely in most of the counties registration boards will be in session Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but it is urgent that the voters should register on Monday in order that they will be able to vote on election day.

The reports that have been received at the democratic headquarters here indicate that the party organization is in good shape throughout the state and that is very likely that practically the entire membership of the party will register in order to participate in the election. Democratic leaders are confident that the rank and file of the voters approves of the Wilson and Ralston administrations, and that on that account the democrats will be more anxious than the republicans or the progressives to register.

The democratic state committee and nominees on the state ticket will have a meeting here Sunday at which plans for the last month of the campaign will be considered.

GERMAN RIGHT WING HAS CHECKED ALLIES

Berlin, (via wireless) Oct. 3.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—"We are making constant progress on the right and are driving wedges into the French lines" was the striking phrase in the official war office bulletin today. "The siege of Antwerp continues with our artillery breaking through the outlying chain of fortifications and gradually checking the force of the individual units. On our left we are continuing our reducing of the last line of French fortifications, the Meuse chain. Efforts of the allies to flank, both on the east and the west wing have been successfully frustrated. Our center is holding firm. The results of the battle are still undecided. Our forces continue to hold the offensive in Russian Poland."

Bucharest, Oct. 3.—(Special to the Daily Democrat)—It was officially announced today that Russia has offered Roumania the Austrian provinces of Bukovina and Transylvania as a reward for her participation in the war on the side of the allies.
