

YOUR Boy is not an ordinary boy--he's your boy--don't dress him in ordinary clothes--

Dress him in one of our suits, they're quality clothes through and through tailored with the same skill and care as our mens clothes, bright boyish patterns, long wearing fabrics, perfect in style, fit and in every detail.

Our boys clothes will cost you no more than you are now paying and eventually will cost much less because they wear so long.

Let us show you these Boys Clothes.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

"After several of my hogs had been suffering from cholera for three weeks and were in so bad condition that I had given up all hope of saving them, and with the balance of my stock becoming infected, I bought a bucket of Hog Cholera Tonic from the Republic Stock Food Co., and after giving the doses strictly by directions, great was my surprise to find that the disease had disappeared from the hogs and that they were fleshing up nicely. I cannot say too much regarding the merits of the tonic and would advise any one troubled with this disease among their hogs to try it and find out for themselves the benefits derived".

What care I for report?

—John Fletcher.

Miss Babe Keller of Fort Wayne is the guest of Miss Agnes Kohne.

Julius Fledderjohann, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fledderjohann, was completely surprised last evening, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. The guests were thirty-five or more Boy Scouts who met at the Bob Atz home and from there went to the Fledderjohann home. Games of all kinds were played and the hours from 7 to 9:30 were filled to their fullest with fun. Delicious refreshments were served. A number of pretty gifts were received by Julius. The affair was certainly a most enjoyable one.

The W. C. T. U. had a splendid meeting at the home of Mrs. E. W. Johnson yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. C. H. Colter assistant hostess. The fine program, announced Monday, was carried out with little change, under the able leadership of Mrs. C. E. Hocker. In the absence of Mrs. E. B. Macy, who was prevented in attending by illness, Mrs. T. W. Holsapple gave her reading. A duet by Mesdames Eugene Runyon and C. E. Bell was also much appreciated. The annual election of officers took place at this time, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. John Niblick; vice president, Mrs. Mary Eley; recording secretary, Mrs. C. E. Bell; assistant, Mrs. John Hill; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. G. M. Trout.

At the meeting of the Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical church last evening with Miss Hope Hoffman plans for the fall work were discussed and after the business period, a social with refreshments were enjoyed.

Miss Effie Miller, whose wedding to Charles Brodbeck will take place October 20, will entertain the ladies of the Niblick store at 6 o'clock dinner this evening.

Miss Margaret Conter entertained the Bachelor Maids last evening at their regular weekly party. First prizes in five hundred were taken by the Misses Bess Tonner and Mayme Deininger.

The study of Indiana was continued last evening by the Historical club at the home of Mrs. Mary Eley when Mrs. L. C. Miller had a fine paper on "The Northwest Territory". This was thoroughly discussed in sub-topics by the members. Two new members, Mrs. Al Burd and Mrs. Sam E. Hite were received. Mrs. C. D. Lewin will have the paper next week at the home of Mrs. Jane Crabb.

Miss Ruth Bowers will entertain at a 6 o'clock dinner this evening in honor of Miss Veda Hensley, who will go to Fort Wayne Saturday to enter the Hope hospital to study to be a nurse. Covers will be laid for the Misses Leah Hensley, Glenys Mangold, Mary Frisinger and Vera Reinhardt of Portland.

LAST CHANCE FOR MAPS.

Do you want a map of Adams county? If you do, you ought to get it soon, for one of these fine days there are not going to be any more on the market. We have a few at this office for $1.00 and $1.25 and you should buy before they are all gone. Every one needs a county map and when they can be bought at this price you ought to have it. Buy now, if you need one.
