

YOUR Boy is not an ordinary boy--he's your boy--don't dress him in ordinary clothes--

Dress him in one of our suits, they're quality clothes through and through tailored with the same skill and care as our mens clothes, bright boyish patterns, long wearing fabrics, perfect in style, fit and in every detail.

Our boys clothes will cost you no more than you are now paying and eventually will cost much less because they wear so long.

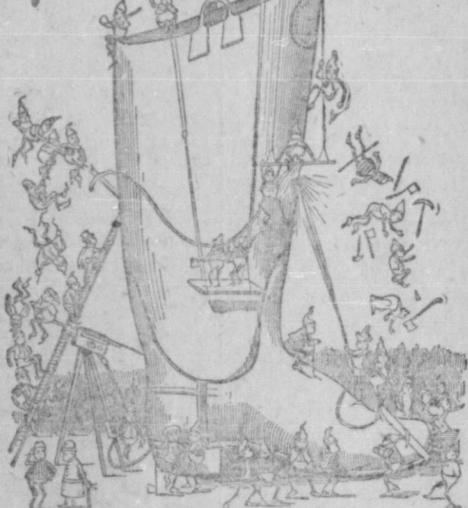

Let us show you these Boys Clothes.

Suits $2.00 to $8.00

Walther League—School house.
Friday.
Christian Ladies' Aid—Mrs. Leo Wilhelm.

SMILE

When the day is dreary
That's the time to smile,
With your laughter cheery
Dreary hours beguile.

When your heart is aching
Sing instead of fret;
Though your heart is breaking,
"Twill help you to forget.

—Farmer's Guide.

The Walther League will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the Lutheran parochial schoolhouse.

Mrs. J. W. Tyndall had an excellent paper on "The New Science, Efficiency" which was thoroughly discussed in the sub-topics, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Sutton yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Dugan will entertain next week instead of Mrs. D. M. Hensley, and Mrs. F. H. Hubbard will have a paper on "Sugar".

Mrs. L. L. Yager and sons, Jerome and Luther, of Berne, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hoffman.

At the meeting of the Ruth circle with the Misses Irene and Vera Eady last evening, there were fifteen present. Mrs. A. D. Artman, the teacher, distributed the tickets for the girls to sell for the home talent play, "Highly of Harvard" which will be given for the church piano fund benefit next Thursday, October 22 at the opera house. Miss Hank, daughter of the Christian minister at Hoopston, Ill. who is a guest at the Mrs. Minnie Daniels' home, sang and her solo was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served during the social period.

The dinner given last evening by Miss Effie Miller for the ladies of the Niblick society and a few other guests was a much enjoyed one. Covers were laid for the Misses Mary Niblick Josephine Lang, Edith Miller Kate Hammell and Pearl Baumgartner.

Mrs. Ed Coffee delightfully entertained the Wednesday Afternoon 500 club yesterday afternoon, the guests besides the members being Mrs. Coffee's mother Mrs. Brown of Chicago; Mrs. E. G. Coverdale and Mrs. L. A.

AN INVESTMENT THAT COMPOUNDS INTEREST.

When you invest your money in a Savings Account at the First National Bank every dollar for every day it is here earns you 3 per cent. Every six months that interest is automatically compounded—is added to your account and starts in to earn interest.

There are a few, if any, other forms of investment that will earn you compound interest automatically. Isn't that so?

Holthouse. The guests prize was won by Mrs. Holthouse and the club prizes by Mrs. Herb Lachot, Mrs. Arthur Mangold and Mrs. Joe Lane. Mrs. Lawrence Kleinhenz will entertain next Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Burgener motored to Fort Wayne this afternoon where they will meet Mrs. Burgener's mother Mrs. Kate Schaefer of Hicksville, O. who is coming for a visit.

Mrs. Earl B. Parker arrived from Richmond this afternoon for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hale. She is enroute to Marion, where Rev. Parker has accepted the Methodist pastorate. A reception will be given for the new pastor and wife at Marion on Friday evening. The Richmond Palladium tells of a farewell reception given there for them as follows: "Complimenting Rev. and Mrs. B. Earl Parker and family who are leaving the latter part of the week for their new home in Marion, Indiana, the congregation of the First Methodist church gave a farewell reception last evening. Fall flowers were used in decorating the church. Over three hundred guests were received during the evening. The musical program was a feature of the evening, the double male quartet singing throughout the evening. Dr. C. A. Peterson had charge of the program. Short talks were made by Mr. Alexander Beyerle and Mr. Watson P. O'Neill. At the close of the affair refreshments were served."

The Poinsettia club had a fine time last evening when Miss Effie Miller entertained. Mrs. Paul Kendall of Tipton and Miss Adelaide Keller of Fort Wayne were guests. In five hundred prizes were won by Misses Georgia Meibers and Alice Knapp.

"MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY."

Manager Parent of the Crystal theater announces that for this evening's entertainment he will begin the first episode of that widely talked about series, "The Million Dollar Mystery," written by Harold McGrath, and made into a film by the popular Thanhouser company. This evening's series is entitled "The Airship in the Night," and is in two reels. This first episode reveals the plotters, the mysterious disappearance of the million dollars, and the escape of the millionaire, even though surrounded at every point by his death-dealing pursuers. Ten thousand dollars will be awarded to the person giving the best one-hundred word solution of this mystery. Ask Manager Parent for particulars. In addition to these two reels a Biograph comedy of two subjects will be given, the first entitled "The Goat," and the second, "The Fireman's Social." Don't fail to start this popular new series. The usual prices of admission will hold forth, five cents to all.
