TELLING

THE TRUTH:-

The crowd, however, was probably the smallest democratic gathering ever held in the city when such an array of talent had been advertised to speak. Very few farmers came into the city and fewer still were at the meeting.—Evening Herald.

Now, what do you think of that for a paper that for months has sung "tell nothing but the truth?" Every man, woman and child packed in the court room yesterday knows that it would have been almost impossible to have crowded another person in. Farmers were there, many of them, and men from every other walk of life. Instead of being the "fizzle" the Herald would have you believe it was, it was a great success, most pleasing to those in charge and as compared with all other meetings for foreign speakers in this county this year it outclassed them all several times over. The "citizens" brought here Mr. Bigelow (the man who has since declared for the "wets" in the Ohio campaign), and he had only a few at Geneva and Berne and the meeting here was called off because there was no audience. Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks spoke to only a few, Hugh Th. Miller had small audiences, Mr. Beveridge had fair-sized crowds, but his crowd here did not compare with yesterday's showings; Albert Vestal had a corporal's guard, etc., and so we feel that the big crowd yesterday was deserving of a better report even from such a partisan as P. L. We know the democrats were well pleased and feel that the standpatters, middle of the readers and all others ought to be. As to making a big effort you know that this was not done. Three hundred bills were posted and the event was advertised in this paper a few days. The democrats do not pack their meetings.

Bets are being offered three to one that Milne won't have that little smile on November 4th.

HEAR HON. GUY COLERICK AND CONGRESSMAN ADAIR AT THE COURT ROOM WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Weil, P. L. didn't count them. We presumed he would or we would have employed a dozen or two men and had this done.

The governor was scarcely able to speak above a whisper and only talked a few minutes, but he made himself clear during that time.

You should hear the local issues discussed by John C. Moran at the court house Monday night. Mr. Moran argues every question of interest and you should hear him yourself.

And Sam Nussbaum hasn't given us any figures which show that he did his work for the same cost to his township as did his predecessors.

Billy Archbold spends a lot of time explaining the $302.39, but hasn't much to say about the $571.22. He hasn't any resolution which will clear that up, has he?

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THE COMING ELECTION BE SURE TO HEAR HON. JOHN C. MORAN DISCUSS THE LOCAL ISSUES AT THE COURT HOUSE NEXT MONDAY EVENING.

CONGRESSMAN ADAIR WILL TOUR THIS COUNTY WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT THE COURT HOUSE, AND THURSDAY AT BERNE AND GENEVA. HEAR WHAT HE HAS

TO SAY ABOUT THE CHARGES MADE BY HIS OPPONENTS.

Walter Thornhill is explaining, what he will do when he gets to the legislature. He is perfectly safe in this. He can promise anything he wants to most, for you know he is not going this year.

Tom Taggart was only a man after all. He didn't attempt to corrupt any one. He made a clear and plain talk on the politics of the state and the present administration and declares that there is no position or office to which he is aspiring. The ovation given him here proved that he has many admirers notwithstanding the unwarranted attacks made upon him by the Berne Witness.

The republicans are advertising three or four meetings in this county for next week and we presume the streets of Berne, Geneva and Decatur will be so crowded that it will be impossible to get through. At that P. L. will describe them as "Enthusiastic events portending victory."

The republicans of St. Mary's and Kirkland townships are still undecided as to what course they can best pursue to have a chance at the township elections, due to the carelessness of Chairman Fritsinger and his attorney, Mr. Walters. They feel that you should hear him yourself.

And Sam Nussbaum hasn't given us any figures which show that he did his work for the same cost to his township as did his predecessors.

The Herald says the men and officials who are making the various charges about the democrats will most certainly not make oath to whether or not they are right. Well, this is the first time we have ever heard of any person or party being tried without specific charges, attested or sworn to. We did not know that one could be tried upon the mere statement of office seekers and we had an idea that before any proof was necessary the party making the charges had to make their proof. You have not even made specific charges, you have it is true, circulated a lot.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THE COMING ELECTION BE SURE TO HEAR HON. JOHN C. MORAN DISCUSS THE LOCAL ISSUES AT THE COURT HOUSE NEXT MONDAY EVENING.

CONGRESSMAN ADAIR WILL TOUR THIS COUNTY WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT THE COURT HOUSE, AND THURSDAY AT BERNE AND GENEVA. HEAR WHAT HE HAS

of stories which you cannot substantiate, neither have you tried to do so. Further than that, you even refuse absolutely to use the official seal of the official who gives out the statements. You know why. Because the statements are misleading and pure fakes so far as being what you claim they are. There is nothing to disprove or deny until you make a specific statement under oath. When you do that it can easily be disproven, if it even resembles the statements and figures you have circulated.

OSTEOPATHY FOR THE SEDENTARY WORKERS.

Osteopathy is a boon to the man of sedentary habits and to the overworked business and professional man or woman. The osteopathic physician is especially trained and fitted to find and remove the little mechanical derangements of the body-mechanic, which interfere with the normal blood and nerve supply of the organs and tissues of the body.

These derangements are the small beginnings of disease. The osteopathic physician offers to the busy man an opportunity to retain his fitness to his life and in his later days escape such foes as rheumatism, Bright's disease, arterio-sclerosis, nervous prostration and prostatic troubles.

For these conditions osteopathy is not only the surest preventative but the best means of cure.

ATTENTION FARMERS

The democratic speakers have an easy task in campaigning this year. They are not telling the people what they would do if the party were in power. They are telling you what has been done by the national and state administrations, and they are proud of it.

All the things that the national and Indiana state administration have done have been so popular with all the people, and the results and benefits to the masses are so plain that they have been subjects for conversation until it is hard to find a man or woman who does not fully understand.

It requires no intricate of mysterious analysis and explanation for instance, to tell an audience that the new tariff took the burden of taxation from those things which all the people must buy and use. Republican orators used to take whole evenings to explain a single item in their tariff and if the audience ever understood why such laws should be the speakers seldom did.

It is just as simple for democrats now to show that the income tax rests most heavily upon those who have been fattening for years upon what they were able to take away from the producing and consuming masses through special legislation.

These were they who carried on the campaign of scarecrow fiction, seeking the defeat of the income tax law.

Then the banking and currency reform law, which the republicans declared was going to crush all business. This bill as Mr. Bryan told you, simply took the financial seat of the government from New York to Washington. The people may now use their own money without asking the permission of Wall street, or paying exorbitant interest to the house of Morgan for using the money that belongs to them.

It is just as simple for democrats now to show that the income tax rests most heavily upon those who have been fattening for years upon what they were able to take away from the producing and consuming masses through special legislation.

Thousands of people in Indiana will meet during the remaining days of the campaign to listen to Marshall, and Ralston, and Kern, and Shively, and Taggart, and Adair, and all the others who are out among them telling over and over again the many good things done by the democratic party since the affairs of nation and state were intrusted to their keeping.

Bevridge and Miller have told you

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Tuesday.

Euterpean—Mrs. Fred Mills.

Wednesday.

Bachelor Maids—Anna Clark.

Friday.

Mite Society—Mrs. Fred Schafer.

What you are, over-shadows what you say.

On account of the fact that the teachers will be in Indianapolis attending the teachers' convention the latter part of next week, the Euterpean club will meet Tuesday instead of Thursday evening. Mrs. F. V. Mills will be hostess and Mrs. Roy Archbold will be leader.

Mrs. James Collett of Van Wert, O., and Miss Jessie Grinney of Fort Wayne will be guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Burd. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Helm and children will also be entertained at dinner Sunday with them at the Burd home.

Another of the delightful Haloween parties of the season was given by Miss Florine Edwards last evening for the Rebekah Good Times club. All came masked and the guests were numbered as they entered. After all assembled the guests walked, whereby she could be identified. Miss Gladys Selman won the prize for guessing the greatest number. A visit was paid to the dining room, where individual candles on the table were provided for a marshmallow roast. Then came the delightful old-fashioned game of trying to blow out the candles in pumpkins, and this, with singing and other music, and more games, passed the time merrily.

A very fine two-course luncheon was served at the table in the dining room which was prettily decorated with honeysuckle, nasturtiums and other fall flowers. Seventeen were present. The luncheon and table decorations were carried out in the club colors, pink and green. A fern was the centerpiece, the sprays converging from the center of the table on the white cloth to the corners, and the flowers carried out the pink and green were carried out in the luncheon in the second course in the strawberry ice cream and kisses.
