

A TIP THAT CAN'T BE KICKED OUT

To you mothers and fathers who are looking for a shoe that will wear like iron on that boy of yours, we bring glad tidings.

We have just received a shipment of the new patented TEL-TIL-TIP shoes for boys.

The tip of this shoe is re-inforced in such a manner that it positively cannot be kicked out by the roughest usage and will make the shoe last longer than three pairs of ordinary shoes. It also has a re-inforced sole.

PRICES $2.50-$3.00-$3.50

OBITUARY.

Mary Ellen Reding, daughter of Wm. and Nancy Davis, was born March 4, 1849, in Belmont county, Ohio, and died November 19, 1914, at the home of her sister, Mrs. John R. Porter, on Mercer avenue, Decatur, Indiana, aged 65 years, 8 months and 14 days. She came with her parents to Adams county when nine years of age and had been a resident of it until her death. She was united in marriage to Wm. E. Reding July 20, 1870, who preceded her in death nine years. To this union were born three children, two dying in infancy, and Mrs. Alma Gilpen, residing near Parker, Ind. She leaves to mourn their loss one daughter, Alma Gilpen, one adopted daughter, Mrs. A. M. Bartling, of Fort Wayne, and Roy Reding, of Greshima, Ohio, whom she reared from childhood; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild; one sister, Mrs. John R. Porter of Decatur; three brothers, R. A. Davis, of Blue Creek township, and G. W. and Marion Davis, of Springfield, Mo., besides a host of other relatives and friends, by whom she will be greatly missed. She became a member of the Methodist church in young womanhood, but after her marriage went with her husband to the Baptist church, of which she was a faithful member until death claimed her. Funeral services were held Saturday at South Salem, in charge of Rev. Barton of the Christian church. Interment in the Tricker cemetery.
