The Land of Beginning.
I wish that there were some wonderful place
Called the Land of Beginning Again,
Where all our mistakes, and all our heartaches
And all of our poor, selfish grief
Could be dropped, like a shabby old coat, at the door,
And never put on again.

I wish we could come on it all unaware,

Like the hunter who finds a lost trail;
And I wish that the one whom our blindness had done
The greatest injustice of all
Could be at the gates, like an old friend that waits
For the comrades he's gladdest to hail.

We would find all the things we intended to do
Little praises unspoken, little promises broken.
And all of the thousand and one
Little duties neglected that might have perfected
The day for one less fortunate.

So I wish that there were some wonderful place
Called the Land of Beginning Again,
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches
And all of our poor, selfish grief
Could be dropped, like a shabby old coat, at the door,
And never put on again.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. John T. Myers on Fourth street Thursday afternoon.

The Presbyterian Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. C. A. Dugan yesterday and had a pleasant and profitable session. Mrs. James Fristoe had a fine paper on Asiatic influences in missionary work and this was further discussed in sub-topics by the members. Miss Gladys Meyers was pianist for the hymns and also played instrumental numbers as did Miss Helen Dugan. The subject of the mite boxes was brought up and Miss Laura Alban read a very good and clever poem relating to the hidden mite boxes. During the social, refreshments were provided.

Mrs. O. L. Vance entertained the Friday Night club last evening in a very charming way at a six o'clock dinner. After dinner the club played five hundred and the first prize was won by Mrs. John Heller and the slam by Mrs. John Peterson. The Vance home retained its Christmas decorations and was unusually pretty.

The study of Indiana was further carried out last evening by the Historical club at the home of Mrs. Chas. Battenberg, when Mrs. Robert Blackburn had a splendid paper on its military service, covering its part in the Mexican and civil wars. In the absence of Mrs. Arthur Fisher, who was to have been hostess next week, Mrs. Battenberg will again entertain and Mrs. Fannie Peterson will have the paper on Indiana artists.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Gleiser, who leave next Monday for their future home in Illinois, are being entertained in many pleasant ways by the members of the congregation here.

Mrs. L. C. Hessert was leader of the German Reformed missionary society study in the Sunday school rooms yesterday afternoon. The study of the book, "The Child of the Mist," was taken up and each member was assigned a part of the book, representing some different country. The first chapter of the book, relating to the mother and child was taken up yesterday. The old officers were re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. Henry Moyer; vice president, Mrs. Otto Reppert; secretary, Mrs. Otto Kirsch; treasurer, Mrs. Frank McConnell.

On account of illness in the Myers family, the Methodist Woman's Home Missionary society will be changed from the John T. Myers home to the Milton Hower home, on Fourth street. The meeting will be held Thursday afternoon.

A very pleasant surprise was given last evening for Mr. and Mrs. Horace Callow by the members of the Rice family. They gathered at the W. R. Smith home and taking with them baskets for a very delicious and substantial "eat" went to the Callow home. A general good time was in order and the luncheon was provided buffet style. Mrs. Albert Lachnit and daughter, Carolyn of Indianapolis; Mrs. Jeff Bryson and Mrs. Harry Detamore of Portland were out-of-town guests, while others were members of the families of Perry Robinson, Joe Rice, James Rice, Forest Elzey, Oscar Lankenau, W. R. Smith and Harve Smith.

Mrs. Charles Brodbeck will entertain the Dixie Embroidery club on Thursday evening.

The Baptist Brotherhood will meet with William Wisner Thursday evening, at his home corner of Adams and Eleventh street.

Clarence Baughman was a fine host last evening to the United Brethren Men's Bible class. Plans for the year's work were outlined and it was decided to organize a United Brethren Brotherhood into which all the men, both young and old, of the church, will be welcomed. After the business, little Miss Bertha Baughman assisted in serving the tempting refreshments. Willis Magner will entertain at the February meeting.
