OPINION OF A SKATER.

Decatur, Ind., April 12, 1915.
Editor Decatur Daily Democrat: Dear Sir:—I have heard what the people who are against skating had to say and I have read what the parents who want their children and the young people of Decatur to enjoy the pleasures and benefits of roller skating thought and now I believe that one of us skaters should put in a word. I believe the best way to settle the matter satisfactorily to all concerned would be to compromise. I believe that the council should revise the skating ordinance and lay down certain rules by which we may be allowed to skate on the sidewalks. I would suggest the following rules:
1. There shall positively be no skating on Sunday.
2. All children under the school age, "sixteen years," shall retire from the walks when the curfew blows, "eight o'clock p. m."
3. All other skaters should retire from the walks at "ten o'clock p. m." Hoping that my plan will at least be considered by the council, I remain,
A SKATER.

COMMITTEE.

OBITUARY.

William John Heath, son of John and Ellen Heath, was born July 10, 1861, and departed this life March 28, 1915, aged 53 years, 6 months and 18 days. He was united in marriage to Irene D. Jackson November 20, in the year 1890. She departed this life in 1894. To this union was born one son, Floyd Heath, who departed this life when four months old. Then in the year 1895 the fourth day of June, he was united in marriage to Lavina Shaffer. To this union were born five children, of whom all survive. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, three sons, two daughters, two brothers and two sisters. He has gone to join his father, mother, two brothers and three sisters, who have gone on before. He leaves a host of relatives and other friends to mourn his departure. He was a faithful helper in the United Brethren church, although he never united with any denomination, but always lent a helping hand to all that needed. In his short suffering we could not say what his communion was with God. But with all he could not explain, but seemed to be patient and endure his suffering. He was a loving and affectionate husband and father.

"Oh we miss him, how we miss him."
God has called another brother.
One we loved with heart so dear;
One who's always been a father,
And would always share our fears, Always thought of us in trouble, Always taught us to do right;
Now he's gone, our dearest brother,
And we're left to face the fight.
Dearest, dearest heavenly Father, Be our true and faithful guide, Guide us till we reach that mansion,
To our home beyond the skies.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

Decatur, Ind., April 10, 1915.
To the Citizens of Decatur, Indiana: On account of the large loss of property and the many injuries and deaths which occur in this country during the celebration of the Fourth of July, it is deemed advisable that in the future, this celebration be curtailed to some extent for the general good of all the citizens; and the mayor of this city believes it his duty to co-operate with other officials in making a more safe Fourth of July celebration.
Therefore, it is hereby ordered by the mayor of the city of Decatur, Indiana, that no Roman candles, sky-rockets, large firecrackers or other such fireworks will be allowed to be used within the city limits, except by permission of the mayor, and then only when the said fireworks are to be used by some society or other association and the same to be used on some vacant lot.

Respectfully,
CHAS. N. CHRISTEN,
Mayor.

FROM GERMANY

ly desire peace. Many of my friends have already fallen and are buried in the land of our enemies. If I should have to go, unless pressed by dire necessity I would not have to go to the front, for the older soldiers are used to man the forts, to guard the prisoners of war and railroads etc. Even thus, it could of course happen that a person would come into the sharpest kind of fighting. If any important engagements take place, I will send you a few newspapers that you may learn to know the truth. Many foreign papers print such coarse lies and shameless swindle that we quite frequently have a hearty laugh over it. You will hardly get to read that truth in your papers, which describes the true situation of the war. Germany, however, does not worry about this deliberate lying, for she thinks that the world will not accept such false reports, and that truth must win in the long run. The German army will never be conquered with false newspaper reports. Kindly tell this to our countrymen whom you meet. They will and must be proud of our dear fatherland. As I have written you before, I nearly came making a trip to America a few years ago. In this case I would also have visited you. I have already been in Paris, Vienna and London and I even speak a little English but only tolerably well. Now I will finish this letter, which I hope will reach you in the best of health.
Trusting to hear from you soon, I remain with many greetings.
Your true cousin,
FERD OTTO.
