Entered at the postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second-class matter.

Its May day and some day at that. The summer days are on the way and its time you got busy at cleaning up, painting and doing your spring work.

Monday is the last day to pay your taxes. Don't overlook this little bet or you will have to add a ten per cent penalty.

President Wilson will stay on the job again this summer, watching affairs in this land of peace and plenty, while the other great nations of the world, play at war, destroying property and sacrificing human lives. It seems that the person who does not appreciate the efforts of the great president of this great land, is an un-American citizen at least.

The death of Grandpa Kunkle removes from this locality, one of the real pioneers. He was nearly ninety-five years of age and had lived in this community nearly seventy years. He had helped to build and his four-score and nearly fifteen years were industriously spent. He was a christian man, a splendid citizen, a man among men and his life an example of righteous living.

We believe Decatur can have a gymnasium, a place of amusement for the boys and girls and the young men and women and the older ones too, but it will take some time and some assistance from the people of this community. Remembering that it is the most important work of all, providing a clean place for our people to enjoy themselves in, we ask you only that you have patience. Keep on paying your subscription. If you haven't signed yet, do so at once, and one of these days we will have on hands a sufficient amount to start the "gum" in a business way.

Imports for March were valued at $158,000,000, which is $20,000,000 less than in the same month of 1914. The imports are now about the same in amount as in the last year of the high tariff. Since July 1, exports have reached the unparalleled total of $1,932,000,000, giving a balance of trade in our favor of more than $70,000,000. It seems probable that the balance in our favor for the whole fiscal year (to June 30) will not fall far below a billion dollars. In the highest days of high protection the country never had a balance of trade to compare with this.—Current Events.

RECEIVE WARNING

Passengers Leaving New York on Lusitania Warned to Leave Ship.

WILL BE DESTROYED

While in Mid-ocean—Germans Make a Strategic Movement in North.

New York, May 1.—(Special to the Daily Democrat)—Scores of prominent passengers who sailed today on the giant Cunarder Lusitania found anonymous telegrams awaiting them at the pier giving warning that the Lusitania would be sunk on her trip. Alfred G. Vanderbilt was told in one of these that the vessel would be torpedoed. Other passengers were warned that the vessel would meet some mysterious end. The messages were followed up by the circulation by a number of strangers on the pier by a number of similar warnings. The strangers hurried away as soon as the fact was reported to the Cunarder detective force. None of those on the liner cancelled passage although the activity of the mysterious men and the telegrams made them uneasy. Despite the warnings the ship carried the largest number of passengers for months. She broke all previous records for number of second cabin passengers.

Berlin, May 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Announcement by the war office of the new operations against the rich Baltic Russian provinces came as a joyous surprise to Germans. Nothing had been permitted to leak regarding the movements. Although judging from the fact that the troops were sixty miles away from Mommel, the march must have started several days ago. It was pointed out that Szawle, the point where the fighting now is proceeding, is east of the railway line from Kowno to Klna, points which in the opinion of German experts are essential to the protection of the Russian position on the Vistula and Warsaw. The fact that the Germans could penetrate this far without encountering opposition is freely commented on here as showing that the Russian outposts are not any better than they were in the Russo-Japanese war.

Constantinople, May 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The Turkish official statement reviewing the operations in the Dardanelles claim the land batteries have sunk a British destroyer, badly damaged two French cruisers, Jean and D'Arc and the British battleships Majestic and Vengeance. It also declared one British transport had been driven on shore and several sail boats sunk.

London, May 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Further fighting of the heaviest character was reported today on the Gallipoli peninsula where the British forces are making every effort to cut off the Turks from the main land. Special despatches say that in a series of night assaults the enemy were driven further inland. The entire allied fleet is cooperating with the land parties. Meanwhile the French are advancing on the Asiatic side. The admiralty has no confirmation of the Turkish claims that several of the allied ships have been disabled. It was stated however that it would not be surprising if some of the ships had been hit as they are steaming well within range of the fort in order to bring their secondary batteries into play.

FARMER RELIEVED

Of $8 or $10—Gypsy Women Take it from Trousers' Pocket.

A band of gypsies camping in Preble township were responsible for the calling of Sheriff Ed Green, Deputy, L. D. Jacobs and Marshal Melchi to the scene about noon today. Two gypsy women visited the Christ A. Fuhrman farm and going to the barn on their pilfering and fortune telling excursions succeeded by dextrous sleight of hand performance to extract between eight and ten dollars from Mr. Fuhrman's trousers pockets. Mr. Fuhrman strenuously objected and the officers were called. He was unable to identify which woman took the money and as the sun was made up among the gang and returned to him, on arrival of the officers, no arrests were made.

WOMAN MAYOR IN OFFICE

Warren, Ill., May 1.—(Special to the Daily Democrat)—Mrs. A. R. Canfield Warren's 74 year old mayor, today opened the first meeting of the city council under her administration with prayer by the Rev. Clarence Miller pastor of the Baptist church. Hereafter, prayer will be a feature of all meetings. Two applications for pool room licenses were refused by the mayor, who declared she would rid Warren of these places where young men loiter away their time. All but two of Mayor Canfield's appointments were rejected.

REFUSE SALOON LICENSES.

The city council today took action that will soon make Danville saloonless. The vote was one whether the council should refuse licenses to applicants. In two recent elections Danville has had wet majorities.

HAVE ROUGH TIME.

Shamokin, Pa., May 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Two masked men held up a car on the Shamokin & Gilberton railroad when it reached the pass in the mountains at eleven o'clock today, had a rough time of it. Two of the passengers grappled one of the bandits, but the other held them at bay until his partner got free, then another passenger grappled the bandit, and the bandits knocked him out, got $4,500 and escaped. The passenger recovered, ran the car up the mountain, ran it down again and turned in an alarm. The men were captured.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

some home and converting it into a gymnasium, which could be added to as needed and this may be decided upon. If so a campaign for larger contributions will be made. In the meantime it is hoped that those who subscribed to the fund and all others who will, continue to pay in the money which as stated will be placed on interest and the money accounted for by the committee. Mr. Kirsch is the treasurer and the funds will be carefully guarded and expended only when the committee feels they are benefitting the young people and meeting the purpose for which it was subscribed. The work is proceeding slowly but some of these days the thing for which so many have hoped so long, a real "gym" will be secured. Keep on helping. The committee will meet again next Friday evening.
