

10¢ SENTAN LAXATIVE TABLETS 10¢

CONSTIPATED? Well, don't be

Sentan Laxatives conquer Constipation, stir up the Liver, purify the Blood, make you feel great! Wonderful little performers—10¢

Sentan Laxatives make you feel great, because they are blood tonic, as well as a laxative; they clean out and clear up the system just a bit better than any other laxative. Sentanals don't stop when they have rid the bowels and intestines of their trouble. They go on. They cleanse and purify the blood, and in that way add vigor and strength to every organ and muscle of the body. That's the reason for our statement that Sentanals are more than just a physic.

Sentanals work painlessly. They are an all-vegetable compound, put up in tablet form and sugar-coated. Not a bit of calomel in them, so you need fear no nasty after-effects that so often follow the taking of that drug.

Have your druggist send you a box of Sentanals tonight, 10 doses for a dime. Try them. If they don't come up to your expectations we will give you your money. Insist on getting Sentanals. If your druggist, for some reason, should not handle them and will not get them for you, we will be glad to fill your order by mail. Sample free for the asking. The Sentanal Remedies Co. (Inc.), 807 Madison, Covington, Ky.

Highest Praise For "The Servant In the House"

First Chautauqua Renditions In the Many Towns and Cities Where It Has Already Appeared.

Author of Play Witnesses Production at Jacksonville, Fla., Is Called and Compliments the Excellent Cast.

THE Servant in the House is now fully established as a Chautauqua and Lyceum attraction. Its first production at Jacksonville, Fla., on the evening of April 17 surpassed the fondest expectations of the Redpath management. Charles Rann Kennedy, the author of the play, was also present on this opening night and at the close of the rendition expressed the greatest satisfaction with the excellency of the cast and the manner of production.

Called to the platform at the close, he expressed his satisfaction, holding the hand of William Owen, the star, in his as he talked. The audience in turn demonstrated its enthusiasm by rounds of applause, and also by a rising vote of approbation which the platform manager was to convey to other cities where the play appeared later.

Since the opening night "The Servant in the House" has been repeated in two score or more Chautauqua cities, including Savannah and Augusta, Ga.

Charleston, S. C., and Birmingham, Ala., and with equal success, all of which will be good news to the scores of cities and towns where the production has been booked for winter Lyceum dates. The same company will present this play in the winter season that is now appearing on the Chautauquas. Special scenery is carried for this production.

The play is presented in five acts. It concerns problems of the present day and sets forth the story of one morning in the early spring. The central thought of the play is summed up in the Scriptural quotation, "If a man says 'I love God' and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?"
