J. H. Ward formerly of this city but who moved to Clarissa, Minn., last April writes us that he likes his new home very much and that he is enjoying the best of health. Mr. Ward also states that they have been "blessed" with an abundance of rain this summer month of July. He said that the corn and potato crops were ruined, but that the wheat, rye and oats yield would be a good one. He also sent us a copy of the Clarissa daily paper.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company within a week will complete the installation of a set of scales in Tyrone that will weigh anything up to 400,000 pounds. Scale Inspectors F. M. Basler, H. B. Houston and W. E. Ebright, of the Pennsylvania, began setting up the scales early in June and the work has been under the direct supervision of the inventor, A. H. Emory, of Stamford, Conn., who is past eighty-one years old. The largest scales now used by the Pennsy have a weighing capacity of 300,000 pounds, but the company is also building a set of standard scales, such as they now use at the Juniata shops which will also have a capacity of 400,000 pounds. When completed comparisons can be made between Mr. Emory's scales and the standard type.

Farmers were too busy to drive into town Saturday. Two days of sunshine started the machines in the oats fields and threshing machines got busy all at once. It should cause no surprise if some of our good farmers should forget and work on Sunday.

Motion pictures are to aid in the Mayor Johnson campaign for the republican nomination for governor of Indiana and at the same time the films will be employed in giving the people of the state a better idea of Gary the youngest city in Indiana.

Realizing that the prosperity of the city depends largely upon the prosperity of the farmers of Kosciusko county and that they can only hope to be prosperous when their crops are good, many Warsaw business men are preparing to go to the aid of the farmers when the rains halt long enough to make work possible in the fields.

One of the most severe thunder storms of the season passed over this city Saturday night with the result that at several places lightning is reported to have done considerable damage. Among these was a hog barn belonging to Wade McBarnes south of the city and which had one entire corner torn off. Fortunately none of the stock was injured.

Postmaster J. W. Bosse reports letters and cards remaining uncalled for at the Decatur postoffice for the following: Letters: Lizzie Baker, Jess Hill, Lila Reynolds, C. M. Robinson, John Welsh. Cards: C. B. Adams, Mrs. Fred Angle, James R. Fleming, C. Kembar, Daisy Ressler, J. D. Thundrie, Mrs. Joseph Welld. Persons calling for these letters and cards will please say "advertised."

A letter carrier delivered a letter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barton of Paterson, N. J., fourteen years ago. The letter was addressed to Mr. Barton, and as he was busy at the office, his wife received it from the postman. Mrs. Barton, whose husband is one of the leading real estate dealers of Paterson, had only been married two years. The note was written on perfumed pink paper and the address was in a woman's hand. Following a few moments over the teakettle spout it was an easy matter to ascertain the contents of the epistle. And right there was where the trouble started, for the letter was to the effect that the writer was unable to meet "Dear Louis" at a certain place and suggested another rendezvous. It was signed, "Lovingly, Sadie." When Mr. Barton returned home, there was a quarrel, and in November, 1901, the couple parted. They have both lived in Paterson ever since, but never have been reconciled.

MRS. SCHAFER BURNED

Well Known Lady Of Walnut Street Scalded Today.

Mrs. Fred Schafer of North Walnut street, was badly burned about the feet and ankles this morning. She was emptying a boilerful of boiling water into a tub. The boiler rested on the edge of the tub in such a way that it was upset, sending the scalding liquid over her feet. A physician was called to dress the burns and she is getting along nicely.

SOME PLUMS.

Ben Linninger the well known Adams County farmer living five miles west of Decatur today brought in a small twig from one of his plum trees on it hung about fifty of the largest and best eating plums we have seen or eaten. Mr. Linninger sold a number to people here in the city.

HIGHLY PRAISED

Goshen Was Greatly Pleased by Concert of Menonite Ladies' Choir.

SPECIAL MENTION IS

Given to Singing of Miss Kathryn Egley--Are Making Extended Tour.

The Goshen Daily Democrat gives the following favorable mention of the concert given there by the Menonite choir of Berne, and especially of the singing of Miss Kathryn Egley.

The Menonite Ladies' Choir of Berne, Indiana, under the directorship of Miss Helen Leitchy, gave a very pleasing concert at the college last night. The program was made up of vocal selections variously chosen to represent a number of leading composers of sacred songs.

This choir is to be congratulated upon the good work they are doing, their voices, blend beautifully, their enunciation is clear and distinct and they find no difficulty in singing in key, which is a rare accomplishment.

Miss Kathryn Egley, the soloist deserves special mention for the commendable way in which she sang "I Do Not Ask O Lord," by Spross, and "Hold Thou My Hand," by Briggs. Miss Egley has a beautiful lyric soprano voice, and she knows how to use it to good advantage.

The reading of Henry Vandyke's "The Lost Word" was also a special feature of the program.

Immediately after the concert the ladies of the college gave an informal reception, a very enjoyable time reported.

The choir will sing in Elkhart and South Bend tomorrow, and at Oakwood Park Monday.
