

JACOB F. DENNY, PORTLAND, CANDIDATE FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR CONGRESS.

A SECRET CAUCUS

This is a confidential talk with Democrats only. I am quite sure that no one of opposite political faith, living in the Eighth district will try to butt in and read what he knows is not intended for his eye; hence I have no fear of my "dispatches falling into the hands of the enemy." To them I will have much to say after the Ides of March.

WHO'S WHO?

Having now closed the door, let us proceed to caucus. I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress. I live at Portland; I am 41 years old; my present occupation is Judge of the Jay Circuit Court; my politics is Democratic, without any qualifying adjectives, addenda, errata or exceptions.

MY PLATFORM

I haven't any. But the contract has been let for its construction; it is to be delivered F. O. B., St. Louis, in June, 1916. Carpenters from every state in the Union are to be employed, men representing the very best and most intelligent thought of the Democratic ranks; men who realize that in this hour of dire crisis, the peace, the fate of a nation are aboard the old ship of state and that it is treason to torpedo it. It is a platform that is being built for Woodrow Wilson to stand upon and when completed, I purpose planting my No. 10, width D, soles firmly thereon.

IT COSTS TOO MUCH

to tell you here all that I fain would say. I can't afford even to REPEAT these few inches of film and so I am going to ask you as a personal favor to pass this paper on to your neighbor.

Anyway, who was it—DeQuincey, I guess—that gets this off: "Said but ONCE, said but softly, not marked at all, words revive before me in darkness and in solitude."
