HAVE YOU A GOITER OR A "BIG NECK?"

If so, do You Wish It Treated and Removed Without an Operation?

If you are one of the many who are unfortunate enough to suffer from a condition known as Goiter or "big neck," you will be interested in reading this article. Goiter is an overgrowth or an enlargement of the thyroid gland, which is situated in the lower front portion of the neck. It is very much more common in women than men, and still more common in young women and girls. There are four general types or kinds of, and all four give rise to certain common symptoms, namely shortness of breath particularly upon exertion, difficulty in swallowing, palpation of the heart, a sense of constriction around the neck as though it were inclosed in a tight collar, and very often a short, dry, aggravating cough. In addition to these symptoms, the exophthalmic, often called the "in-grown" goiter causes a marked nervousness, protruding eyeballs, and a constantly increased heart rate associated with irregularity and palpitation. There is also a loss of body weight, loss of strength, sleeplessness and inability to work, without simply "going to pieces." This kind or type of Goiter is by far the most serious, and is a menace or danger to life, death often resulting, in untreated or incorrectly treated cases.

Can Goiter be cured? This is the question that will interest all who suffer from it; I will say, that an extremely large per cent of all Goiters can be, and without operation or the knife, providing, of course, that they be treated by a physician or a specialist, who is thoroughly experienced and therefore treated correctly, scientifically and with the full co-operation of the patient. Far too many Goiter patients run the risk of a dangerous, delicate operation, without ever giving medical treatment a trial, or without attempting anything other than to have it "cut" out. Therefore a very large per cent are operated on, unnecessarily, or operated on when a cure would have been possible by medical means. I have frequently observed two patients with similar goiters, one which was operated upon, and the other treated with medicine, with the result that both were cured; the one that was operated upon was forced to remain in the hospital for a week or longer, thereby losing valuable time, had taken a chance that might have resulted in their death, had suffered an untold amount of pain, had received a scar that would mar their neck, and in addition had expended a sum of money, in excess of one hundred and fifty dollars. While the one treated medically had gone about their every-day work, had run no chance of losing life, had suffered no pain, had received no scar, and besides had expended a decidedly smaller sum of money for the same results. Therefore, if for no other reason, it is a business policy to have this condition treated by a specialist, and treated without operation. Or in other words, with medicines, which have been tried, proven and found satisfactory.

Such is the kind of treatment that I offer, absolutely scientific, a method of treatment that has not proved successful in a few selected cases, but one that has been the means of curing hundreds afflicted with Goiter. Scores of patients have consulted me, after they have given up all hopes of securing results other than by an operation. I accepted them for treatment, and treated them to their entire and complete satisfaction, sent them on their way rejoicing, as they had reason to, for they had escaped, the always much dreaded and ever to be feared knife.

When a patient suffering with goiter, or any other long standing chronic disease, consults me, I examine them carefully. I answer any questions they may desire to ask, explain their condition, and advise them the proper measures to take; if they desire to take treatment and their case is one which can be treated successfully, I tell them. Then if they desire me to treat them, I do so, but they are at no time under any obligation whatsoever to take or contract for treatment. So you see the patient takes no chance in consulting me, for consultation, examination and advice are free and confidential.

Remember my remedies, treatments and methods are those which have been tried and proven by my own personal experience, and in addition combined and strengthened with the newest, latest and most modern known to science and the medical profession. For a limited time I will be able to treat those desiring same, at my same moderate prices, regardless of the enormous increase in prices of drugs.

I will be at Decatur ONE DAY only, Hotel Murray.

Tuesday, April 4, 1916, returning every four weeks or 28 days. I would suggest that those who desire to consult me, arrange to come in as early as possible.

Respectfully yours,
DR. FRUTH.

A DENTISTS FORMULA

DON'T NEGLECT KIDNEYS.

Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Prescription, Overcomes Kidney Trouble.

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

The kidneys should receive some assistance when needed. We take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich, heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, maybe weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. There is nothing else like it. It is Dr. Kilmer's prescription used in private practice and it is sure to benefit you. Get a bottle from your druggist.

However, if you wish first to get this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Daily Democrat.—Adv't.

FAMOUS YANKEE COMPOSER H. CLAY WORK AND SONGS

Only those who lived during the civil war can realize the power and influence exercised by the song writers of the time. Henry Clay Work, who was born at Middletown, Connecticut, in 1832, was imprisoned in Missouri for helping a fugitive slave to escape. He was a printer by trade and wrote "Kingdom Coming," "Babyton is Fallen," and in his "Come Home, Dear Father, Come Home," was a temperance sermon that never has seemed to lose its plaintive appeal. He was the author of "Grandfather's Clock," and at one time member of the music firm of Root & Cady, Chicago. His songs had a great vogue in their time and still continue in the melodies of the old days.

Several of Work's famous old songs appear in "Heart Songs" now offered by this paper to its readers. A complete library of American song. See coupon elsewhere in this issue.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddied complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.
