Entered at the Postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second-class matter.

News item from St. Louis convention: At this juncture General Prosperity seconded Woodrow Wilson's renomination with a rousing speech.

The directors of a live business concern do not discharge the manager at a time when he is able to show the biggest profits in the history of the firm. Neither does Uncle Sam.

A party which is without a principle leans naturally toward a candidate who has not expressed himself on any question; or which is the logical equivalent, a candidate who has shouted for all sides of all questions for six years.

If it is unwise to swap horses while crossing a stream, wouldn't it be the height of folly to change mounts after the stream has been successfully forded and you are traveling comfortably upon the safe ground of Prosperity?

Fifty fighters for Decatur right now could put the old town on the map and we must have them. Within a few days a proposition of great interest to every one who lives here or has property here will be made and when it is every fellow in this community should become a real booster.

This has been a fearful week in Chicago and the politicians have tried their best to hide the gloom they feel. Its not all the weather either. The once grand old party is divided on every issue, haven't a candidate that has a ghost of a show against Wilson, and but little chance of reuniting the now badly wrecked ship. It's enough to make the clouds weep.

"On to St. Louis" is the cry of the democrats of Indiana now and within the next few days it is predicted that several thousand Hoosiers will throng that city, anxious to add their endorsement to the record of Wilson and Marshall. The convention will be an enthusiastic one but very different from the "don't know what to do" kind now on in Chicago.

There were three wagons for the accommodation of many, and others went out in their own conveyances. The evening was not favorable for the lawn party and outdoor games planned, so the scene was transferred to the house. After the business meeting, which included the hearing of the year's reports, ice cream and cake were served. The treasurer reported that there is $69 in the treasury, with all expenses paid. The class has been quite an industrious one and has had remarkable growth. Mrs. Irvin Elzey, Mrs. Delma Elzey and Mrs. Frank Aurand will be hostesses at the next meeting.

Forty of forty-six couples invited responded and the grand march which opened the ball at nine o'clock was lead by Frank Wemhoff and Miss Tonk Melbers, and Mr. and Mrs. Wal Wemhoff. Musicians were Johnny Wemhoff of Fort Wayne and Elmo Smith and the music was exceptionally good. Other out of town guests besides the guests of honor were Miss Mary Hartzell, of Greenville, O., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown, Chicago.

The choir of St. Peter's Lutheran church, of which Prof. Dorn is the director, gave a shower last evening at the Dorn home for Miss Ludgilla Dornseif, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Dornseif, whose wedding to the Rev. Ernest Witte of Charlotte Hall, Mr. will take place Sunday, June 13. The affair was an aluminum shower and about thirty guests were present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. HUGHES AND FAIRBANKS AND ROOSEVELT TOO while awaiting word from the republican convention so that they did not nominate until 12:33, two minutes after Hughes was nominated by the republicans in the coliseum. Following the nomination the progressives adjourned until three o'clock.

In his seconding speech Governor Johnson said: "There comes a time in every man's life when he goes up against the guns. Your up against the guns right now. Don't wait another minute. In seconding his nomination I will tell you that I don't know what Roosevelt will do but I do know he never shirked a responsibility in his life."

HUGHES' STATEMENT.

Washington, D. C., June 10—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Justice Hughes in a statement made after he resigned from the supreme court bench said he would accept the republican nomination for president "and that he endorsed the republican platform."

"I have not desired the nomination," said Hughes. "I have wished to remain on the bench. But in this critical period of our national history I recognize that it is your right to summon and that it is my paramount duty to respond."

This comes at a time of national exegency transcending merely partisan consideration. You voice the demands of a dominant thorough-going Americanism with firm protective upbuilding policies essential to your peace and security and to that call in this crisis I cannot fail to answer with the pledge of all that is in me to the service of our country. Therefore I accept the nomination."

TEDDY LOSES CONTROL.

Auditorium, Chicago, June 10—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Theodore Roosevelt lost control of the bull moose convention today. In a long statement he asked the progressives to compromise on Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts. This motion was tabled and the delegates proceeded toward the nomination of the colonel.

Progressive leaders expressed great dissatisfaction with Lodge. Gifford Pinchot and Governor Johnson were among the most violent critics of the colonel's compromise candidate.

The conference committee reported that it had agreed with the republicans that the name of Justice Hughes should go before the progressive convention.

The progressive platform was adopted.

"LODGE WILL NEVER DO."

Chicago, June 10—(Special to the Daily Democrat)—Governor Johnson of California, in a statement to the United Press today, declared Henry C. Lodge of Massachusetts, Roosevelt's compromise candidate, will not be acceptable to the progressive party.

"I am a progressive and Lodge is not. Lodge does not represent a single part of the progressive party's faith. He will never do. We will tell the colonel so in language so direct that he will understand it."

Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania said: "Why didn't the colonel select Penrose? He would be just as acceptable to the progressives as Lodge."
