Now all together for a community that can give a Community Supper so big that we will have to hold it in a ten-acre field to accommodate those who wish to attend. There are so many things we can do if we will and if we try to do them instead of looking for something to find fault with.

Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity—these are the issues upon which the democratic party stands, and the heart of democracy swells with pride that is more than the pride of party, as it hails the man who has asserted this Americanism, assured this peace, advocated this preparedness and produced this prosperity.—From Governor Glynn's keynote speech at the St. Louis convention.

Notwithstanding the fact that republican newspapers and some politicians are trying their best to prove that everything that happens, including the weather, is due to the fact that President Wilson once taught school, that splendid and fearless and brilliant leader continues to lead and to do it in the wise and careful manner that brings to him the assistance and the co-operation of the greatest men of the age. The people are for the president and they will uphold him.

The Community Supper will be held this evening at the sugar plant and it is believed that there will be present a crowd of several hundred men, citizens of this community, property owners and men interested in a better county and city, in keeping up with the procession. That it will be an enjoyable affair and that those who attend will be glad to come to the next one and bring a neighbor is the hope and belief of the men who have worked hard for several weeks to plan it out.

If this democratic administration had performed no other public service than the enactment of the federal reserve act, it would deserve the unstinted approval of a grateful nation. Thanks to democracy and to democracy's great leader, the business man who is struggling to establish himself may now work out his destiny without living in terror of panics and hard times. The toiler in the factory may ply his tasks in security, knowing that his employer's business is safe from assault. The farmer who must borrow to move his crops may do so without spending his days in anxiety, his nights in nightmares of foreclosure and disaster. Truly the scholar-statesman, whose rod has struck the golden rock of America's resources, to set free the wealth imprisoned for half a century, is a Moses who has led America's industries from the wilderness of doubt and despair to the promised land of prosperity and hope.—From Governor Glynn's keynote speech at the St. Louis convention.

The Henry Heckman lovely farm north of the city was thronged with visitors last evening when a big barn dance was given. The large barn floor was waxed beautifully and a three piece orchestra furnished the music. Many auto loads from Fort Wayne, Decatur and other towns went out for the dance. Refreshments of sandwiches and pickles were served.

Mrs. Ralph Amrine was hostess to the Wednesday five hundred club yesterday afternoon when the circle was opened to receive as guests Mrs. Wal Wemhoff, Misses Celeste Wemhoff, Rose and Bess Tonner and Mrs. W. W. Pool of Fort Wayne. At cards, the guest's prize was won by Miss Bess Tonner and the club prizes by Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Ansel Bremerkamp and Mrs. Fred Fulenkamp.

The Walther League members entertained their friends at a "guest day" party last evening, the committee on entertainment being the Misses Marie Boesse, Ida Gunsett and Luella Bultemeier and Mr. Ed Boknecht. The league colors of black and gold were evident in the decorations and a quantity of black and gold Japanese lanterns lighted the scene prettily. A number of appropriate games and contests preceded the picnic supper which was spread on a cloth and eaten Jap style on the floor. The feast consisted of everything good, not an item being from the good things. A program, consisting of readings by Miss Clara Boknecht and Ida Gunsett, a vocal solo by Mrs. Hinz and songs by the company in chorus, with a bean contest later, was fine. In a fishing pond, fortunes were drawn which were very amusing. Twenty-four were present.

Mrs. Joe Tonner entertained at dinner party last evening for Mrs. B. Uhl and granddaughter, Miss Ethel Uhl, of Toledo, O. Other guests were Mrs. Margaret Meibers, Mrs. Anna Doppelman and Mrs. Mary Wemhoff.

Miss Marianna Good of Warren and Miss Jane Austin of Indianapolis arrived in the city last evening for an over-Sunday visit with the Misses Ruth Bowers and Mary Frisinger. The young ladies were classmates of Miss Bowers and Miss Frisinger at Western college, Oxford, Ohio, the last year. A number of social events are being planned for them this week.

There were a very large number of guests, swelling the party to forty-three, when the Ruth Circle of the Christian church was most royally entertained by the Misses Florence and Grace Lichtensteiger at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lichtensteiger, south of the city last evening. The Decatur members met with the Williams family at the Mose studio and were met there by a hay rack from the farm, on which they enjoyed the ride to and from the home. Mrs. A. D. Artman, the teacher, presided at the business meeting and plans for a benefit show were discussed and committees named to attend to the same. An ice cream social will also be given a week from Saturday evening on the church lawn. This will be a "War of the roses" and like the one of historical fame, one side will have the white rose for its emblem and the other the red. Captains are Marie Daniels and Vera Eady, who will choose sides, and each work for the largest number of sales. A new member, Miss Kathryn Mavity, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Mavity, who has just returned from college, was received. An out of town guest was Miss Conner of Colorado, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Mavity, who is here for a visit, having come from Butler college, where she is a student. After the business and the devotional period, which opened with a song and a prayer by the Rev. Mavity, the hours were declared open for a good time. Games were played and good cheer reigned. Delicious refreshments of strawberry ice cream, fine homemade cake and lemonade were served. The hostesses and their mother were assisted in this by the Misses Mildred Strebe, Marie, Genevieve and Lucille Lichtensteiger, Sophia Droll, Mrs. Cappaert and Mrs. Olen Baker. One of the best times the circle has ever had was that of last evening. Miss Eula McMinney has invited the circle to her home in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Sutton entertained at supper last evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Pennypacker and children of Bluffton, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Alex White and grandson, Murray Sutton, of Ossian; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sutton. Mr. and Mrs. Pennypacker and family will remain for a several weeks visit here with relatives.

Claude Shadé, of Montpelier, an Illinois university student, was a guest at the L. W. Frank home.

F. F. Thorntburg, on "Elements of Successful Christian Living." The service was the more impressive in view of the fact that Rev. Thorntburg is soon to leave to join his regiment of national guards, as chaplain, and left soon after this service this morning for Valparaiso to visit with his mother before leaving for the front.

George Ernsberger, son of Dr. D. O. Ernsberger, who is studying to be a medical missionary, gave a good talk this morning, as did Miss Olivia Dunlap, national field secretary for the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society, and who yesterday also spoke, giving her own experiences in home mission work. Mrs. Ernsberger also talked yesterday on their work in India.

over just ahead today. Officials bearing of the Carranza clash were almost unanimous in this view. Nothing will be done, however, until General Pershing's report which is expected about noon, is received. It appeared that it would aggravate rather than relieve the situation.

Secretary Baker placed in the hands of Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee a resolution for passage by congress authorizing the president to draft the militia for service in Mexico.

A war department official said the actual order to the three states militia had not been given but that these forces would be sent to the border just as soon as they could be put on trains with their equipment.

He added: 'I expect we will have to get pretty much all the militia ordered out and collected down there pretty soon.'

GREASERS FIRE ON 10TH.

El Paso, Texas, June 22.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The Carranza troops opened fire on the United States cavalry at Carrizal on War Minister Obregon's orders. General Gonzales, commandant in Juarez announced today he had received Obregon's message to this effect.

Reinforcements were rushed today to the aid of the Tenth cavalry, victims of the ambush by Mexicans in which forty Americans are reported to have been killed and seventeen known to have been captured. General Pershing has sent a body of additional troops to the 10th general headquarters according to word received here. El Paso and the army headquarters were still anxiously awaiting today full details of the fight near Carrizal.

The Mexican authorities professed complete ignorance of the extent of the Mexican casualties in the battle which followed the ambush of the negro troops of five companies of the 10th. Latest reports are that the troopers were lured into the hamlet of Carrizal under a flag of truce. The Mexican authorities still claim there were forty Americans killed and seventeen captured.

OREGON'S VERSION

Mexico City, Mex., June 22—(Special to Daily Democrat)—General Pershing's defiance of the instructions given him by General Trevino to make no further advance into Mexico caused the battle at Carrizal station on the Mexican Central railroad, the war office announced today. The official statement reported that the battle occurred on Sunday June 18th. The American forces were moving southward when the engagement occurred. They were driven back and seventeen taken prisoners. General Gomez was fatally wounded and died after the battle.

General Obregon's version of the Carrizal clash was that the American forces "tried to occupy the station of Carrizal of the Mexican Central railway and General Trevino ordered it to be attacked." Obregon quoted from a report made by Trevino that he (Trevino) had been informed the fighting began early in the morning, the Carranza troops attacking the Americans in response to orders.

"I have just been informed the American forces were repulsed," Trevino's report declared. A second dispatch from Trevino, issued by Obregon today says:

The American interpreter was captured. He confesses that the American leader was responsible for the conflict."

CALIFORNIA TO HURRY

San Francisco, Cal., June 22—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Mobilization of the California militia had scarcely begun when dispatches from Washington brought the news that the war department intended to try to get the troops of this state to the border immediately. Excepting the Sacramento companies none of the troops had started for the mobilization camp at Sacramento, remaining at their home stations and endeavoring to recruit to the minimum strength required by the department.
