Entered at the Postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second-class matter.

Marshall next Monday afternoon at the court house—three o'clock.

The vice president of the United States will speak at Decatur next Monday afternoon. You should hear him.

Marshall at Decatur next Monday.

Be sure to hear this distinguished and able citizen discuss the political issues of the day. He has been close to the center of national affairs during the past four years and his address should be of interest to every voter in this section of the state.

If Mr. Goodrich has some plan whereby he can feed the inmates of the various benevolent institutions of the state at five cents each per day he might pass it around. Why be so stingy? We know hundreds of people who would like to give him a contract at several times that amount and not be so very particular about the bill of fare. Come on, Jim, let's have the dope.

The republican party was put out of power because of failure, practical failure and not moral failure. Its policy was provincial in all things; its purposes were out of harmony with the temper and purposes of the people and the timely development of the nation's interests. The republican party is just the party that can not meet the new conditions of a new age. It does not know the way and it does not wish new conditions. It tried to break away from the old leaders and could not. They still select its candidates and dictate its policy. When it changes its leaders and its purposes and brings its ideas up to date it will have the right to ask the American people to give it power again; but not until then.

(From President Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination for President, September 2, 1916.)

The republicans are making a showing of satisfaction as a result of the Maine election but underneath their outside smile may be heard the whistle of the fellow who is passing the graveyard. The only joy they are really getting out of it is the fact that they still have a gamblers chance. Had the results in Maine shown a democratic majority the election would have been needless expense. As it is the victory is certainly a democratic one. A state which has a normal republican majority of 30,000 or more was carried by 13,300, not much to blow about, we'd say. The same proportionate loss over the country will carry almost every northern state for Mr. Wilson and the republicans made a harder fight in Maine than it will be possible for them to make in each state. They used every man they had including Hughes and Roosevelt and they did every thing else they could to prevent the democratic landslide that they felt was coming. The vote cast in Maine was ten thousand strong or than is usual showing that nothing was left undone. After its all sized up other than for advertising purposes, the republican worker will get but "dern" little satisfaction out of victory 15,000 short of what they had the right to expect.

"The swallows have not left as yet, praise God!

Of white rose and of red; firing the dusk

And bees still hum and gardens hold the musk

By the old wall the hollyhocks do nod.

And pink s that send the sweet East down the wind,

And yet, a yellowing leaf shows here and there

Among the boughs, and through the smoky air—

That hints the frost at dawn—the wood looks thinned.

The little half-grown sumachs all as green

As June last week, now in the crackling sedge,

Colored like wine burn to the water's edge

We feel at times, as we had come unseen

Upon the aging Year, sitting apart

Grief in his eyes, some ache at his great heart."

It is easy finding reasons why other folks should be patient.—George Eliot.

A fine dinner and supper party, with a most enjoyable social time, were held at the home of Ernest Kruckeberg in Union township.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gunset and family, Schumm, O.; Fred Kruckeberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schamerloh, Lydia Kruckeberg and Richard Bleeke.

The business meeting of the Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical church, set for last evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Linn, was postponed on account of the illness of the business.

There will be no meeting of the Sunday school class of Mrs. Frank Fisher at the home of Mrs. Zelda Johnson this week.

Mrs. Myrtle Brown, of Wren, Ohio, will entertain the Baptist Ladies Aid society at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bell in this city tomorrow, instead of at her home at Wren, Ohio.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher was thrown open to the United Brethren C. E. society last evening for their regular business and social meeting. Ben Hoagland presided and after the devotional, the business was attended to. Mrs. Fisher served fine refreshments during the social.

At the meeting of the W. C. T. U. with Mrs. Robert Case yesterday afternoon, her assistant being Mrs. W. J. Myers, the annual election of officers took place. Mrs. John Niblick who has served so well for a number of years was re-elected president. She has four vice president's, who are: Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. A. C. Ball, Mrs. Emma Daniels, Mrs. Mary Eley. Other officers are: recording secretary, Mrs. John Hill; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. E. Shamp; treasurer, Mrs. John Hill; correspondent sec., Mrs. C. E. Hocker; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Fred Linn. Business relating to the two conventions was also discussed. The state convention will be held October 13, at Huntington; and the national convention November 17 to 22, at Indianapolis. Many from the local society will probably attend both. The program yesterday included piano solo by Miss Cella Andrews; vocal solo by Mrs. J. Q. Neptune and a reading by Mrs. T. W. Holsapple. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

A dandy country dinner was enjoyed at the Ernest Kruckeberg home in Union township yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gunset of Schumm, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruckeberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schamerloh and family, Miss Lydia Kruckeberg and Richard Bleeke. They remained for supper also.

The Mite society of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Walt Johnson on N. Sixth street. The sections of Mrs. F. A. Peoples and Mrs. Fred Blosser will entertain. A good attendance is desired.

The Deininger millinery store held its fall opening yesterday, with an unusually pretty display of hats. The hats show a tendency to largeness, and black velvets are much in favor. A special feature of hats this fall, are irregular brims, the majority of large brims turned up, or notched, or rounded or scalloped in some way. The cunning little hat, however, is also seen.

There will be an ice cream social and parcel post sale at the Washington church four and a half miles southwest of Decatur on Friday night.

The Three Link club ladies crocheted and sewed and had a fine social time after the Rehoboth lodge meeting last evening. The hostesses, Mrs. John Lenhart and Mrs. Stella Crist, served excellent refreshments of ice cream, light and dark cake and iced tea. Mrs. Owen Davis and Mrs. Ralph Miller will be the next hostesses. The Rehoboth will celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of the lodge next Tuesday evening, after lodge, closing with a picnic supper.

DIRE DISTRESS.
It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Decatur Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is often the kidneys' cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to the kidneys' aid.

Means that urinary troubles may follow.

Or danger of worse kidney trouble. Here's Decatur testimony:

F. O. Ruby, 910 N. Second St., Decatur, says: "I suffered a great deal from a stinging pain through my back and sides. The kidney secretions passed too often and were very scant and scalding. The secretions contained a sandy sediment. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Callow & Rice's drug store, and used two boxes. I was both surprised and delighted at the complete relief that they gave me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ruby had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

REGISTRATION LAW

A Few Reminders.

The Board.
An inspector, appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the county at its regular August session preceding the election; he must at time of appointment, be either a voter and resident freeholder of the township in which the precinct is situate, and have resided in said township continuously for one year immediately prior thereto, or a resident householder and voter of the precinct with continuous residence in the precinct for at least two years immediately prior thereto.

Two Registration Clerks, to be appointed by the inspector not less than five (5) days before the day of registration. These clerks must be voters and residents of the precinct. They can not both be adherents of one and the same political party. There is no provision as to what parties they must belong to, except that, in writing, and at least ten (10) days before the registration session, one of these clerks may be nominated by the county chairman of each of the political parties which cast the second highest and third highest vote in the county at the last preceding general election, and upon receiving such nomination, the inspector shall so appoint. (Section 3, Acts 1915, page 532.)

The Session.

Held on Monday, the 29th day before the election, which this year is October 9, 1916.

(The law does not provide for any other session. Begins at 6 a. m. and ends at 9 p. m., of that day, except when necessary to accommodate the voters it may be prolonged one (1), the next, day, during like hours, upon a request in writing, signed by ten voters of the precinct, three of whom are freeholders, filed with the Registration Board.

Permanent Registration.

If the registration books of any precinct, used in 1914, have been destroyed, or are mutilated or inaccessible, or for any other cause unfit to be used, there has to be a registration of every voter in that precinct, upon proper notice posted by the inspector, but otherwise, any voter resident in the precinct, whose name appears on the registration books of his precinct, and who has continued to reside in the precinct in which he is registered, and who shall not be disfranchised, and who has voted at the last preceding general election, shall not be required to register again.

In addition to the necessity of re-registering where the books are unfit for use, it may occur that the boundaries of a precinct are changed (which can not be done later than the March session before the election) and in this event voters should satisfy themselves on registration day that their names are on the permanent list, or will be on the permanent list being prepared by the board, and if necessary, register for that purpose.

In case of omission, inadvertently or otherwise, of the name of a voter that registered and voted in 1914 at the general election, he can be reinstated by filing a sworn statement, provided for in Section 8 of Acts 1915, at page 539, this statement to be endorsed by two freeholders of the precinct, and should be made out on blanks substantially in the language of the statute. This statement can be filed with the auditor of the county any time before he has delivered the registration books to the inspector of the election, board, or can be made and filed with the election board on the day of the election, and the voter will be entitled to vote.

Absent Voters—Registration by Affidavit.

Any voter, required to register, may when the facts justify, register by sworn application, containing:

All matters required of applicants in person. A statement that on the day or days of registration he is, or will be, unavoidably absent from the county, stating his whereabouts on such day or days, or that he is sick, or quarantined, as the case may be. That thereby and by reason thereof he is prevented from registering in person at said session of said board.

The application must be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths and having an official seal. Two freeholders residing in the precinct must certify, on the application, that they are acquainted with the applicant, that he is the person he represents himself to be, and that the facts stated in the application by him are true.

The application, when so sworn and certified, shall be delivered to the board of registration of the precinct where applicant resides, by any registered voter of the precinct, on the day or days that the board is in session to receive applications for registration. Minors—Aliens.

If, on election day, any male person will be of the age of twenty-one years, and if, being foreign born, and required to do so, he has at least filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and if, in either instance, he will on election day have acquired a sufficient residence in the United States, the state of Indiana, the township and precinct, he may register, if required to do so in order to qualify him to vote. The registration law makes no new qualifications for voting, except that of registration.
