BLUNDERING FORWARD:

In announcing his intention to support President Wilson, Thomas A. Edison says:

"They say he has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice that he usually blunders forward."

There can be no more effective answer to the stereotyped criticism of the president. Mr. Wilson blunders at times, but he blunders forward, and blundering forward represents the highest achievements of the human race.

That is why Mr. Wilson is certain to rank among the greatest of all presidents of the United States—New York World.

Monday, October 9, is registration day. Don't forget it. If you can't be at home that day, arrange to register by affidavit. Don't disfranchise yourself.

Mr. Vestal is devoting a week to Adams county, in an effort to convince the voters that he ought to be congressman. His principal argument seems to be that he wants the job, overlooking the fact that Judge Denney does also, and that the latter has promised to support the policies of Woodrow Wilson, which have brought peace and prosperity to this country, though the rest of the world is up-side down.

The Herald is greatly worried because we failed to devote a couple of pages to Mr. Goodrich's speech. It would have been a waste of valuable space for it can, like the speeches of all the other republican spell binders this year, including even their candidate for president, be told in two words—"He harped." A man who claims that the inmates of our public institutions can be maintained for five cents a day doesn't deserve much mention, and will get but little consideration at the polls.

and music was given. Then plans followed for the six o'clock dinner party and card party given last evening by Mrs. A. M. Anker. The tables were lovely in their appointments and of especial note were the floral decorations of the rooms. The warm color of the golden glow prevailed, while here and there varied colors of great bouquets of roses added a touch of variety. The hostess had as her assistants in serving the very delicious dinner, the Misses Veronica Anker and Helen Dugan. The slam prize in the card games that followed was taken by Mrs. C. C. Pumphrey, the first prize by Mrs. H. R. Moltz, the second by Mrs. Fred Patterson, the consolation by Mrs. Chalmer Schaefer. Mrs. John Hendricks, who is Mrs. L. A. Graham's house guest, was a daughter of Mrs. Schenck.—Contributed.

Covers for thirty-six ladies were laid for the six o'clock dinner party and card party given last evening by Mrs. A. M. Anker. Mrs. Elijah Walters and Mrs. Ben Pillars were guests of Mrs. L. N. Grandstaff of Monmouth at a quilting today.

The exchange of conversation, as well as crocheting and tatting and sewing ideas, while their busy fingers flew, made the meeting of the Pythian Needle club yesterday afternoon particularly delightful, an agreeable and congenial assembly of thirty-five or more ladies being present at the Pythian home. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Elzey, Mrs. O. L. Burgeon and Mrs. James Fristoe. Mrs. Lola Bell Erwin Swanberg, of Akron, Ohio, sang several songs and charades were also given. Golden rod and asters, fall flowers which are at their prettiest, were floral decorations. The dining room tables were nicely arranged for the luncheon, which consisted of hot buttered rolls, veal croquettes, fruit souffle in yellow and white, pickles, preserved strawberries, and coffee. Guests were Mrs. F. F. Thurnburg, Mrs. E. A. Mann, Mrs. Ed Whight, Mrs. Will Butler and Mrs. Swanberg of Akron, Ohio.

More than sixty Modern Woodmen and their wives and Royal Neighbors and their husbands attended the social at the Woodman hall last evening. A program, of recitations, readings,

CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many a Decatur Household.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Decatur readers:

Mrs. John Schnitz, 334 N. Eighth St, Decatur, says: "At times, when I stood, my back ached so severely that I could hardly endure it. Sometimes for a minute I would become dizzy and my sight blurred as if a cloud was in front of my eyes. I had aches in the back of my head and I was tired, worn-out and nervous. I finally tried Doan's Kidney Pills. One box freed me from the suffering as nothing else had ever done."

Price, 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schnitz had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because —its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;

—it can't bite your tongue;
—it can't parch your throat;
—you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:

"PROCESS PATENTED
JULY 30TH, 1907"

That means to you a lot of tobacco enjoyment. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

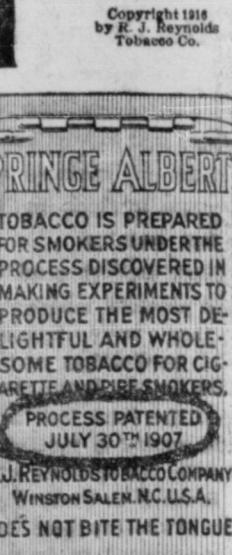

YOU'LL find a cheery howdy-do on top no matter how much of a stranger you are in the neck of the woods or city. For Prince Albert is right there—at the first place you pass that sells tobacco! The toppy red bag sells for a nickel and the tidy red tin for a dime. Both are made of the hand-some pound and half-pound tin humidores and the pound crystal-glass humidor with spongey top that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up trim all the time!

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

COAT TAKEN—A boy's overcoat was taken from a rig on Court street, while the owner was in attendance at church services. A great favor will be conferred if it will be returned to the rig any night this week, as it will be there every evening.

Know the Result BEFORE Painting

The wear test is sure, but mighty expensive, when paint proves bogus and there is a bill for resurfacing and repainting. The one certain way is to know beforehand that paint is time-tried and weathered. You can bank on pure linseed oil, turpentine and driers, tinted any color you wish. White-lead paint of this kind penetrates into wood pores, anchors there and dries hard. It holds on until it wears out. Dusting off is the only preparation for repainting.

Dutch Boy Eckstein White Lead

Call if you have painting wants. Enclosing from paint brushes to white lead. Telephone orders promptly filled.
