THE POLITICAL CALENDAR.

October 6.
October 7.
Kohr School House, Union Township—Dore B. Ewin, J. Fred Fruchte.

Voters of Adams county should register next Monday. If you don't you can't vote. Every one must register either by affidavit or in person and there is no backing up. In other counties this is not necessary, but here you must register whether you have done so before or not. Don't overlook it or you lose your vote.

If you don't register Monday you can't vote in Adams county.

President Wilson's reception at Omaha was the most wonderful ever given to any man in the west. His vote will be just as big a surprise to the republicans when it is counted November 7th.

Register Monday. It's the most important duty of the campaign. You cannot vote unless you do. The fact that you registered before does not affect the question in this county. Register if you want to vote.

July building permits compiled by Bradstreet's show 63.5 per cent increase; which puts two more questions up to Mr. Hughes—first, are these buildings "blood-soaked" and "due to war," and second, in what way is permanent building improvement an evidence of "temporary" prosperity?

All that disconcerted republican newspapers and party leaders can say is, "Just wait, and you'll find out in good time what his issues will be and what he would have done." The wait from July 31 to the present time has not given the country much enlightenment on the subject.

The United States has become a creditor nation under democratic administration up to date to the amount of $1,600,000,000, and is taking on a hundred million or so more each month. The republican administration left the country a debtor nation to the tune of $6,000,000,000.

Roosevelt favors the seizing of all German ships interned here, confiscating them to be held as payment for damages to claimants, and Hughes agrees with Roosevelt. How can any one, who claims to be fair, support such a combination? Roosevelt goes further and insists on a firmer foreign policy with Germany and Mexico. A few more Roosevelt speeches will convert what few Hughes men there are in the country.

Opinion in the middlewest is reflected by the following from the Chicago "Herald," independent:

"Mr. Hughes has made a number of speeches out west, and it is generally admitted that there is at present no glow in the western skies indicative of anybody setting the woods and prairies afire. It may be that this mass of criticism, these numerous counts in the indictment which he has evidently prepared with lay-like dryness, are making an impression. But the detached and impartial observer is forced to the conclusion that the evidences of results are at present not particularly plain."

Disapproval of Mr. Hughes' "fault-finding campaign" is commonly expressed in both republican and independent papers. Notable among these is the opinion of William Allen White in the Emporia "Gazette" and widely quoted throughout the west, the gist of which is that the mere assailing of the president is likely to bear poor fruit.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Friday.
Pocahontas Needle Club—Red Meg's Hall.

Zion Lutheran Aid—Mrs. Herman Dierkes at schoolhouse (all day session).

Saturday.

Evangelical Pastry Sale—Gasoffice.

Mrs. T. W. Holsapple, Mrs. Victoria Hill and Mrs. M. F. Rice's section were hostess at the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. M. F. Rice yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Eley led the devotionals and Mrs. Dan Beery the lesson, which was on temperance. The Queen Esther girls were special guests. Arrangements were also made for the conference convention of the missionary society which will be held here November 2 and 3. Fine refreshments were served.

Miss Mayme Earlings will entertain the Bachelor Maids next Wednesday evening.

Miss Irene LeBrun, of the telephone office, will go to Wren, Ohio, tomorrow to spend Sunday at her home.

The Pocahontas Needle club will meet this evening at the Red Men's hall, hostesses being Mrs. Elmer Archer, Mrs. Anna McConnell and Mrs. Rebekah Rabbitt. It is desired that all members of the degree staff be present for practice.

The first section of the Eastern Star ladies will give a card party in the Masonic home Friday evening, October 20, to which ladies and gentlemen are invited.

Very pleasing was the six o'clock dinner and card party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. H. E. Keller for her aunt, Mrs. Anna Gass, of Toledo, Ohio. The company which was very congenial found places at eight little tables, the setting, with its decorations of bitter sweet and asters and other fall flowers, being a very pretty one. Mrs. Keller was assisted by a bevy of young girls in serving the appetizing menu, which included creamed chicken on toast, salad, baked apples with whipped cream, potato chips, hot rolls, pickles, coffee, brick ice cream and cake. Those assisting were the Misses Lorene and Tootsie Keller, Bertha Gass, Florence Holthouse. An interesting series of games of five hundred played, resulted in the awarding of the following prizes: Guest's, Mrs. Anna Gass; first, Mrs. Will Berling; second, Mrs. John Moran; third, Mrs. Carrie Ehinger; booby, Mrs. Will Bosse.

According to its custom of several years the Euterpean club prefaced its season's period of study with a picnic supper and social last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knapp on Mercer avenue. This was not a "guest night," but was confined to the membership of the club, of which there are twenty-five. Mrs. Dan Tyndall was received as a new member of the club, the membership of which is limited, she taking the place of Miss Bess Schrock, who has removed from the city. An informal social evening followed the supper. The first regular club meeting will be in two weeks with Mrs. W. P. Schrock and will be a musical evening.

Mrs. C. C. Wilder entertained the Concord Lutheran Ladies' Aid society yesterday afternoon in a delightful way. After the business session, the serial story, "Polyanna," which is being read by Mrs. E. S. Christen, was continued. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. George Simmers, and her sister, Mrs. Rhoda Mahan, and others in serving ice cream and cake. Among those who were present were Mrs. Rhoda Mahan and Miss Tillie Meibers, Mrs. C. D. Kunkel will have the November meeting.

Of note among the social affairs for brides of this busy season was the surprise shower and evening party for Mrs. Felix Holthouse, formerly Miss Winifred Burk, last evening. The affair was given at the L. A. Holthouse home and was arranged by the assistance of Mrs. L. A. Holthouse and Mrs. Robert McMahon. There were about thirty-five invited these being the Tri Kappas and a few other friends, including the Tri Kappa patronesses, Mrs. Eugene Runyon, Mrs. Dan Sprang, Mrs. E. B. Adams and Mrs. John Tyndall. Mrs. Holthouse had been taken out for a motor ride by her husband and on their return, he sent her into the L. A. Holthouse home for Mrs. McMahon, who was supposed to accompany them to the picture show. Instead she found the house full of "company" and they prevailed upon her to stay. A large spider web was found to have spun his artificial web in a corner of an archway and Mrs. Holthouse found that by unwinding the coils that made the web, a large number of pretty gifts of many kinds had been entrapped there by the spider and were being held for her. In a contest, the answer of which related to appropriate costumes for wives of men of various professions, Miss Lena Bosse won the prize, which was then given to the guest of honor. Each guest brought her favorite and truly-ried recipe and these were written in a book for the guest of honor. The book was of brown paper, tinted with autumn-leaf decorations, and the whole tied with a brown ribbon. At eleven o'clock Mrs. Holthouse and Mrs. McMahon served a fine supper. This was in the autumnal colors, and pretty autumn leaves served as doilies and as a garniture and cups for the salads.

Another shower for Miss Frances Baker was given last evening by Mrs. Ralph Miller and Mrs. Leland Frank at the Miller home, the same being a grocery shower. Pretty vines and fall roses and nasturtiums and other flowers beautified the home. In the game of bunko, Mrs. Irvin Miller won the first prize, and Miss Mildred LaDelle the booby, these going ultimately to the bride-elect. The two-course luncheon was both appetizing and nicely served. The shower of groceries was hidden on the dining room table under a shower of autumn leaves from which they were drawn with a small garden rake. Assisting in the serving of the luncheon were Martha McCrory and Esther Butler. The wedding of Miss Baker and Joe Hunter was not announced until for tomorrow, but the couple who secured a marriage license here yesterday, left early this morning, without informing their friends of their destination, and it is the general belief that they went to Muncie, to have the ceremony performed by the Rev. D. T. Stephenson. Guests at the shower last evening were: Mrs. Owen Davis, Mayme Harting, Lillie Venis, Mrs. Howard Burd, Ruth and Goldie Gay, Mrs. Bert Hunsicker, Mrs. Dallas Hunsicker, Mrs. Ed. Ehr, Edith Miller, Josephine Lange, Mrs. Elgin King, Edna Brobeck, Mrs. John Starner, Lillie Buhler, Sadie Barger, Bertha Butler, Mildred LaDelle, Kittie Fought, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Irvin Miller, Mrs. Effie

Case, Mrs. Ed Baker, Mrs. Ver Baker, Mrs. C. Foreman, Martha McCrory, Esther Butler, Walter Miller.

BEEFY HAMMOND TEAM TO PLAY FORT WAYNE FRIARS ON SUNDAY

The crushing defeat that the powerful Friar eleven at Fort Wayne handed the Dayton team last Sunday will not be duplicated this coming Sabbath when the Summit City Aggregation clashes with the famous Hammond, Indiana team, a band of pigskin chasers headed by Blocker, the great Purdue tackle and the choice of Walter Eckersall for a like position on the All-Western Team. The strength of the Hammond team can be readily ascertained when it is known that their line averages 185 pounds, while their backfield tips the beam at 179. Stinchfield and Finn, two other Purdue men, and Galvin, former half back at Wisconsin are a trio of classy performers who promise to throw a figurative monkey wrench into the Friar machinery.

Both teams have started off the season in auspicious fashion, the Friars walloping the Dayton outfit to the tune of 101 to 0, while Hammond administered a bitter pill to a Rockford, Illinois eleven by defeating them 73 to 0. Over four thousand people witnessed the carnage at Fort Wayne, and everyone went wild over the form shown by the Friars. Dorias, the former All-American quarter, and the big noise in the Friar line-up, performed in brilliant style. Edwards, Feeney, Peters, Young, Johnson and Chambers were others who ran wild through the Bewildered Dayton team. A delegation of Hammond fans have chartered a special train to Fort Wayne for the game Sunday.

CABINET MAKER TALKS FOR WIFE

J. F. Hustler Tells of the Relief Helpmate Gained Through Tanlac's Use.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 5.—J. F. Hustler, a cabinet maker, employed by the Lafayette Lumber and Manufacturing company, of this city, who lives at 1908 Purdue street, testified recently to the relief his wife gained through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. He said:

"Mrs. Hustler suffered with indigestion, constipation and kidney trouble. She suffered severe pains across her back, chest and stomach. Gas formed in her stomach after eating. She was terribly constipated. Annoyance caused by the derangement of her kidneys kept her awake at night.

"She can eat anything she desires since taking Tanlac. The kidney trouble has been relieved, pains in her back having vanished. The pains in her chest and stomach also are gone. Her sleep is not disturbed now."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general tonic. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Decatur at the Smith, Yager & Falk drug store.—Adv.

"GETS-IT" NEVER FAILS FOR CORNS!

There's Nothing on Earth Like it for Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment—just use 'GETS-IT' and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use—just a few drops on in a few seconds—'GETS-IT' does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make legs raw, cotton rings that make your corns pop-eyed, knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all these—use "GETS-IT", the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it out. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Decatur and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Smith, Yager & Falk.
