Do your Christmas shopping in Decatur. Our stores are filled with the best goods that money will buy and the prices are right. You will be pleased.

New Hampshire republicans have given up and the secretary of that state, yesterday announced the official majority for Mr. Wilson to be fifty-six.

President Wilson began his Christmas shopping yesterday and spent an hour going through the Washington shops, selecting gifts. It's time you did likewise, if you would avoid the rush which always comes just before the big gift holiday and which this year promises to be even more strenuous than heretofore. But do it in Decatur!

The official vote in Utah has just been made public and shows that President Wilson carried every county in the state and won by about thirty thousand. Four years ago Mr. Taft carried the state easily, this and Vermont being the only real standpat territory. The wonderful change in sentiment has been explained in several very "unsatisfactory" ways.

Business is good in Decatur, according to the statements from every merchant. The men of this community are alive and will make every effort consistent with good business to treat their customers just right, to give them the best goods for the least money, to give them a clean and well bought stock from which to select and they are advertising these facts, all of which count. Many people are trading here now who have not made a practice of doing so and it all helps. A little boosting, a factory or two, a few new buildings and we will have the very best town in all the world. Help put the town there.

Dale J. Crittenden retired yesterday as auditor of state and Homer L. Cook as secretary of state, each having served two years. Each has made a record for efficiency and careful attention to the duties of their office and they retire with a clean slate that will bear any investigation their republican successors care to make. Mr. Crittenden will resume his duties as editor of the Anderson Bulletin, one of the best democratic papers in the state, and Mr. Cook will again take up his work as the head of the teachers' employment agency. Their many friends wish them continued success whether their future work be public or private.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and children, Lucile and Ester, entertained Thursday at a merry Thanksgiving party, the occasion also being the seventy-eighth birthday anniversary of their grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Lord of Monmouth, who was guest of honor. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. William Blackburn, Mrs. C. E. Barr, Mrs. Clara Watson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Kurt, Joe Burr, Ed Kurt, Josephine Springer, Dan Hill and children, Chester and John Henry, Mr. and Mrs. John Ballard and children, Raymond, Elizabeth and Violet and Edith, Bernice, Marcella and Martha, all of Fort Wayne.

For the Tri Kappa meeting at the home of Miss Hope Hoffman Tuesday evening, Miss Ruth Parrish will have the paper.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ves Baker on Seventh street saw a happy Thanksgiving family party Thursday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Marts and Floyd Hunter, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Colonel Fornerman and children. For supper the party was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peterson and family of near Monroe.

That Thanksgiving day is still one of the best days of the year is a settled fact in the minds of those who spent the day at the Douglas Elsey home at Preble. After attending services at the Beulah Chapel church the guests arrived at the home and at 12 o'clock a sumptuous three-course dinner was served which all taxed the capacity of their stomachs. The afternoon was spent in a general way and before the guests departed a short time was spent in Scripture reading and prayer. Those who enjoyed the day together were the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Elsey, and son, Clyde; Rev. T. J. Johnson of Muncie, Rev. E. J. Glendenning, wife and children, Jessie, William, Clarence and Florence; Mrs. Charles Rinehart and son, Robert, of Decatur; Clell Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pyle of Craigville; Clyde Hannon, operator at the oil station; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Sheets and son, Gerald.—Contributed.

The Pythian Sisters will have their regular meeting Monday evening, the furnace having been gotten in order again. The members of the degree team are especially urged to attend for practice.

Thanksgiving Day in a country home is especially enjoyable and the spacious and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ahr east of the city was an ideal one for an ideal celebration the party of friends who were entertained there at both dinner and supper declaring they had the time of their lives. Music, violin, piano, enlivened the hours in the meantime. Because the day came just before the fifteenth birthday of Fred Ahr, the party was also for him and he and his brother Lloyd, had Dwight Thornburg as their special guest. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ebdug, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Johnson and son, Doyle; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hunsicker, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Miller. Carnations were the decorations of the tables and rooms. The ladies presented Mrs. Ahr with six fine cut glass goblets.

A delightful oyster supper was given Thursday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sheets, in honor of Mrs. Sheets' Sunday school class. After supper they enjoyed the evening in music and all kinds of games. Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Ruby Sheets of Decatur, Iva Spangler, Bertha, Zelma and Esther Fuhrman, Mayme Krill, Joanna and Gladys Suman, Verna Mann and Florence Sheets; Messrs. Clark Fuhrman of Celina, Ohio; Ralph Krill, Harold Cline, Ralph Rop and Don and Harold Sheets. They all went home saying they had a very delightful time.—Contributed.

The W. M. S. of the Reformed church will meet next Tuesday, promptly at 2 o'clock with Mrs. P. Kirsch, North Second street. The afternoon will be spent with our missionaries at home and abroad through correspondence. Other business will come up. Every member is kindly requested to attend.

At a meeting of the Mite society yesterday at the Case home, when Mrs. Robert Case, Mrs. John Bowers and Mrs. Mel Rice entertained, it was decided to conduct a bazaar the second week in January. Fine refreshments were served.

More than the usual festivity was manifest yesterday at the meeting of the Zion Lutheran Ladies' Aid society, the celebration being the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of this busy and helpful band of women. Several ladies who were former members of the band, now born St. Chicago.

living elsewhere were guests; and several visiting ministers were present, making a total of nearly forty present. A program, including a vocal duet by Mrs. Ferdinand Bleeke and Miss Martha Koldey, a vocal solo by Mrs. Hinz; talks by the minister, Rev. Hinz; the society's president, Mrs. Chin Boknech; Mrs. A. Boese, Mrs. Lewis Koenemann, and others were given. At noon a fine picnic dinner was spread. Among former members who were guests, were Mrs. Charles Heckman, Mrs. Henry Lankenau, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Henry Heckman, Hoagland; Mrs. Anna Sievers, Mrs. George Weinman, Schumm, O.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rabbitt will entertain a company of relatives at dinner tomorrow.

A large class of thirty-five ladies will be initiated by the Catholic Ladies of Columbia tomorrow the Delphos, O., team doing the initiatory work.

Mrs. Noah Mangold entertained the Christian Pastoral Helpers yesterday. Reports from the various sections were heard and arrangement were made to send a barrel of canned fruits, jellies and other eatables to the orphans under the St. Louis Christian Benevolent board. The goods will be received next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Noah Mangold at an evening meeting. Every member of the church is asked to contribute.

De Lloyd Wood, of Richmond is visiting over the Thanksgiving holidays with Kenyon Walters. Both are students at the Ohio Western university.

BURKET'S LEASE FARM.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burkett have leased their farm on West Monroe street, to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Stoneroak, who will take possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett have leased the Zimmerman residence on Fifth street which is being vacated by the Rev. and Mrs. Mavity.

IS IMPROVING.

Mrs. Abe Stoneburner, who was operated upon Tuesday at the Lutheran hospital, Fort Wayne, is getting along nicely. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roach, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon to call on her.

Modern Girl No Hypocrite.
