MUST BE GOOD LOOKING

(United Press Service) New York, July 31.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Half hose for women are passe.

They're wearing 2.75 hose. An enterprising reporter braved the shopping district to find out just how popular half hose were. He discovered he was several days too late.

"Do the girls wear them much?" echoed one salesgirl to his query, regarding the new 2.75 hose. "My goodness, yes. Look!"

The reporter blushed and admitted they did.

"What's the excuse for them?"

"They're so nice and cool," gurgling, "and they—well, they have other advantages."

"Er' er' how are they kept in place?" The salesgirl picked up a pair of shimmering blue silk things, about as long as a split second and said:

"They turn down the edges like this and put a rubber band under the roll."

"They're so popular," she added, "that we rather expect a demand for them even next winter."

BATTLE WITH BANDITS

Galveston, July 31.—(Special to Daily Democrat) — Forty Villistas were killed, eleven taken prisoner and many wounded in a battle between Carranza cavalry and Villista troops, under command of Villa yesterday.

"AS USUAL" PLEA

Is Made by Germany for Resumption of Business as Before War

A GREAT STRUGGLE

Is On for That Nation Between Many Conflicting Elements.

(By Carl D. Groat, United Press Correspondent)

Berlin (By Mail).—Germany just now is striving hard to revive the slogan, "Business as usual," which plagued several nations during the war until they learned that the "as usual" didn't fit with war.

With Germany at present, it is a struggle between many conflicting elements not the least of which are decreased raw materials, rolling stock, markets—and an impaired labor supply due to war conditions, lowered food, and industrial unrest.

But while the government has been wrestling with Spartacus and near-Spartacus troubles; with strikes; political agitation; new constitutions and so on, German business men have been casting about to get back to work and trade.

The first concrete evidence of this has just come to light with the report that a business men's commission has been making a three weeks' investigation in Russia with a view to finding an outlet for German products in that war-worn land.

While much of Russia is in chaos, the business men were reported to feel that there is a favorable outlook for them in that country.

One factor overlooked in general discussions of German business prospects is her supply of potash. This supply is unaffected by the peace treaty; and the world is clamoring for this for fertilizer purposes. And Germany can get this product out at only slightly increased cost over her previous price, while, at the same time, she can demand more marks for it than before in view of the lowered value of the mark. In this way, she stands to gain considerably from this one source alone.

This business should prove vast again within a short time, thus enabling the country to obtain credits for materials from foreign countries.

Socialism, however, may upset many of their plans, for there can be no question that there is a constantly increasing trend toward socialization of many lines of business. Until the time comes, however, in which business is a state affair, the German business man intends to go after fresh trade, as evidenced by this freshly completed Russian probe. Germany believes that it can reach out to the east for business, and this move shows that there is where the trend is first going to be.

It was reported that Russia could undoubtedly give some agricultural products, particularly eastern Russian cotton, in return for manufactured goods. This, however, will probably depend largely on transportation facilities which at present appear to be in bad shape.

WOMAN NOT WORRIED OVER FOOD SHORTAGE

"I have lived on toast and water for over 6 months and have been scarcely able to eat anything for the past year. I began suffering from stomach trouble and bloating 5 years ago. A friend recommended May's Wonderful Remedy and since taking 6 doses I feel I am entirely restored; even cabbage does not hurt me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.

The Living Room You Idealize

Whether your home is a modest one or an imposing mansion you have certain ideals for your living room which you probably hope to make a reality some day.

Love for the home is perhaps influenced more by the living room than by any other room in the home. On the other hand a very inviting living room may be created, at nominal cost, where proper judgment and taste are employed.

We shall be glad to have you come to this furniture store and compare values. We realize that our only reasonable claim to your patronage must be on our ability to give you as good as or better values than you can get elsewhere and to supplement real values with service that is beyond competition.

You will, we know, be interested in our showing of Living Room Furniture.

These are the most thrilling words in the English language.

They spring from the very depths of a man's heart, just a fraction of an inch from his stomach. For centuries they have been the inspiration to better baking and lovlier meals the world over.
