Mr. Bowser in making that place their home.

The condition of Lewis Murphy, of east of Decatur, is as good as can be expected. The appendix had ruptured, and abscess had formed, and same is draining very freely.

BLUFFTON SANCTIMONIOUS

Bluffton, August 1.—A protest against Sunday aviation has put in its appearance. The protest was filed with the Good Citizens League and resulted from the commercial aviators invading the city. It follows: "Being a firm believer in the sanctity of the Sabbath, and further believing that no discrimination should be made in the observance of that day by allowing intruders or outsiders to come to our city and follow their usual vocation, especially in such hazardous and dangerous an occupation as flying in an airplane; and furthermore charging such excessive prices for such privilege of taking such of our citizens as so express a wish to fly with them; and charging that such action by outsiders is not only in violation of the state laws but in opposition to the express will and desire of the citizens of Bluffton who are members of the good citizens league of this city, I hereby wish to protest to said Good Citizens League, and to the officers of our city whose duty it is to enforce the law against allowing any such violations of the statute in Bluffton on the Sabbath day."

Mme. Galli-Curci sang 17 numbers—unheard of generosity in the concerts of so great a star—and played her own accompaniment for "Home Sweet Home" and "Annie Laurie." Her own enthusiasm for the occasion and enjoyment of it added to the spirit of the performance, if such a thing were possible, and increased the pleasure of her audience.

The affair will prove a great advertisement for the new Chicago Osteopathic Hospital, many of those present no doubt not having known before of this young but splendidly equipped institution at 52nd Street and Ellis Avenue, that rendered such good service during the late influenza epidemic. The concert, too, will serve to call general attention to the fact that nearly all the stars of opera, as well as many public speakers, have been relying for years upon osteopathy to keep their throats and vocal cords in perfect health and functioning in the stress of hard usage.—advt.

TREES REPAY YOU WHEN THE AUGUST HEAT COMES

August is the month in which you collect your dividends on your trees for their welcome shade certainly repays you well for the time devoted to their care, says the American Forestry Association of Washington, D. C. The soft bodied sucking insects now get their work particularly on the beech, white pine, fruit trees and elms. Spray for aphids with whale oil soap, one pound to five gallons of water. Detailed instruction on the care of trees will be sent to any reader of this newspaper free.

ABOUT THE SICK

The following patients operated upon by Dr. Rayl are all doing well: Mrs. George Bollenbacher, Rockford, O.; Miss Clara Miller, Chattanooga, O.; Mrs. Jesse Mercer, Willshire, O.; Mrs. Hugo Beitler, southeast of Monroe.

SENATORIAL HUMOR

Washington, August 1.—Occasional flashes of humor lighten the seriousness of the senate league of nations battle. Here are three stories the league is responsible for.

* * *

Senator Williams, Miss., was explaining that though the leagueponent was not all the United States desired, it was all we could expect under the circumstances.

"Which reminds me of my little girls," he said. "One had straight hair, while the other had curly hair. The straight-haired one was envious of her sister's ringlets, and often used to grumble because her own tresses refused to curl."

"One day the curly-haired one was grumbling about some fancied hardship, and her sister rebuked her thus:

"Well, you know, you can't have everything AND curly hair."

* * *

And Senator Knox, shaking his head over glowing predictions of the way the United States is to lift weak nations from their lowly condition, said:

"That makes me think of the drunkard who was lying in the gutter, unable to rise. Nobody paid any attention to him until another, not quite so drunken, came along, and asked what was the matter.

"I can't get up," said the recumbent one.

"I'll pick you up," volunteered the other, and suiting the action to the word, he tugged and pulled, but succeeded only in toppling himself over.

"Tell you, friend," he said finally, "I can't get you up, but here's what I will do—I'll lie down with you."

* * *

Senator Swanson was discussing what will happen to those senators who oppose the league.

"They'll fare like the plowboy," said Swanson. "He was plowing his field when an inquisitive passerby asked him how much wages he received."

"Wages?" said the boy. "I don't get no wages. I get nothing if I do, and hell if I don't."

Mme. Galli-Curci gave a benefit concert for the Chicago Osteopathic Hospital at the Auditorium.

Chicago, Sunday afternoon, June 8th

It was the first and only benefit the diva ever gave in her life. In fact, so well known is the artist's rule in this respect that breaking her rule out of compliment to her favorite school of therapy caused wonder in musical circles.

So completely did the peerless coloratura soprano wish this performance—her 98th and last public appearance for the year 1918-1919—to be a benefit to the cause of osteopathy that she not only donated her service but paid out of her own pocket the necessary expense for her accompanist, Homer Samuel, and the flutist, Manuel Berenguer.

"If it's a benefit it should be a real one," was Mme. Galli-Curci's comment when questioned about remunerating her assistants. When told after the performance that her recital had netted the Chicago Osteopathic Hospital over $8,000 she said with much warmth, "I am very glad, indeed. I cannot do enough to show my appreciation of what osteopathy has been to me."
