FATHER AND SON KILLED

In an attempt to rescue his twelve-year old son, Edwin, who had become entangled in a high voltage electric wire, Frank Schmidbusch, 64, was forced to witness his death struggle and was himself electrocuted trying to extricate him late Tuesday afternoon. The accident occurred near Ottawa, Ohio. The lad was at work in the fields near the farm residence when he came in contact with the wire from which the insulation was off. Both were instantly killed. The accident occurred within full view of the farm house.

BIRTHS
