YOU OWE IT TO THE CHILDREN

The men and women who have decided to make their life work of the training of the minds of the boys and girls who come into the public schools for instruction have chosen a profession that carries with it a big responsibility. It has been well said that "children are not blank pages on which we can write our own personalities; they are human beings with minds and desires of their own which need direction and training."

The task of giving the needed direction and training is the responsibility the teacher takes upon himself or herself. It cannot be properly done unless that teacher is well prepared. As a public servant the teacher owes it to the children to make that preparation, just as a doctor must have a thorough understanding of the human body and its ills as well as the proper remedies before he should be trusted with the care of the sick.

A school which gives that thorough training under circumstances that keep the expense to the minimum is Tri-State College, at Angola, Indiana. Take the time right now, if you are a teacher, to write to President L. M. Sniff of the college and ask for full information as to tuition for the term which opens September 30, the completeness of the courses, living expenses, (which are remarkably low), and transportation. You will be surprised how satisfactorily the opportunities offered by Tri-State will meet your desires.

OBITUARY

Grant McGill was born in Adams county, Indiana, September 28, 1883, and departed this life August 20, 1919, aged 35 years, 10 months and 22 days.

On April 11, 1909 he was united in marriage to Effie Schnepf. To this union were born two children, Lena, aged nine; and Lorna aged five years. In 1914, during the time that Mr. Honeywell was conducting meetings at the tabernacle, he resolved to live a better and more useful life. Later in the same year he gave his heart to Christ, his hand to the church and united with the Woods Chapel U. B. church under the pastorate of Rev. L. H. Myers. Those who mourn the loss of him are his wife, two daughters, Lena and Lorna, an aged mother, one brother, Albert, of Sturgis, Michigan; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Schnepf and Mrs. Mattie Harker, both of Decatur, and a host of near relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. R. Arnold. Burial was held in the Decatur cemetery.

REPATRIATION COSTS

(United Press Service)

Melbourne—(By Mail)—The Commonwealth of Australia has spent more than $2,500,000 in the past fiscal year in aiding returned soldiers and sailors and their dependents, according to the first annual review of the Repatriation department. Nearly 90,000 persons benefited by the work of the department.
