Closing Out Sale

Of Farm Machinery, Stock, Etc.

On Tuesday, March 16, 1920

At my home farm 2 miles west and 2 miles north of Bluffton, Ind. Having rented all my farms I will close out without reserve, all farming tools, some household goods, etc., etc.

A whole field full of up-to-date farm machinery consisting of 2 tractors; 1 Avery 12-25 with 3 bottom P. & O. plows; one 8-16 Mogul with two 14-in. P. & O. plows, both in good shape, lots of pep; 2 McCormick binders; 2 mowers; 2 fertilizer drills; 5 cultivators, 1 2-row cultivator, 4 harrows, 4 plows; 2 wagons; 2 Oliver Star plows; 1 Janesville sulky plow; 1 cult-packer; hay ladders; John Deere chock rower; 2 double discs, 7-14; combination side delivery and hay tedder; 4 sets of double work harness; 2 gasoline engines, pulleys and belts.

5 HEAD HORSES—One team 6 and 7 years old, wt. 3200 lbs., the best hay mare you ever saw; one registered trotting mare 3 years old, bred right up in the purple, a great prospect for a race mare—papers with her. These horses are fat and good workers.

Some fresh cows. A lot of registered Spotted Poland sows, 2 Big Type sows, 4 registered Spotted Poland boars.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS—Such as carpets; 2 rugs; base burner; range oil stove; chairs; new barrel power churn; power washer; some hard coal; a lot of small tools and all kinds of junk.

Come and see more good machinery in one field than you ever saw in your life. As I expected to farm this year, a lot of this machinery is new, never has been used. Having changed my mind, my loss is your gain. It is all in good repair. It all goes to the highest bidder as I have no use for it and must get it out of the way. You can't afford to miss this opportunity to buy new and up-to-date machinery at your own price.

Be sure and be here at 10 a. m. rain or shine.

TERMS—9 months, interest after 3 months. Sums under $5.00, cash.

Auctions of royal and ducal jewelry are now of weekly occurrence in Switzerland. Noble refugees are running short of funds.

"The delusion of prosperity" which has been created by high wages and high prices cannot last, says a New York bank report. "Lasting prosperity consists, not of producing more than is consumed, as we are now doing; it consists of producing less than is consumed."

It is reported that the Crown of Greece has been offered for sale in London at $150,000. "Constantine is a poor man," says the agent, "he has poor food and has few servants to look after his needs."
