KILLING IS CONFIRMED

(United Press Service)
Berlin, April 15.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—American army investigators today confirmed the report of German reichswehr troops that Paul R. Demott, Paterson, N. J., was killed while trying to escape from the German military prison at Wesel.

It was established, the report said, that Demott's passport had been issued to do journalistic work in France and later had been extended allowing him to visit Baltic states.

Demott was arrested for alleged connection with the Ruhr communist revolt. He was shot when the soldiers alleged, he attempted to escape.
Investigation by the American authorities here will be continued.
