No Trouble At All To Write An Ad Every Week About
THE BRUNSWICK
PHONOGRAPH

They're Such Good Phonographs—

That is, they have so many good points that one could write all day on Brunswick's good qualities.—The best way is to come in and enjoy a concert on one of them. You then can see for yourself why it is so easy to write about this wonderful "Home Entertainer."

You can hear the new—

Brunswick Records, Too.

HOOSIER HOME HINTS

System in doing the work is just as important as good equipment and the housekeeper whose work is never done" is often one who never stops to plan out her work to save time nor tries to prevent unnecessary steps by thinking ahead.

Rural school teachers who have planned to supplement the cold lunch carried from home, with some hot soup or cocoa prepared at school, testify that pupils are healthier and make better progress in their school work.

Many valuable hints on preparing the school lunch are contained in bulletin No. 72, which may be obtained for the asking from the extension department of Purdue University.

The canning season will be here shortly. Many suggestions on the cold pack method of canning are contained in extension bulletin No. 82, which may be obtained free.

From a half hour to an hour and a half will be saved daily by a dish drainer, a wire rack which holds the dishes after they are washed. Boiling water dashed over the dishes just after they have been cleaned takes away the necessity of drying them with a towel.

Some flowers in the garden will add materially to its beauty. A row of poppies or others which bloom about the time the vines start to die, brightens up the brown spots considerably.

In spring, the housewife's fancy turns to thoughts of greens. The dandelion is one of the earliest and one of the best.

The dogfish is a diminutive but nevertheless a true shark.
