A BIG SUCCESS

Junior Play "What Happened to Jones" was a Howling Success

CAST WAS VERY GOOD

Everyone Took His Part to Perfection—A Continuous Laugh

We never did see so many things happen to one man in a single night as was experienced by the leading character in the farce comedy, "What Happened to Jones" given last evening at the Athletic hall by the Junior class of the Decatur high school. It was a continuous whirl of happenings and difficult predicaments, which faced "Jones", a traveling sales, and for a hymn book house, which part was taken by "Pat" Hyland.

The Athletic hall was packed to capacity, there not being standing room even by the time the curtain went up. The many present enjoyed the presentation immensely and suffice to say that everyone of the cast did exceptionally fine. Everyone knew his lines to perfection and each part was cleverly taken by the cast. Miss Cook, the high school teacher, was the director, assisted by other of the high school teachers and much credit is due them for their efforts in helping to make the play a great success.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Jones, who travels for a hymn book house—Pat Hyland.
Ebenezer Goodly, a professor of Anatomy—Victor Baltzell.
Anthony Goodly, D. D. Bishop of Ballarat—Cal Peterson.
Richard Heatherley, in love with Marjorie—Leo Kirsch.
Thomas Holder, a policeman—Arthur Fruechte.
Wm. Bigler, an inmate of the sanatorium—Harold Daniels.
Henry Fuller, superintendent of sanatorium—Pat Costello.
Mrs. Goodly, Ebenezer's wife—Florine Michael.
Cissy, Ebenezer's ward—Donna Parrish.
Marjorie, Ebenezer's daughter—Marcella Kern.
Minerva, also Ebenezer's daughter—Lois Bowen.
Alvina Starlight, Mrs. Goodly's sister—Victoria Mills.
Helma, Swedish servant girl—Lucille Butler.

The story of the play was like this: Act 1. Professor Goodly, influenced by Richard Heatherley attends an illegal prize fight, which is raided by the police. They reached the professor's home in safety however, and are joined by Jones, a hymn book and playing card salesman, who also had been at the fight. A policeman had torn the tail from Jones' coat and thereby hangs the tale. Jones dons a clerical costume sent ahead by the Bishop of Ballarat. Ebenezer's brother who is coming for a visit. Jones is introduced as the Bishop to the family.

Act 2. The real Bishop arrives and as the police are guarding the house, Jones stays. He manages to keep the Bishop out of the way however—for a time. A patient of the sanatorium, who thinks he is an Indian escapes, and enters the scene: the plot thickens.

Act 3. Cissy, the professor's ward, by her keen wit forces Jones to admit to her that he is not the Bishop. The Bishop again appears and asserts to all that he is the Bishop of Ballarat. Ebenezer and Richard vouch for him and things look black for Jones. By his read wit, however, Jones saves himself and things end happily.

UNIFORMS HERE

Outfits Ordered for Decatur Base Ball Team are on Exhibit at the

SCHMITT MEAT SHOP

Effort to be Made to Start Team Off With a Clean Slate—Need Some Help

The suits and supplies for the Decatur base ball team have arrived and will be placed on display in the window of the Schmitt Bros. meat market on Second street. The outfits were purchased several days ago from a concern that could furnish them at once, and the management of the local team took no chance at delay and placed the order.

Now that the equipment is here, it is the purpose to ask a little assistance from the business men in paying for it, and within a day or two someone will make the rounds.

Decatur will without a doubt have the best base ball team this year she has ever had, and before many weeks everybody will be "rooting" for the team. The grounds are being prepared for playing and the line-up will soon be announced. The diamond this year will be near the entrance to the Belmont park, for the reason that the ground in the center of the track and facing the grandstand has been farmed in recent years and is too soft. It had been planted to barley this year and as this is an early crop it will soon be out of the way, and the ground put in shape for the aviation field. Next year this will be sod ground and the place will be ideal for baseball. Mr. Reppert, owner of the park, is cooperating with the ball enthusiasts and wants to arrange the park so that Decatur can enjoy

THE CORRECT TIME

ARLINGTON STATION

Of Government Radio System Will Furnish Interesting News by Wireless

The General Electric company at Fort Wayne has the most up-to-date method of any concern in northern Indiana in correcting its time clocks. The government radio station at Arlington furnishes daily corrections and various other interesting news to the plant, through the receiving station that has been in operation for the last few months, and arrangements have been made to furnish the employees about the works with the exact time at 11 o'clock each day. The Decatur plant may be hooked on. The Fort Wayne News and Sentinel has the following to say:

"This plan has been adopted primarily as a novelty and as a means of keeping instruments manufactured at the plant during the war in operation. As a study of the radio operations it furnishes the department that has charge of that work with some first hand problems and observations."

"Any employee of the works who has access to the telephone system of the plant may take down the receiver and ask the telephone operator to place them on the time circuit. At precisely 11 o'clock in the forenoon, the correction comes in. This checks the clocks throughout the plant with the Western Union corrections to one-fifth of a second. The Decatur plant may be connected with this circuit."

ANNUAL CLOSING

Of Research Club Tuesday Evening With Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Thomas

A GOOD PROGRAM

Event Started With Six O'clock Dinner for Husbands and Members

The annual closing of the Research club last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Thomas was thoroughly enjoyed by the ladies and their husbands, or other guests.

The six o'clock dinner in two courses was served by Mesdames L. W. Stolte, J. T. Merryman, Fred Heuer, P. B. Thomas, B. J. Rice and Miss Nellie Blackburn.

At the close of the dinner, the president, Mrs. C. D. Lewton, told of the club work of the past two years, there being no closing meeting last year, and introduced the president for the new year, Mrs. P. B. Thomas. Mrs. Thomas gave an interesting talk on club work.

Mrs. Carrie Haubold delighted the company with a piano solo, and during the early part of the evening an interesting contest, "The Bill of Fare," was enjoyed.

The evening's entertainment closed with each guest present taking a part on the program, either singing, reciting, telling a story, giving riddles, and finally closing with a straw vote for president.

The Research club is one of the city's best organizations of ladies and their studies during the winter months are very interesting. The work of the club will open again with the beginning of the fall and continue during the winter.

TO DIE IN CHAIR

William Ray Will Die in the Electric Chair on August Fifth

A SPEEDY TRIAL

Took Less Than Day to Find Him "Guilty"—Murdered White Girl

(United Press Service)

Michigan City, Ind., Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—William Ray, Indianapolis negro convicted of the murder of a white girl and sentenced to die in the electric chair, arrived at the penitentiary at 1:30 p. m. today. He was accompanied by two deputy sheriffs.

The usual practice of taking convicts from the railroad station to the prison in a street car was not followed. A taxi cab was utilized. Arriving at the prison Ray was registered, given a bath and placed in the death chamber. He refused to talk.

Another prisoner sentenced to die in the chair was also brought here today. He is Walter Baker, 24, convicted at South Bend for the murder of Carl Cook at Laporte, Ind., on Christmas Eve.

Indianapolis, Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—William Ray, negro youth, will die in the electric chair before dawn on August 5 for assaulting and murdering fourteen year old Martha Huff.

Under guard the negro was taken to the state prison at Michigan City today. The time of departure and the route were kept secret in anticipation of an attempt to cheat the chair of its prey. Feeling was strong against Ray in Indianapolis. A mob estimated at 3,000 was dispersed by the police after it had demanded his life.

A jury in criminal court last night returned a verdict convicting Ray of murder in the first degree and sentencing him to death. The jury was out only twenty minutes. Judge James Collins set the time of execution just one hundred days away—the minimum under the Indiana law. The negro was stunned. He had refused to take the stand in his own defense and his only remark when informed of the verdict was that he didn't mean to kill the girl.

Ray had previously confessed to coaxing the girl into a field and then stabbing her twelve times in the throat because she refused to submit to his embraces.

SIZE OF PAPERS

Senator Reed Thinks That by Limiting the Size of Newspapers the

PAPER SHORTAGE

Would be Relieved—Foreign Relations Committee on Treaty Again

(United Press Service)

Washington, Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Limitation of the size of newspapers admitted as second class mail matter was mentioned as a possible means of meeting the print paper shortage by Senator Reed Misoori, democrat, today opening hearing on the shortage. Reed explained that he was committing neither himself or the party on the plan and that he sought views of the publisher on the suggestion.

Newspaper publishers testifying before the committee declared there is a world wide shortage of print paper.

Washington, April 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The senate foreign relations committee today met in another effort to report out the peace resolution and get it on the floor for debate. Meanwhile a new move to revive the treaty of Versailles was being started by a number of senators in both parties. Both the peace resolution and the effort to get the treaty back to the senate are political maneuvers, in opinion of many senators.

Senator Underwood, newly chosen democratic leader, is counted on to help work up sentiment for a treaty agreement and then to go to President Wilson and urge him to re-submit the pact.

When the foreign relations committee met to take up the peace resolution, Senator Knox was prepared to submit a combination of the house resolution and earlier Knox resolutions.

Knox's resolution contains five provisions. The first repeals the war declaration and restores the pre-war status between the United States and Germany.

The second requests the president to negotiate a treaty of amity and commerce with Germany or any arrangement which would have the same effect.

The third protects the claims of American nationals against Germans by requiring satisfaction in full of all American claims before money and property of Germans held by United States officials or agencies can be turned back to owners.

The fourth retains to the United States all rights and advantages guaranteed by the armistice terms or the treaty of peace.

HOAGLAND LADY DIES

The deceased is survived by her husband and seven children, Herbert, one week old; Russell, John, Audrey, Josephine, Marjorie and Phyllis. Two brothers and two sisters also survive, William Schuler, of Huntington, and Roy Schuler, of this city; Mrs. William Roeger, of this city; Mrs. Charles Roy, of Huntington. Her father, John Schuler, of Fort Wayne, survives. She was a member of the Hoagland Methodist church. The body was taken to the home at Hoagland today, where the funeral services will be held.—Ft. WOOD'S LEAD IS DWINDLING FAST

Hiram Johnson is Only 533 Votes Behind in the New Jersey Election

HARDING HOLDS ON

To Ohio Vote by a Small Lead—Cox Gets Entire Ohio Delegation

(United Press Service)

New York, Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Major General Leonard Wood was leading Senator Hiram Johnson in the New Jersey preferential primary by a vote of 533 votes with 166 precincts missing according to figures compiled for republican headquarters here late today. These figures show the following vote:

Wood—49,770.
Johnson—49,237.

Columbus, Ohio, Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Figures in the hands of the secretary of state late today showed General Leonard Wood elected two delegates in each of the twelfth, sixteenth and twenty-second districts in yesterday's presidential primary. He is believed to have a fighting chance to elect two more.

Returns from 3,765 precincts out of a total of 5,882 were as follows:
Harding—75,457.
Wood—74,567.
Johnson—9,001.
Hoover—7,362.

Cincinnati, Apr. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The showing made by Herbert Hoover in the primaries of this county was regarded by Hoover state headquarters here as indicating that had his name appeared on the ballot he would have carried the county. His name was written on the ballot by 4,695 voters and he carried several precincts. He received more than one-seventh of all the republican votes cast and nearly half the number received by Gen. Wood.

New York, April 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Final results of the most hectic day in the pre-convention campaign were still in doubt today. Incomplete returns from yesterday's primaries showed:

New Jersey:
Republicans: Major General Wood leading Senator Hiram Johnson by 740 votes in 1,504 out of 2,005 election districts. Wood appeared to have a majority of the 28 delegates.

Democrats:
Governor Edwards was practically unopposed for the state's endorsement and apparently will receive support of the 28 delegates at the national convention.

Ohio:
Republicans: Unofficial returns from 2,857 of the 5,882 precincts showed Senator Warren G. Harding leading Wood by 3,476 votes. Harding's managers claimed 42 of the 48 delegates while Wood's supporters claimed eight.

Democrats: Governor James Cox had no opposition for the democratic endorsement and will receive the state's entire delegation of 48.

Massachusetts: Republicans: Practically complete returns showed Wood probably would receive six of the state's 35 delegates. The others are unpledged but will cast their early ballots in the convention for Governor Calvin Coolidge. There was no preferential vote.

Democrats: The democratic delegation of 36 will be unpledged. There was no preferential vote.

Washington republicans, in a state convention yesterday, pledged their entire delegation of 14 to Senator Miles Poindexter, "favorite son."

Idaho republicans, meeting today, were expected to select Senator William Borah's slate of eight delegates. He has been campaigning for Johnson.

Exclusive of New Jersey and accepting the claims of the Wood organization in Ohio and Massachusetts the standing of the republican candidates to date as regards instructed delegates is:

Wood 90; Governor Frank O. Lowden 73; Johnson 61; Harding 42; Poindexter 14.

Granting claims to uninstructed delegates, the standing would be: Wood 171; Lowden 131; Nicholas Murray Butler 88; Johnson 87; Harding 42; Coolidge 29; Judge J. C. Pritchard of North Carolina 22; Poindexter 14.
