Entered at the postoffice in Decatur Indiana, as second-class matter.

The taxpayers want the present state tax and road laws repealed or rewritten so they will function in justice to all ,it being clearly demonstrated by the vote in the primary election.

Tomorrow is Mother's Day. Observe it. Go to that lovely creature to whom all the honor in the world is due, pat her on the back and say a few kind words to her and motherlike that will please her more than anything you could do for her.

The McCray machine certainly put the skids under Fesler and when it once got started it did not stop when it hit Marion county. However, they were considerate in one recpect, they leaving Fesler carry his home county by one vote. Where was the "old guard." Too much Goodrich again.

Carleton B. McCulloch polled 5078 votes in Marion county against 652, the next highest vote received by his closest opponent in the race for the gubernatorial nomination. He is extremely popular and the voters all over the state will be glad to elect him to office this fall.

The democrats are and should be proud of the party's nominees. They have a right to be. No finer or more qualified men or better citizens can be found in Hoosierdom than those who head the state ticket and it will be a pleasure for the democracy of Indian to vote for and elect them to office this fall. The Indianapolis Star, republican paper, almost conceds that the democratic candidates this year are better qualified men than those on the republican ticket. In discussing the political situation and the outstanding qualities of Thomas Taggart and Carleton B. McCulloch, the Star says:

"The voters, in the absence of issues of absorbing interest, may be depended upon to pay more than ordinary heed to the qualifications of the individual candidates. The democrats are not going into the contest handicapped by a lot of mediocrites. There will be weak spots on their list, but they also have nominated men who would lend strength to any ticket. In a man-for-man comparison the democrats enter the race for Indiana and Marion county voters with prospects brighter than in any campaign in recent years.

"Former Senator Thomas Taggart may be counted upon to help to put his party ticket in the running in all parts of the state. He will be a tower of strength in a campaign in which personal following is certain to count for much. He has thousands of friends among republicans as well as among the great element known as the "independents" or "silent voters," to whom party affiliations mean little. Dr. McCulloch's popularity, particularly in Marion county, and the high grade citizenship represented on the democratic ticket are certain to pull heavily in a contest such as apparently is about to be waged."

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS

A number of calls have been received from various citizens relative to chickens running loose and destroying gardens. A city ordinance is in effect relative to this, and all chickens will have to be penned up or prosecution will follow.

ONE FROM MISSOURI

A Missouri farmer once came to town in an old buckboard wagon pulled by a team of mules. On arriving in the heart of the "city" he noticed a circus poster on an old building, which read, according to his interpretation: "Minnich's Marvelous Circus, Greatest on Earth, 'cept One." (Sept. 1.)

BOLSHEVIKS MAKE ADVANCE

(United Press Service)

London, May 8.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—"We repulsed the enemy to the north of Bozorvskaya and west of Moghilev," Friday's bolshevik communique on the Polish offensive in Podolia and Volhunia said.

A nearlier Moscow communique presumably covering Thursday's operations said:

"The enemy, was repulsed in the Kieff region and along the Irpen river. Enemy gunboats and red troops exchanged artillery fire in the Odessa region."

SHE FEELS FINE NOW

Aches and pains often indicate kidneys out of order. Your kidneys surely need help—and quickly when your hands or feet are swollen and you feel dull and sluggish, lose your appetite and your energy and there is a puffy look under the eyes. Mrs. L. Gibson 12th and Edison St., LaJunta, Colo. writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for sometime. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. I feel fine now." Sold everywhere.

PLAN LONG TRIPS TO SEE SPEEDWAY RACE

That there will be a greater long distance attendance at the 500-mile race on the Indianapolis motor speedway May 31 is indicated by reservations received from the far off Pacific and many east coast cities as well. Tour managers are arranging parties to travel in special trains.
