The Daily Democrat in behalf of the business men of this city extends a hearty welcome to Fort Wayne business men who will visit our city tomorrow on a "get acquainted" tour.

Because one of the state highway commission members did not agree with Governor Goodrich's political plans and orders the governor will dismiss the gentleman on the grounds that he was incompetent. So the highway commission is a political body. The action of the governor in the Jenkins case proves that it is.

With the best platform ever presented to the voters of Indiana, a ticket composed of high class men who will serve you honestly, plenty of pep and the determination to win, the democrats of Indiana will make a splendid fight and will win in next November's election. The convention last week it is admitted easily bested the republican meeting the week before in every particular.

Welcome the Fort Wayne visitors to Decatur tomorrow. Nearly one hundred men, representatives of the leading wholesale, jobbing and manufacturing plants of the "Summit City" will visit this city tomorrow, the purpose being to meet local business men and enjoy a hand shake with them. They will be here early in the morning and every business man should make it a point to welcome them.

James "Parole" Goodrich, governor of the great state of Indiana, is going to dismiss one of the members of the state highway commission because he opposed the governor in the republican convention. Mr. Jenkins, the commissioner who will be headed did not agree with Goodrich politically and that seems to be an ample excuse for the state's executive to dismiss him. It looks as if the highway commission was created to serve its real purpose?

The editor of the Daily Democrat recognizes the honor of being chosen to represent the eighth congressional district as a delegate to the national convention at San Francisco and promises to do so to the very best of his ability, voting on platform, candidates and questions as he believes the majority of the democrats in this district would desire. He will appreciate the advice and counsel of those interested in this most important convention and its work. If any one from the district expects to attend the convention, Mr. Heller states that he will be glad to arrange for admission tickets and to give them any information he may have on the trip and accommodations.

The nomination of Mr. Wagner of Columbus for secretary of state at the democratic convention last week was seconded by Mr. Herman L. Center of this city who had been frequently mentioned as a candidate for the place. Mr. Center's many friends insisted upon him again taking the nomination but he declined it on account of business interests which now demand his attention. His popularity over the state was proven many times last week by the people from every part of the state, demanding that he be a candidate. His record as assistant secretary of state for six years proved his ability and is referred to as one of the best ever made in Indiana. His Adams county friends are proud of him.

CO-OPERATION OF LIBRARIES

Plan is Arranged Whereby American and British Library Assistants MAY BE EXCHANGED

Project First Proposed in 1903—A Growing Interest is Observed

An exchange of library assistants between America and British libraries soon may be arranged, according to plans now under way. Recent communications between a representative of the American Library association and L. Stanley Jast, chief deputy librarian of the Manchester, England, public libraries, have revived a plan first proposed years ago. Other prominent British public libraries considering the project are those of Glasgow, Birmingham, Liverpool, Leeds and Croyden, and cooperation of American libraries is declared to be assured. The plan probably will have the backing of the library association of Great Britain and of the American Library association's committee on international relations.

The exchange of librarians, comparable to the system of exchange professors, would promote a mutual understanding of methods of encouraging adult self-education in the two countries. The revival at this time of a project first proposed in 1903 is declared by the American Library association to be an indication of the growing realization throughout the world of the importance of public library service as a guide for the citizenship of a nation. Growing interest in public library service of the American Library association for the American Expeditionary Forces in the war, Poland and Czechoslovakia have established public library systems, having sought the expert guidance of the American Library association through its European headquarters in Paris.

To promote library extension in America, the American Library association is raising a "Books for Everybody" fund of $2,000,000. In seventeen states, less than one-fifth of population has access to free public libraries, the bureau of education declares, and the average for the nation is less than fifty per cent.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE OVER RAILROADS AGAIN

Chicago, May 24.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Reorganization of war time management of railroads for the purpose of making a short cut toward relieving railroad congestion was proposed at a meeting of officials of thirty railroads operating out of Chicago here today.

A committee of three, representing shippers, railroads and the government, was appointed to work out a general plan and lay it before the railroad officials at a meeting here Thursday.

Railroad owners through E. T. Whittier, their spokesman, opened up a new phase in the United States railroad labor board's hearing of demands of over 2,000,000 railroad workers for annual increase of $1,000,000,000 today when he bluntly put to the board the question of back pay.

Back pay should be included in increases which may be granted, approximately close to $1,000,000,000, it was said. Railroad workers were expected to seek back pay increases dating from July 1, 1919.

DOCTORS FAVOR NEW TASTELESS CASTOR OIL

New Process Makes Castor Oil Absolutely Tasteless.

Doctors have always prescribed castor oil when a real laxative is needed, and all mothers know how much trouble it is to get children to take it. There need be no more trouble, for doctors are now recommending Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil, from which absolutely all nauseating taste has been removed. Children take it readily. They need not even know it is castor oil. This splendid new form of the good old family remedy is the result of a remarkable process perfected by the chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc. In strength and purity Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is exactly the same as the old-fashioned disagreeable kind. Nothing has been removed but the taste. Do not accept substitutes, if you want a really tasteless castor oil. At all good druggists. Two sizes, 35 and 65c.—Adv.

How to Meet the High Cost of Living

INCREASING COSTS of necessities of life have brought a serious problem into many homes.

To meet these rising expenses two important factors should be studied:

First, there should be a constant practice of thrift—the household should be run as efficiently as a business. The first item in the budget should be "savings."

Second, the effort should be made continuously to build up a savings account, the interest from which will mean an added income.

Commencement Day

Is a very important day in a young person's life. It is customary and fitting that we should make it a time long to be remembered. The array of gifts suitable to young ladies and young men was never so inviting as now.

For the girls we are showing dainty wrist watches, bar pins, circle pins, beauty pins in pairs, dorian boxes and mesh purses.

For the young man a most appropriate gift is a high-grade watch; it can be either a strap watch for the wrist or a pocket time-piece. Its lessons in accuracy are of much value and its permanence assures a perpetual reminder of the giver. Other articles proper for young men are cuff links, scarf pins, shirt studs, silver and gold belt buckles, pocket knives and pencils.
