Tri Kappa—Miss Hallie Leonard, First Street.

Thursday

U. B. Ladies' Aid—Mrs. Del Lake, Presbyterian Ladies' Aid—All Day at the Church.

Live Wire Class Evangelical Sunday School—Ernest Foreman.

Ladies' Aid of Evangelical Church—Mrs. Chas. Schnitz.

Mrs. Will Bowers and her guest, Miss Ada Lafferty, spent yesterday in Fort Wayne. While there they attended the first district meeting of the American Nurses' association, and heard a most interesting address delivered by Miss Adda Eldridge, state secretary of the association.

The meeting of the Tri Kappas, which was to have been held with Miss Hallie Leonard on next Tuesday evening, has been postponed until Wednesday of next week. All members please take notice.

A splendid meeting of the Otterbein Guild was held at the home of the Misses Evelyn and Beatrice Butcher on last evening. The program consisted of a study of the life of African girls and their needs and the work of the missionaries in Africa. There was also some special music. Mrs. John Hill, one of the guests, gave a reading entitled "The Do-Without Box," and Mrs. Miner gave a report on the convention of the Women's Missionary association and Otterbein Guild at South Bend, which was very interesting. Four subscriptions to the Evangel, the missionary magazine, were secured. The program was followed by refreshments, and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Frances Mougey, a bride of the next two weeks, was honored at a shower given last evening by Misses Grace Arnold and Naomi Gass at the Gass home to the members of the Ic-Nick club and the Delta Theta Tau sorority, and a few friends. The home was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms, ferns and blue birds. The dining room was especially pretty, with its pink and white-hooded chandelier, from which was suspended a huge white wedding bell. It was from the dining room that the gifts were showered, and Miss Mougey was the recipient of many very beautiful and useful gifts. Five hundred was played, the honors being taken by Mrs. William Bowers and Miss Agnes Costello, the prizes being in turn given to Miss Mougey. An elegant two-course lunch was served, the hostesses being assisted in the serving by the Misses Helen Gass, Margaret Mylott and Gladys Arnold. Guests other than the club members were Miss Adda Lafferty, of Fort Wayne, house guest of Mrs. Will Bowers; Miss Margaret Garard of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Ernest Bailey of Ft. Wayne, formerly Miss Josephine Lang. The evening was very pleasantly spent socially after the games, shower and luncheon.

The members of the Five Hundred club were very pleasantly entertained last evening by Mrs. Arthur Mangold at her home on Jefferson street. Honors were taken by Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Joe Lose, the guest prize going to Mrs. E. X. Ehinger. A fine two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, she being assisted by Mrs. Noah Mangold. Guests were Mrs. B. Sholty, Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and Mrs. E. X. Ehinger. With this meeting the club closed its social sessions until September.

CAR STRUCK FOUNTAIN

Charles Hite, driving his father's car lost control for an instant while turning the corner at Monroe and second streets yesterday evening and hit the fountain in front of the Old Adams County bank, breaking it off. David Baker, employed by the city, was cleaning the fountain at the time and in the accident had his foot so badly crushed that he will be laid up for some time.

CHILDREN'S DAY PROGRAM

A children's day program will be given Sunday evening, June 13, at the Washington church, five miles southwest of this city. A splendid program is being arranged, with special music and an address by the minister. The program will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock. B. F. Breiner is the superintendent.

The first Catholic to be admitted to membership in the corporation of Harvard College is James Bryce, New York lawyer, who has been elected a fellow of the University to succeed the late Major Henry Lee Higginson.

Convention Waiting For Platform

their applause.

He was followed by Mrs. Margaret McCarter, of Kansas, the first woman to speak on the rostrum in a republican national convention.

Chicago, June 9.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The credentials committee of the republican national convention completed its work of making up the permanent roll of that body at 5 a. m. today, after having been in session 13 hours.

After reviewing the entire 137 contest cases heard by the national committee last week, and one additional from Oregon, the committee made but three reversals of the national body's findings. These were in the fourth Georgia congressional district, the fifth Missouri district and the tenth Tennessee district.

The committee action in overruling the national committee's action in the Missouri case again brought the convention back to its normal personnel of 984, with 483 necessary for a nomination choice. This was the result of the committee seating one of the contesting groups of two delegates after the national committee had eliminated both contesting delegations from the temporary roll. The credentials committee was to submit its report to the national convention when the latter body reconvened today.

The meeting opened with an unexpected fight over the chairmanship. Charles H. Ines, Massachusetts, was opposed by Edward P. Duffield, state chairman of the Wood organization in New Jersey. Duffield was elected 26 to 16. The result occasioned some mattering by the defeated faction, who made much of the fact that Frank H. Hitchcock, Wood's campaign manager, had been "visiting" with the committee members for an hour before they got down to business. W. T. Laube, Washington, was elected secretary by acclamation. Charles B. Carter, Maine, former university of Michigan guard and twice picked for the all-American football eleven, appeared in the role of informal attorney for the committee. He is a Wood man.

In the debate that ensued in the Georgia case, Gregory Page, New Mexico, tore into Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro national committeeman-elect from Georgia, who conducted the case for himself and associated delegates. A roll call was taken and Johnson's four Lowden delegates were retained on the convention personnel, 27 to 23.

The next division came in the fourth congressional district. This time the Wood faction caught the Lowdenites napping and seated C. D. Williams in place of H. B. Butts.

John W. Smith, Michigan, wearied of the partisan lines along which the session was developing, declared: "I'm not here representing either Wood or Lowden. Don't let us fool ourselves; we're not deciding these cases according to the evidence."

This started a sort of testimonial meeting, in which several members openly declared their preference regarding candidates. Johnson Moonman, Indiana, was insistent that the record should show "he proposes to vote for Hiram Johnson."

Shoe manufacturers, tied up by the strike, shipped shoes by parcel post. One mail car earned $3,000 at the postage rates charged. How much difference it made in the price of the shoes is not stated.

ROYALTY COSTS BRITAIN $2,775,850 A YEAR

(United Press Service)
London—(By Mail)—Annoyed at the refusal of Captain Ramsay, King's Commissioner at Balmoral, to pay the men working on the royal estate £3 (about $12) a week, a London labor newspaper prints a table showing how much it costs the nation to keep the royal family going. It reads thus:

King George refuses his workmen on his Scottish estate a wage per week of £3 (about $12.)

We pay King George £528,000 a year, or per week £10,154 (about $35,092.)

We pay yearly to:

Queen Alexandria £70,000
Prince of Wales £50,000
Duke of Connaught £25,000
Princess Christian £6,000
Duchess of Argyll £6,000
Princess Beatrice £6,000
King Edward's daughters £18,000

Total: £193,000 (about $743,000.)

DEMOCRAT WANT ADS PAY BIG!

"ONCE UPON A TIME"

Twenty children—boys and girls—squared on the slope of a little knoll, made themselves comfortable and turned to the Lady in the Gypsy Dress.

"Once upon a time—" she began.

The children gave her their undivided attention.

"There was a very wise King!"

You could have heard a pin drop.

"He had several handsome sons. The King wanted to teach them Wisdom."

The Tale went on. The Lady in the Gypsy Dress told the youngsters how the King showed his sons the object lesson of the bundle of sticks.

First, he caused one to break a single stick. It snapped easily. But, when bidden to break a bundle of sticks, the sons bent their efforts in vain. One stick alone, the Lady told the children, broke easily, but, all of the sticks together resisted the best efforts of the strong youths.

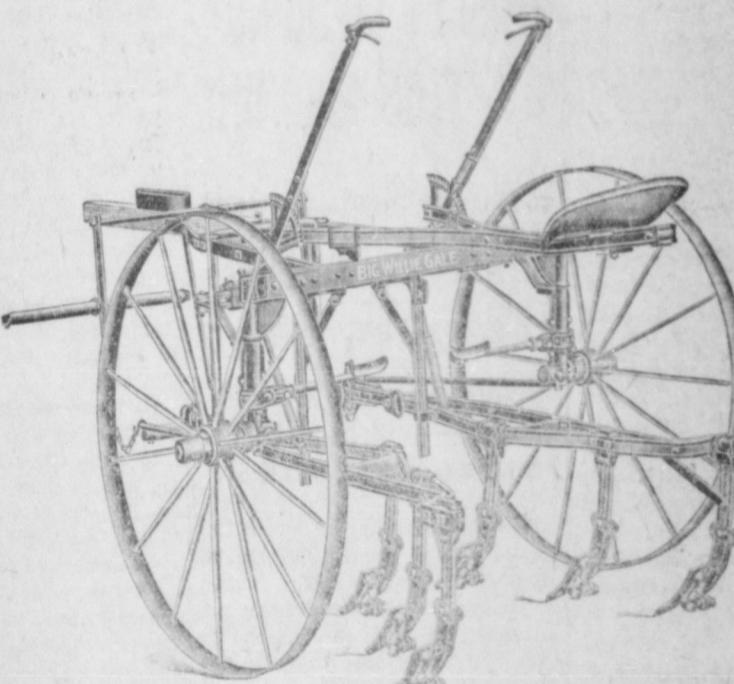

Underlying the Tale, as the Lady told it, there was a message—the message of Community Service.

Individually, men and women may accomplish little. Organized, intelligently trained in the methods of Community Service, they can unite their fellows in one happy purpose—the creation of a real community spirit.

Community Service is seeking to show American communities the way to greater happiness and content. It seeks to solve their leisure time problems, to break down the barriers of selfishness and social prejudice, to make all elements of the community meet in a common cause—

The Good of the Community.
