

Why Gamble With Your Life When The Future of Your Family Is At Stake

You would not throw away your weekly salary and go home "broke" on pay day. You would not subject those you love to hardships willingly, but still if you do not carry life insurance you do take such an attitude of indifference.

COX AND McADOO LEAD

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Box score of demonstrations for various candidates to date:

Owen—One minute.
Gerard—No attempt.
Cummings—Band played "Star Spangled Banner," everyone standing. Little noise.
Hitchcock—No demonstration. Not even a second speech.

Palmer—35 minutes with some quiet lulls between cheers.
Meredith—None.
Cox—Thirty-five minutes, largely aided by an Ohio band and college cheer leaders.

Smith—23 minutes, in which practically every state banner joined.
McAdoo—42 minutes of real noise with scarcely a let-up. The biggest demonstration of the show.
Edwards—none.

Final Nominations Are Being Made

demonstration was started but silence was brought by a big husky delegate who yelled "sit down."

Yells of McAdoo came from various parts of the hall as the speech proceeded.

West Virginia was called. Gov. J. Cornwell stepped to the rostrum and placed into nomination John W. Davis. There was a typical favorite son outburst confined almost exclusively to West Virginia delegates.

San Francisco, Cal., July 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Following is the resume of the proposals submitted to the full committee on resolutions by the sub-committee. They must be approved by the full committee before being put into the democratic platform or submitted to the convention:

WET AND DRY ISSUE.
The sub-committee made no reference directly or indirectly in its report to prohibition as an issue, leaving the full committee to write a platform if any was deemed necessary as the subject.

IRISH QUESTION.
Recommends that the advocates of Irish freedom be assured that their cause will be taken up by representatives of the United States government in the league of nations.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
Recommends adoption of the Virginia plank on the league which was approved by President Wilson.

MEXICO.
Assures support to a staple Mexican government properly established extends sympathy to the Mexican people in their long trial and war; that the rights of Americans on both sides of the border must be respected.

SOLDIERS' BONUS.
Emphatically opposed a cash bonus for soldiers who served in the great war.

LABOR.
Affirms right of collective bargaining; reaffirms the principle of the eight-hour day; declares arbitration as proven unsatisfactory in many instances as means of settling disputes between employer and employee and recommends, therefore, that when the rights of the public are involved, tribunals should be established, one to hear grievances and attempt to settle and the second with the power to finally settle.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN INDUSTRY.
Opposed child labor and recommends the measure for improving the condition of women in industry. Recommends laws that will better safeguard the health of children and prospective mothers.

San Francisco, July 1.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—All of the carefully planned political strategy of weeks appeared to have been shattered by overnight developments.

A combination of events, centering about the reaction from yesterday's nominating speeches and demonstrations, has resulted in a complete realignment of forces preparatory to the balloting for the democratic presidential nominee.

From a maze of unexpected and confusing happenings throughout the night and early today the following stood out:

William G. McAdoo may poll the most votes on the first ballot. This was even admitted by supporters of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer who had led in first choice strength. It was predicted that McAdoo would poll between 300 and 350, and Palmer about 275 on the initial vote.

Optimistic McAdoo leaders predicted his nomination within four ballots. Governor James M. Cox's organization claimed to have McAdoo definitely blocked, with not more than five hundred votes as a maximum for the latter. The Ohioan's leaders looked for Palmer's disintegration within the first three or four ballots. Then they expected Cox to pick up at the expense of the attorney general. It was also intimated that at the proper time it would be revealed that Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader, is not as unfriendly to the Cox candidacy as some believe.

Fishing and hunting licenses were issued to Lawrence J. Yager and Milton F. Moser.

TREASURER HITE HOME

Hugh D. Hite, county treasurer, returned yesterday from his trip through the west and reports a most pleasant trip. Mr. Hite left here two weeks ago and went to Portland, Ore., as a delegate from Post X to the national convention. Following the convention he went to Los Angeles and San Francisco and says he enjoyed every minute of his journey.

A FULFILLMENT OF HER DREAMS

accompaniments and it makes a sort of George M. Cohan musical out of the convention.

On only one other memorable occasion in my life, the first progressive convention have I seen men go so wild with enthusiasm.

When it was all over they had barely enough energy left to take themselves away from the auditorium.

In second Governor Smith's nomination, Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, said, "This convention is being conducted in the open. The candidate of this convention will never be nominated in a hotel room at 8 o'clock in the morning."

There is no doubt about that, and it is something of which all forward-looking Americans of any party should be proud of.

Three Are Out

drive in this county is to open September 13.

The three counties which have signed up for membership drives to become affiliated with the state federation will be in the fold in time to have accredited delegates to the second annual convention to be held this fall. Every effort is to be put forth to have the remaining three counties—Brown, Elkhart and Perry—organized in time to participate in the convention thereby bringing the Indiana farmers up to ninety-two counties organized, the first in the middle West to be fully one hundred per cent. organized.

President John G. Brown, of Monon, and Lewis Taylor, general secretary, attended an important conference of state presidents and secretaries held at Ames, Iowa, during the last week. Maurice Douglas, second vice president, represented the federation at a meeting of the Indiana Commercial Secretaries' association held at Michigan City. He spoke on "Organization Among the Agriculturists."

INVESTIGATES PHONOGRAPH COMPANY

Van Wert, Ohio, June 30.—Judge Hugh E. Allen is in Chicago investigating the financial condition of the LaSalle Phonograph company, which organization has presented checks for payment $55,000 in excess of its deposits. It develops that many residents of Van Wert county are deeply interested in the result of Judge Allen's investigations, as many stockholders reside in and near Willshire, in addition to the four men who stand to lose heavily because they endorsed the phonograph company's notes and who furnished an indemnity bond to make good any losses the bank of Wren may have to assume.

Clyde Harden of east of the city was a business visitor here yesterday. Mrs. Iantha Townsend and Miss Grene Gregory left yesterday for Logansport where they will visit friends.
