The first Sunday in June the classes of the East Liberty Sunday school began a contest to see which class could have the largest attendance on its Sunday. The men's and women's classes were a tie in attendance, so it was decided to give a basket dinner on the 11th of July. It being the primary classes' Sunday, the women furnishing the dinner and the men the ice cream. The attendance was 111. A very good offering was given and in all fifty dollars will be sent for the Syrian-Armenian relief fund. Tables were arranged under the large trees on the church lawn and were well filled with all the good things of the season to which all did justice. The afternoon was spent in conversation until four o'clock when ice cream was served. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Hively and son Messrs. and Mesdames, D. J. The Co-Workers class of the Methodist church met at Belmont park last evening where they had a picnic supper consisting of weiners, coffee, baked beans and ice cream. Their wives were present to help feed them. After the lunch they played base ball and the batters hit W. P. Beery's balls so hard that the ball was lost several times. Due to an argument it will not do for us to say which side was the winner, but suffice to say no one was killed. The boys also vented their strength in playing blackman and various other games. They all enjoyed themselves immensely and wish to thank Mr. Reppert for providing such an ideal place to hold a picnic. The next meeting has been postponed because the date conflicted with the fair and the time will be announced later.

The clerks of the Boston store had a picnic at Belmont park last evening. They roasted weiners and had a general good time. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kuebler, Mr. and Mrs. Barthol and daughter, Helen, Mrs. Frank Butler and Mrs. Carrie Sutherland; the Misses Marcella Kuebler, Effie Patton, Lettie Lang, Rose Fullenkamp, Matilda Sellemeyer, Fanny Hammell, Ruth Hammell and Rose Kleinhenz; Oscar Lankenn and Tom Murphy.

Were Married In Columbus

months. They were married the next Tuesday, however, and Robert left Columbus on Thursday night, arriving here Friday morning.

The groom graduated from the Decatur high school with the class of 1913, and during his high school years everywhere in this city, and many young people of the surrounding cities, knew him as a leader in athletics and as a basket ball fan especially, he serving as captain of the basket ball quintet two or three seasons. In track and field meets he was also one of the enthusiasts of the local high school. During his senior year he was also one of the editors of the "Ravellings", the official high school paper, and never was it a more newsy and up-to-the-minute sheet than during the school term of 1912 and 1913.

During his high school years he also worked in this office and learned to be a most efficient linotype operator, which vocation he followed during vacation during his college career.

In the fall of 1913 he entered Indiana university, and attended that institution until this country entered the world war, when he enlisted in the service and assisted in the forming of Company A in this city. He left here in September 1917, and for a time was stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss. Later he took the officers' training course at Camp Taylor, and was commissioned a second lieutenant, and was stationed at Camp Sherman, Ohio, and for a time it was thought would leave the camp with the Eighty-fourth division, but did not do so, and the armistice was signed before he got away. Following the signing of the armistice he did clerical work, retaining his commission, and was later transferred to Columbus barracks, where he was athletic director, with the rank of lieutenant.

He met Miss Jeffries at a social affair given at the officers' headquarters at Columbus, and the couple have since been warm friends. She is a graduate of the Columbus high school, graduating with the class two years ago. Soon after her graduation she enlisted in the navy as a yeoman and served two years in the service of Uncle Sam at Fort Harrison, at Charleston, S. C. She is an active member of the Methodist church in Columbus.

She returned to Columbus where she is now employed in a responsible position with the American Railway Express company, and will retain her position until her husband gets located in the business world. She has lived in Columbus all her life and has a mother and sister who have lived there also, her father being deceased.

Mr. Peterson, who took a journalistic course at the university, expects to get into the newspaper game, and is now seeking a location, and when he gets a suitable position, they will go to housekeeping.

"Bob", as he is familiarly known to all, is one of those wideawake fellows who is bound to succeed in anything he undertakes, and in this "new venture" he has the heartiest congratulations of all, and it is to be hoped that he will locate somewhere near home, where we can see him often.

THIRD PARTY TO NOMINATE TODAY

Committee of 48 and Labor Agree to Amalgamate and Nominate a Candidate

STARTS AT EIGHT

A Platform Presented and Agreed to—New Party Will be Launched

(United Press Service)
Chicago, July 13.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—A new political party will be formally launched here this afternoon.

The national convention of the committee of 48 and the labor party conventions each amid scenes of enthusiasm, voted unanimously to amalgamate and meet in joint convention at Carmen's hall at 2 P. M., to complete plans of organization and finally adopt a platform.

Candidate for president and vice president will be nominated at a joint session called for eight o'clock tonight.

Already unanimously agreed upon the platform with the exception of one plank through the action of the conferences, the way was paved for the conventions to merge by the action of the joint committee on political procedure in recommending details of an amalgamation.

Both conventions went into a frenzy of applause when the news was received that the other had voted to merge.

Hotel Morrison, Chicago, July 13.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—All basic differences have been adjusted and the new third party will be formally launched today, it was officially announced after an all-night conference of leaders of the committee of 48 and the American Labor party.

Faced by threats of the rank and file of both the labor and 48 conventions to take matters into their own hands and effect an amalgamation unless an agreement was reached in committee when the meetings re-convened today, the leaders within a few hours apparently accomplished what they had hitherto failed to do in three days of wrangling—reached a common understanding.

The joint committee on platform was still in session less than three hours before expiration of the time limit according to the leaders, but they would be able to present a compromise program shortly after the convention got under way.

Indications were the platform would provide for government ownership of public utilities, opposition to the league of nations, with or without reservations; recognition of Irish independence; opposition to compulsory military training; taxation to "force idle land into use;" equal economic, political and legal rights for all persons; "immediate restoration" of free speech, free press, right of assembly and other constitutional guarantees; abolition of the injunction in labor cases, and endorsement of labor's right to organize and bargain collectively through representatives or its own choosing.

There was still some friction over two details of the platform.

MR. WISEHAUPT HOME

Howard Wischaupt, of Cleveland, Ohio, is here for a visit with his parents and friends. Howard is employed by the Knox School of Salesmanship and Business Efficiency at Cleveland, and during the past winter his work was of such a strenuous nature that he suffered a nervous collapse. He had been in the hospital at Cleveland some time, and is here on a month's vacation during which time he will rest.

To save two pet dogs deserted when a schooner sank near the Azores, the crew of one lifeboat rowed back more than one-quarter of a mile in a rough sea.

SUNDAY, JULY 25th

In the write-up of the base ball game yesterday we stated the Lima team would play Decatur again "Monday, the 25th." This should have been Sunday, the 25th. The Decatur team plays its first game out of town Saturday at League park, Fort Wayne, with the American Legion team.

KEEP UP TO THE MARK

Good health is impossible when the kidneys are weak, overworked or diseased. When they fail to filter out of the poisons and impurities that cause sore, swollen muscles and joints, backache or rheumatic pains, prompt steps should be taken to give the kidneys and bladder the help these symptoms indicate they need. James C. Allen, Mayfield, Ky., writes: "I am in good shape and can say I found Foley Kidney Pills certainly fine. I can't say enough for them." Sold everywhere.
