

The victims of a New York "get-rich-quick" man are to be asked to meet in a hall and listen to his explanations. If they are satisfied to allow him to continue in a new business to make money to pay them back, the authorities have agreed to prosecute him. If not, he will be jailed and prosecuted.

Dr. Russell H. Conwell, of Philadelphia, has been delivering his lecture "Acres of Diamonds" for 50 years, and still has more engagements than he can fill.

The over-sea phone will soon be a reality. Washington will be able to call up any European capital.

Nickles and Dimes

Many people feel that nickles and dimes are hardly worth saving—they slip through the fingers, week by week, for things that yield neither pleasure nor profit.

Try saving up the loose coins in your pocket for a few weeks and see how fast they accumulate into dollars.

Then bring them here, which is just the place for these savings.

We pay 4% compound interest on all savings accounts.
