

"IT'S MY DUTY TO TELL FACTS" SAYS L. & N. MAN

John M. Williams Feels Others Should Know How Tanlac Has Overcome His Fifteen Years Suffering.

"While I have taken only four bottles of Tanlac, I have actually gained seventeen pounds in weight and feel better than I have in fifteen years," said John M. Williams, 204 Broadway street, Evansville, Ind., who works at the L. & N. railroad shops.

"For the last fifteen years I had suffered from stomach trouble and rheumatism. Nothing I ate agreed with me. After every meal I would bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe, and have such intense pains in the pit of my stomach they nearly drew me double. There was always a bad taste in my mouth, my kidneys worried me a great deal and I was never free from pain across the small of my back. I had rheumatism just about all over my body, and could never get easy, either day or night. Why, the muscles in my legs hurt like they were tied in knots, and my knees could hardly walk or get up and down. In fact, I was in a mighty bad fix, and although I tried many different medicines nothing seemed to do me a particle of good.

"But I am one of those fellows who do not believe in giving up, so I kept hunting for something that might help me, and as I had heard so much about how Tanlac was benefiting others, decided I would try it. Well, sir, I had had taken only a few doses before I knew I had at last found the very thing I needed, and in a short while was feeling like my old self. I can now eat anything I want and enjoy it, for I know I will not suffer a particle afterward. My kidneys never bother me any more, and the pains have entirely gone out of my back. I never feel the slightest sign of rheumatism, and in fact, I am a well man. I certainly feel thankful for what Tanlac has done for me, and not only glad to recommend it, but believe it is a duty I owe to my fellowmen to tell them about this grand medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Decatur at Smith, Yager & Falk's; in Berne at Stengel & Craig's and in Geneva at F. C. Deitch's drug store.

services. No one in the city or county can afford to miss this number of the program.

Evening.

Dr. Headland in his address last evening, "The By-Products of Civilization" surely stated some salient facts that proved very instructive and inspiring to his audience which completely packed the large tent.

He said, that the Bible and the looking glass have done more to make modern civilization than anything else in the world—the Bible from the fact that it provides an inspiration for the world to be up and doing, and the mirror to increase the beauty of the people, especially the fair sex.

Dr. Headland proved very logically to all present that the Bible and the missionary who carried its teachings were responsible for the great political powers that have ruled the world since the middle ages. He showed by comparisons that this was the fact because the heathen countries do not have the control that the Christian has.

The speaker also proved to the audience that the Christian religion was responsible for the sciences which we have now and that in countries where other religions are present that the people are not able to fit glasses, treat diseases, fill teeth and build machinery to carry on production.

The wealth of the world has been developed by the Christian religion and the missionary has been unconsciously the unsalaried drummer of the world. Had it not been for the missionary the diamond mines of Africa would lay idle, the great continent of America would still be the home of the red men and China would be unknown to the rest of the world.

In amusements, especially music, the Christian faith has been responsible for the development of the instruments and the music. No one ever heard of a black African playing a piano until the missionary went to Africa with his musical instruments and taught the Aborigines the way to produce music.

The beginning of the great art of the present world which came out of the Renaissance was painted by monks to decorate the walls of Christian churches and the subjects used were the saints and other people connected with the church.

Mr. Headland also showed that the education of the world was created by the church and was carried by the missionary to the distant countries where a new civilization followed the footsteps of the teacher. The speaker stated that no country ever gets above its religion unless it finds a better one that will raise it. This has been the trouble with the Mohammedan, the Hindu, the Buddhist, and the followers of Confucius, and they will never have a greater progress until they accept the Christian religion as the dominant factor in the world.

The lecture was an inspiration to all and will be remembered as a direct statement of the truth about the most vital subject in the world.

The second part of the evening's program was given by the Van Grove Opera company which played the grand opera, "Il Pagliacci," which proved very interesting.

The opera is the story of a band of traveling players who are just coming to an Italian town to give their play on the platform doing some advertising for the evening program. Shortly after this is over one of the village men make love to Nedda, the wife of the manager of the company. The deformed clown of the company also makes love to her but she rejects him, then to retaliate he tells her husband that she is seeing other men. He almost catches her suitor, but he escapes. Then after a quarrel with his wife they retire to get ready for the play. The play opens and seems to please the audience very much but soon the master finds out that the suitor is present and he tries to make his wife tell him who he is. She will not tell, and working himself into desperation he stabs her. She utters a cry and the lover comes to her assistance but he is also stabbed and thus the comedy ends in a tragedy.

With Mr. Van Grove at the piano all could be assured that the music would be well taken care of and all of the actors showed wonderful ability, and the costumes were very good.

All appreciated the rendition of the opera and especially the music lovers in the audience were impressed by the feeling shown by the actors and the beauty of the music and lines.

Afternoon.

Due to the fact that the lecture on "Child Life in China" is really a prelude to Dr. Headland's great lecture, "The By-Products of Civilization," the program for yesterday was somewhat changed, Dr. Headland delivering his lecture on China in the afternoon and the other lecture in the evening.

In his lecture on "Child Life in China" he pointed out the similarity of the Chinese and American children and proved very entertaining to all present, especially the younger children. He told how the Chinese children play games similar to American games and how they have the same kind of nursery rhymes, toys and amusements.

Several Decatur children assisted the speaker in illustrating how the Chinese children carry on their play and showed real ability on the stage.

The second part of the afternoon program was conducted by the Van Grove Opera company composed of eight trained musicians. The first number rendered was "The Morning of the Year," by Caedman, with Mr. Van Grove at the piano where he displays great talent. Various members of the company gave solos and duets and a quartet of "Annie Laurie" was charmingly rendered. A medley of southern airs brought on back to the southern fields of cotton and the little plectaninies. The program closed with the "Sextette from Lucia" which certainly showed the prowess of the singers.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Decatur resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

John Wagoner, retired farmer, 309 N. First St., says: "My back ached and my kidneys acted irregularly. At night I was compelled to get up frequently on account of weak kidneys, which annoyed and distressed me. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Holthouse Drug Co., put my kidneys in good shape."

SEVEN YEARS LATER Mr. Wagoner said: "Although I haven't needed Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time I surely haven't forgotten the good they did me. I am glad to confirm my former endorsement."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wagoner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

OBITUARY

Sarah Ann McKee, daughter of Samuel and Leah McKee, was born on a farm near Chrisman, Ill., Oct. 8, 1854, and died at her home of her daughter, Mrs. F. O. Neeves, near Decatur, Ind., July 27, 1920, being sixty-five years old at the time of her death. She was from a family of ten children, five boys and five girls, three boys and one girl having preceded her in death. On March 5, 1873 she was married to Amos Donovan, who died on June 4, 1917. To this union were born five children: two girls and three boys. Mrs. Nettie Florence Buckner, deceased; Sam, Ralph and Willis, of Chrisman, Ill., and Mrs. F. O. Neeves, Decatur, Ind. She leaves also to mourn her loss, two brothers, three sisters and five grandchildren and a host of more distant relatives and friends. Mrs. Donovan united with the Baptist church in her early life to which she remained a member until death, doing what she could for the betterment of her community.

She was highly respected by all she came in contact with, and to know her was to love her. She was a dutiful and loving wife, a kind-hearted and loving mother, always having at heart the best interest of her home and her children.

Now mother is gone,
God, bless her;
And though we miss her,
Our loss will be heaven's gain.
