

What Most Miles per Dollar
Means To
2,000,000
Car Owners

The thing that every tire buyer— for big car or small —is trying to buy, is mileage economy. And the one way to produce it is scientific manufacturing.

That means quantity buying, quantity production and quantity selling — always the Firestone way to better tire values at low cost.

WILL GIVE SOCIAL

The Ladies' Aid of the Calvary Evangelical church will give an ice cream social on the church lawn east of the city Friday evening, September 3. A parcel post sale will also be held and the name comfort will be sold at this time. Come one, come all; come great and small. Oodles of fun for every one. A fishing pond will be waiting for the kiddies, at 5 cents a fish.

Thirty-five states must elect governors in the fall at the presidential elections.

LECTURE SUNDAY

"Our Part in the World Crisis," will be the subject of an interesting lecture Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Hon. Oliver Wayne Stewart, at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Stewart was a member of the flying squadron with former Governor Hanly. He is said to be one of the very best lecturers in America, and his subject is one that will appeal to all. The lecture is free.

Fifteen tons of General Wood's campaign literature were sold to a Chicago junk dealer for $650.

PROTECT YOUR CHILD —AND OTHERS

The beginning of school brings coughs and colds to many children. At the first sign of a cold it is well to give a child a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, that safe, reliable cough medicine. Mrs. J. B. Pluimers, 246 Autumn St., Passaic, N. J., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar certainly is the best cough and cold remedy I ever tried for my little boy." Children like it. Good for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, hay fever and asthma. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Mrs. J. Christman Proved That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a Remedy for this Trouble.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"I was in a very nervous condition for over a year, my mind was gloomy, could see no light on anything, could not work and could not have anyone to see me. Doctor's medicine did not help me and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. I took it and am now well. I recommend it to all afflicted with nervous prostration."—Mrs. J. CHRISTMAN, 193 Oak Street, Binghamton, New York.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills. If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
