Entered at the postoffice at Decatur, Indiana, as second-class matter.

With over nine thousand registered voters in the county the task of compiling the votes on election day will be some job.

Plan to hear Senator Thomas Heflin of Alabama, who will be in Decatur on Thursday, October 14th. He is a great orator and you should hear him.

Let's keep the automobile license fees at home. This year the taxpayers are sending thousands of dollars to Indianapolis and about the only thing we get, is a look at the $82,000 garage in Indianapolis, that is we pay our way to the Capital city.

Senator Thomas Heflin of Alabama, will be in Decatur on next Thursday and plans are being made for one of the biggest political meetings of the campaign. Senator Heflin is a national figure, a great orator and statesman and you should not fail to hear him.

The taxpayers are entitled to a new tax law. The present law is a muddle and places an unjust burden on the shoulders of the small taxpayer. The valuations of property under this law are more than the property is worth and a new law should be passed.

Another reason why you should not vote the republican ticket this fall is that Ora Davies, the man who could not keep his books straight as treasurer of Howard county and was forced to make a settlement to the state for over $3,000.00 is still the republican candidate for state treasurer. It is an insult to the voters of the state to have such a man on the ticket.

Senator Harding has made a definite statement, he favors staying out of the league of nations, would make a separate peace treaty—if that be possible—and now stands for the rejection of the league and Versailles treaty. He made this statement at Des Moines yesterday and now the issue before the voters is whether or not they follow Johnson-Hearst-Barah and Harding or those who favor the league.

Samuel Foster, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor is one of the best business men in the state and one of the most highly respected citizens in Hoosierdom. When he discusses the tax law, the highway commission and other important questions you can take it for granted

Stops Pain Like Magic

In grandmother's day the first thought was Lightning Hot Drops when some one had a pain—and pain vanished every time this old reliable remedy was used. New fangled and more costly things have won the younger generation away from some of the good old-fashioned remedies, but the demand for Lightning Hot Drops is greater today than ever. Nothing else so quickly relieves cramps, stomach and intestinal pains, rheumatic and neuralgia pain, toothache, earache and similar distress. Lightning Hot Drops, for internal and external use, costs only 30c and 60c a bottle. At druggists—guaranteed.

that he knows what he is talking about and you can bank on it that he is telling the truth. Mr. Foster is an authority on taxation and if he is elected with Carleton McCulloch the taxpayers will be sure of getting a just tax law.

The democratic meeting held in this city last evening was a great success and judging from the size of the crowd that filled the court room, the voters, men and women alike are intensely interested in the issues of this campaign. Mrs. Faye Smith-Knapp presided and the speakers, Samuel Foster, candidate for lieutenant-governor and Miss Mary Kolb, explained the important issues and backed every one of their statements with proofs. Miss Kolb dwelt on the league of nations, while Mr. Foster discussed state issues.

There is no reason why Indiana should not give a majority to the democrats at the November election. The present state administration has been a costly one to the taxpayer and has failed miserably in administering constructive and good legislation. Two extra sessions of the legislature have been held in the last four years and the last one changed or tried to revise nearly every law that was passed by the regular assembly. They made a terrible muddle of the tax law and the only way that you can get a new one is by voting for a change.

The republican press has been harping about the league of nations for a year or more but as yet we have not noticed a single one publishing the articles or even giving space to interpretations or explanations. They refer to it as if it was something terrible and make all sorts of assertions and untruthful statements. David Lawrence, the political writer who has just returned from the west says, "the writer is firmly convinced that the average man when once told of the truth of the league of nations favors it whole heartedly. The average man in many states however is not being told what the covenant of the league says but what the politicians say it means." One editor laughingly told the writer he never argued in his editorial column about the provisions of the covenant—"We just tell the people it means international bankruptcy, that's all." The republican press is so biased that it will not inform its readers about the true merits of the league. The more the man and women learn of the covenant the more they are determined that they will vote for it. There is no argument against it if it is fairly presented.

The League of Nations has already settled two wars and the merits of this world organization in behalf of mankind are being demonstrated every day. In speaking of the League of Nations at work, Margaret Tobin of Indianapolis, says:

"In considering the League of Nations in relation to ourselves American women are still prone to think of it as still only a theory. They feel that if the world organization were only working and they could see how it worked they could decide so much more readily whether or not it would work toward peaceful and beneficent ends. The League of Nations is a fact and it has already begun to function. It has its headquarters in London, for the time being, and is concerning itself with definite things.

Consider some of its activities. It has just been asked to adjudicate a difference between Sweden and Finland over the Aland islands. It has already registered and made public treaties submitted to it by nations in the league. It is at work upon a plan of disarmament to be submitted to the nations in the league. It is looking into the white slave traffic preparatory to establishing uniform regulations for its suppression. It is working out a system of international passports which will make foreign travel safer and more convenient for the traveler.

Just now its most important work is the great humanitarian task of repatriating war prisoners. There are still nearly a half million of these detained in Germany, Russia, Siberia, and Turkestan. Funds for this work have been contributed to the league by Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Switzerland, and Great Britain. France and Italy have promised to help. The American Red Cross has allotted one million dollars. This is probably about the sum that our government would contribute if we were in the league. A fleet of ships have been chartered to carry the war prisoners back to their own shores. Sixty thousand men have already been returned to their homes and it is expected from now on twenty thousand will be repatriated weekly.

So we see that league about its humane business. It is correcting the injustice brought about by the war, remedying international abuses, arranging for freer international intercourse, and already looking forward to disarmament, the great reform that statesmen have always agreed would rid the world of war."

ASKS RE-ELECTION

Terre Haute, Oct. 8.—Ed. Stewart, president of District II, United Mine Workers of America will be a candidate for reelection which will be held in November.

Stewart will be opposed by William Schmidt of West Terre Haute and John Hessler, who also is a candidate for United States senator on the farm-labor ticket.

William R. Rainey, vice president, will not be in the race this year. He has been vice president for the past five years.

Aobert Leigh, a board member for the past seven years and business agent for eight years will not seek reelection. Leigh intends to return to work in a mine near here.

Ish Barnes, who at present is an extra member of the board probably will be a candidate in Rainey's stead.

R. S. Bass of Winslow, Ind., and Elmer Whitman of Princeton also have announced they would be candidates for Rainey's place on the board.

Senreco
The double-service tooth paste, keeps teeth clean AND GUMS HEALTHY.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste—

Orders for Use of Electricity

M. J. Mylott has been requested to publish the following orders and to insist that the people of this community co-operate in securing their enforcement:

(1). The rules and regulations of the National Electrical Code (current edition) and hereby adopted by this department as the standard for electrical construction and maintenance.

This department also requires that the following rules be complied with, effective October 1st, 1920:

(2). Service wires located inside of buildings or where attached to same, except in Power Stations and Sub-stations, must be installed in continuous lengths of rigid metal conduit and be equipped with the proper fittings.

(3). All knife switches, except on approval switch boards and panel boards, must be approved safety enclosed type, designed to be operated from the outside of the enclosure, and can be locked in the open position.

(4). Safety enclosed switches must be so marked as to indicate, without opening the enclosure, whether switches are closed or open.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER
"BEST BY TEST"

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Cake Recipe
—3 cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, ½ cup butter, 1¼ cups granulated sugar, Yolks of 3 eggs, ¾ cup cold water, Whites of 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon orange extract. Then mix in the regular way.
