Easy Way To Ward Off Cold

It's better to take a few pleasant little tablets and ward off a cold than to pay big doctor bills and lie in bed for days or weeks with pneumonia.

Heekin's PURE BAKING POWDER

Mother, where are you? The league of nations stands as a protector for your son, against war and for peace forever.

Union township must pay $1,620.60 more in state taxes next year than they did last. You get nothing in return. That's how the new tax law works.

It has been suggested that the $100 republican signs over the country be changed to read "Warren Wiggle and Calvin Wobble." It would be appropriate.

The boys are up on their toes in this county and are out for an old fashioned majority. They have the candidates, the platform and the right position. They are going over the top.

Judge Meck is supporting Jimmy Cox. He knows him and his ability for he has lived in Ohio during all the time the governor has been in office. He argues in a most forcible manner. You should hear him.

Republican orators are not bragging about the administration of Gov. Goodrich because of the unpopularity of some of the legislation he caused to be enacted—chiefly the new tax law.—Chicago Tribune. (Rep.)

The republican national committee after a ten day quarrel decided that Rochester is the eastern "dead line" for Senator Harding. Beyond that he must not appear east. Imagine such a condition in a political party that the candidate for president is not permitted to speak in the greatest metropolis in the nation. There is surely something seriously wrong.

The new tax law is costing Adams county about $65,000 for state purposes alone. There are ninety-two counties in the state and many of them much larger than this. Think of the vast sum of money that is drawn into Indianapolis.

The Chicago Tribune places Indiana in the doubtful column. It was two weeks ago but now it looks very much as though Jimmy Cox will sweep the state, that Tom Taggart will be elected senator and Carl McCulloch and the entire ticket elected.

Just remember that the league of nations is an effort to make universal world peace forever. Wouldn't it be a safe feeling mothers and fathers? If you see it right we are fighting this year for the greatest cause ever known in this country.

The democratic meetings now being held in the school houses over this county show that great interest is being manifested. From forty to a hundred people attend each speaking event and they are seeing that the position of the democratic party in his campaign is right.

The contest between Jim Watson and Tom Taggart for the senatorship is a "hoss race." It is a foregone conclusion that Watson will run considerably behind Harding, and it would surprise no one if Taggart should run ahead of Cox.—Chicago Tribune (Rep.)

The feeling that Harding is an unsafe man for president is growing rapidly these days. A man who changes his mind on the most important issues ever discussed in a political campaign is likely to do the same thing in the great problems that will arise during the next four years. Cox is safe and steady and strong.

Take the table printed in the Daily Democrat yesterday and notice how much more money your township or corporation will send to the state next year under the Goodrich-McCray law than you did under the old law last year. Not a single salary of state officials has been increased. Where is the money going?

The state highway commission has cost you a lot of money this year. They have built six miles of road and no one knows what the cost is. The contract is thousands of dollars higher than any county pays and the overhead added with the big organization of employees maintained, makes it a most expensive proposition. Think it over men and women.

Adams county must send more than $100,000 to the state next year. Think of it. Think of what that means for the state with ninety-two counties and then vote for McCulloch and the democratic ticket. McCray has endorsed the Goodrich administration. That's enough. But you must add also every dollar of the automobile tax which means—$30,000 or more, a total of $130,000.

Carl Joslyn of Cambridge, Mass., who was awarded the $5,000 prize by the republican national committee, for the best platform submitted, in competition, has announced that he cannot support Harding. He says he has hoped the senator would land on a position that he could favor but he has made up his mind—he can't, so he's off of him. Thousands are doing it. They cannot support Borah, who said he would not follow Jesus Christ on a league of nations.

Mayor Bosse of Evansville, democratic state chairman and one of the leading business men of the state was a visitor here this morning. He has been with the Cox train and came down from Fort Wayne to see the best county in the state, which he has heard of all his life he says. He met many people here, leaving for his home this afternoon. He is a successful man of big affairs and has made his way by his own ability from a poor lad to a leader in church, community, political and business.

The most convincing argument that the new tax law is a failure is the fact that you as a tax payer must dig up many dollars for your share and get nothing in return. If you build a school house or a bridge or a road in your township, you at least have something in return for what you have spent, but what do you get for the big sum we must send to Indianapolis, far greater than ever before? It is no argument that everything costs more for the state officials have not been in on the salary increase. It's important that you think about your own best interests right now.

We could not estimate the immense crowd that saw and heard Jimmy Cox, ideal candidate for president of all the people at Fort Wayne last night. It was beyond the greatest expectations of the campaign managers there, it was so large that only a fighter could get within hearing distance. The Temple theater was packed at six o'clock, two hours before the candidate spoke, the streets were lined with people and the space around the southeast corner of the court house was jammed for a block. The candidate explained his position clearly and answered every question fairly and honestly. It was a wonderful occasion and will increase the tide to the democratic ticket now prevalent.

Coal Problem May Go to Court

is being diverted to other states so as to escape the provisions of the commissions' order.

A certain group of mine owners headed by Phil H. Penna, secretary of the state and national organizations of bituminous operators, have declared repeatedly they have no coal for sale in this state. Some retailers are refusing to handle coal because they are dissatisfied with the $2.25 marginal profit allowed them for each ton. And the jobbers are not bringing foreign coal into the state because they are not so restricted in adjoining states.

With these facts clearly defined in the face of predictions of cold weather soon, the coal men were awaiting a move by the state body such as to seize Indiana mined coal and throw it on the market or some other drastic action to accomplish its purpose, which will throw the case into court.

Appeals for coal are being received by operators from cities throughout the state. According to the Indianapolis producer, retailers from Elkhart, South Bend, Hope, Berne, Columbus, Salem, Delphi, Peru and other cities and towns have gone to the operators asking for a supply of coal.

Attorneys for the Indiana retail coal merchants' association at a hearing before the commission yesterday trying to boost the $2.25 marginal profit, threatened to carry their fight into the courts.
