"A dollar a bushel for wheat is enough for any farmer."—Harding.

Mrs. Fuller of Pittsburgh, who speaks at the court house Thursday night is one of the able women of the nation. Hear her.

The straw votes show the trend towards Cox everywhere and the lead taken by Harding early, is rapidly being overcome. Two weeks yet. Make 'em count.

The democrats of Adams county present to you a clean ticket of capable men who will serve you well and who will prove efficient. Vote for them.

It has been suggested that Senator Harding make a speech from his front porch at Marion to the "absent voters," nobody permitted but absentees.

If you want your taxes to be so high that you can't pay them, keep on voting the republican ticket in Indiana. It will meet your expectations along that line and then some.

Senator Harding may make some votes in Ohio by discussing racial equality but he certainly "spilled the beans" when he discussed that serious problem in Tennessee and Kentucky.

When one thinks of the administration in Indiana the past four years he smiles when he hears some politician argue that only republicans are efficient and capable. They have one quality and plenty of it—nerve.

McCray is not a farmer. Did you ever know a genuine farmer who made millions out of a farm? He is a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, where prices are manipulated and fortunes made.

Laboring men, you owe it to yourself and to the political party which stands for a square deal for you as well as for the farmer and the business man and the capitalist, to vote for Cox.

McAdoo is speaking to the greatest crowds of any political speaker in the country and his tour through the west will assure the vote of many states in that section for the democratic candidates.

Remember the promises made by Governor Goodrich four years ago and how he broke them and then vote for

LACK OF CONFIDENCE

In the republican presidential primaries Senator Harding received only 85 votes in Adams county. It showed a lack of confidence in him.

This same weak, wobbly man is now the candidate for president, nominated in that controlled convention by a clique of senators and politicians.

Surely you are not going to vote for a man who received only 85 votes.

the democrats who have always represented the people and will continue to do so. It's your party.

The republicans tell the laborers they are getting too much money. They say a dollar wheat is enough for the farmers. How can anybody vote for them when they are voting against their own interests.

If the democrats of Adams county continue to work in the next two weeks as they have the past for night, there is no doubt as to the results. It will be a victory that even one will feel good about, except those who have posted foolish bets.

The Chicago Tribune, leading republican paper of the west, has come out squarely for J. Hamilton Lewis, democratic candidate for governor. The quarrel in Chicago between the Thompson and anti-Thompson forces threatens to turn the entire state over to the democratic columns this year. Let 'em fight.

The republicans kept your taxes down this year but the new law will show its teeth next year. They figure you won't look that up until after election. Remember you vote Tuesday after the last Monday to pay your taxes this year. Vote for McCulloch.

Taxes have always been a political issue and always will. If you don't watch it, they will eat you up. Under the new law your taxes will continue to soar for it was carefully thought out that more money could be taken for state purposes. The idea is wrong. That's the trouble. Kill it.

If it takes as hard work to get a crowd as the republicans use here today with the special, it is a circus and not a political campaign. The democratic speakers have had good crowds all over the county by simply announcing that qualified men and women would discuss the issues on the day.

The misrepresentation of Governor Cox's opinion of the traveling salesmen was shown up by the candidate in his speech at Cleveland Saturday night. This is a sample of the methods being used by the republicans. If they can't be square in a campaign, will they be honest with you when in office?

The fake propaganda being sent out by the republican national committee should turn every vote against them. When they have nothing but the appeal to your prejudices when they attempt to divide the country into classes, when they fail to discuss in a fair and open manner, the great issues of the hour, they prove unfit to secure control.

And now it is announced that the real boss in Indiana this year is Governor Goodrich. They are not using him for public speeches because his unpopularity in his own political party are too well known, but he is called into each conference and it is claimed he has his way in about every plan. He is trying to save his tax law.

Two weeks in which to finish the most important campaign ever fought in this country. Harding, the front porch wobbler has proved his unfitness for the high office he seeks. The people will refuse to turn the country over to a bunch of a half dozen millionaires, led by Dupont, the powder king. Cox is a fearless and honest fighter for the rights of the people and he will sweep the country.

One hundred independent progressives and republicans came out yesterday for Governor Cox. They will vote for him because they believe he stands for the best things for this nation. In the list will be found the names of many of the leading thinkers of the country. The tide to Cox's swinging hard and two weeks will put him over. The efforts of the republicans to stampede the country and win on a "fluke" have failed.

Kirkland township must send $1,900.82 more to the state next year than you did last. You get nothing in return. Your money is being used extravagantly and needlessly. McCulloch, candidate for governor on the democratic ticket, promises to change the law and he means it. If you elect him and a democratic legislature, the law will be changed and to your interests and not for the benefit of a few individuals.

Ora Davies, short in his accounts at Kokomo, is the republican candidate for state treasurer. They tried to get him in but Jim Watson would not let them. Yet the republican committee has the nerve to try to move to you that Jim is a great man for the senatorship. Jim voted with the reactionaries every time he had a chance. He manipulated the conventions of 1912 and 1920 at Chicago. He is opposed to your interests and the most dangerous man in Indiana, politically.

We will wake up some of these mornings to the fact that few people have a coal supply and then some one is going to get mad, but that won't prevent a lot of suffering. If the Indiana Coal Commission authorized by recent special session of the legislature is going to bring relief to the people of Indiana, they should act today and not a month from now. What the people want first is a supply of coal. Then you can settle any difficulties or controversies you may have with the operators, miners or others interested.

Citizens of Adams county your taxes will be higher next year than you ever dreamed of. Much of this money goes to the state and is wasted. You don't get a penny back in any way. They have even taken the automobile tax. Besides this the high valuation on your property makes possible a vast expenditure of money because the limit of indebtedness was not changed and in dollars and cents you will be forced to pay more than you ever did and more than you should. A vote for McCulloch this year means a vote against high taxes. He has given you his pledge to secure a new law. A vote for McCray means your approval of the law. Take no chances.

The regular meeting of the "500" club will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed. Coffee.

The Mary Martha class of the M. E. Sunday school will meet with Mrs. E. Zimmerman on North Second street Tuesday evening, October 19th. Every member is urged to be present.

The efforts of the republican national committee, assisted by local workers, appealing to the prejudices of the people is proof that they do not dare come out and discuss the issues. The people will vote this year on the league issue nationally and the tax law in the state but the republicans are sending out propaganda to the wet and the dry, to the people of every foreign descent, to the lodges, to farmers, to laborers, to colored men and to the traveling men. They have
