TO HOLD BOX SOCIAL

A box social will be held at the Moon Eye, two miles west of Pleasant Mills, Wednesday evening, October 27th. Everybody invited. Fill the boxes up and come. Theban Dushane, teacher.

The "Greatest Mother" concept which was visualized in the famous art poster used by the American Red Cross in its second war fund campaign has had its symbolism adapted to the Red Cross work of the post-war era and will illuminate the main poster to be used in the Fourth Roll Call November 11-25. This adaptation will bear the title "Still the Greatest Mother in the World." Everyone is familiar with the original "The Greatest Mother in the World," the effectiveness of which has been shown in part by the fact that it has furnished a synonym for Red Cross that has come to almost a household term. More than any other symbol, except the red cross itself, the public has made it the trademark of the American Red Cross.

Mother's Cook Book

Unnumerable men and women have seen the kettle boil, but it occurred to only one, that the force which lifted the lid might be confined and made to do human service. The man finds or makes his opportunities and in turn they help him.—Spaulding.

SELECTED GOOD THINGS.

When there is a little popped corn left try this wholesome dessert:

Popped Corn Pudding.

Scald three cupfuls of milk and pour over two cupfuls of popped corn which has been pounded until fine and let stand one hour. Add three eggs slightly beaten, one-half cupful of brown sugar, one tablespoonful of butter, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt and stir until well mixed. Turn into a well buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven thirty-five minutes. Serve hot with thin cream or maple syrup.

Peach Whip.

Beat the whites of three eggs until stiff, add three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and beat to a glossy meringue. Peel half a dozen peaches and press through a sieve; gradually add this pulp to the meringue, beating all the time and sprinkling in one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Heap in tall glasses and serve at once.

Crisps.

Cream one cupful of butter, add gradually two cupfuls of sugar, three eggs beaten until light, the grated rind and juice of a lemon and flour to make a mixture to roll. Knead slightly, cut in shapes, brush with white of an egg, sprinkle with coarse granulated sugar and chopped nuts. Bake a light brown.

Velvet Sherbet.

Take the juice of six lemons, and the grated peel of two, soaked in the juice one-half hour. Add one cupful of sugar to each lemon, or sugar to taste; three pints of rich milk and turn into the freezer. The mixture will curdle but the freezing will make it smooth and velvety. Turn the freezer slowly at first.

Chess Cakes.

Put into a mixing bowl, one-half cupful of butter, add the grated rind of two oranges and one-half cupful of powdered sugar, one-half cupful of currants, one well beaten egg, two tablespoonfuls of grated coconut and half a dozen crumbled macaroons; mix the ingredients and pour into small patty tins lined with pastry. Bake fifteen minutes in a hot oven.

Baked Pears.

A delicious way of serving pears is to cut them in halves, core them, place in a baking pan with a generous sprinkling of sugar and half fill the pan with water. Cook slowly two hours in a moderate oven. Serve with sweetened whipped cream.

Cucumber Sauce.

Beat one-half cupful of heavy cream stiff, add a few grains of salt, cayenne to taste, two tablespoonfuls of malt vinegar, one medium sized cucumber grated and drained, season with the juice of an onion. This sauce is especially good to serve with fish.

Cherry Sherbet.

Take one pint can of cherries, drain and cut in small pieces. Add one cupful of water to the juice, cook five minutes and add a tablespoonful of gelatin that has been softened in a cupful of cold water. Add the cherries and four egg whites beaten stiff. Freeze and serve in glasses, garnished with candied cherries.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IN PEACE TIME

There remain in army hospitals throughout the country more than 26,000 soldiers still being treated for wounds received overseas. Red Cross workers give them the same sort of friendly aid—only more of it—that was given during the war. Furthermore, the Red Cross is teaching these lads occupations at which they can later make a living and is keeping in touch with their home folks in order that no dependents may suffer for lack of funds.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IN PEACE TIME

Every person mentally and physically able to do so should take the American Red Cross instruction in First Aid Treatment. It's a life-saver and a pain-saver on the farm, in the factory, on the street, at the office, in the home, wherever accidents may occur. Here's a young wife who ineptly wielded a can-opener and received an ugly gash across her wrist from the jagged can lid. Mother was there, however, with the First Aid kit and Red Cross instruction, and probably prevented a case of blood poisoning by giving prompt and proper treatment before the doctor arrived.

Mesdames Will Bowers and Mrs. Oscar Hoffman delightfully entertained a number of Miss Frances Cole's girl friends at a miscellaneous shower at the Bowers home on Monroe street last evening, honoring Miss Cole who will become the bride of Mr. Paul Saurer of Markle, on November 4. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, smilax and wicker baskets of hydrangeas and snow drops being used in the various rooms in an artistic way. Guests were invited to a six o'clock dinner, which was served at one large and several small tables. The large table being prepared for Miss Cole, her mother and her most intimate friends. The centerpiece of the smaller tables was a small basket of pink roses and snow drops. Place cards were imitations of a bride throwing away bouquets, and the nut baskets imitated small pink roses. The bride's chair was distinguished from the others by a large white tulle bow, and the entire setting was most beautiful. Following the serving of the dinner guests congregated in the dining room where Miss Cole unwrapped and received the many beautiful presents from her friends. In a bride's trossau guessing contest Miss Celia Andrews won first prize, a basket of pink roses, which was presented to the guest of honor. The shower was one of the pleasing social events of the fall season.

Mrs. J. H. Bremerkamp, Mrs. Carrie Ehinger, Mrs. L. H. Kleinhenz and Mrs. Herman Ehinger have issued invitations to a card party which will be held at the Bremerkamp home on Seventh street, October 26.

All members of the Pocahontas lodge are requested to attend the meeting this evening and hear the report of the representatives who have been in attendance at the Great Council of the lodge which has just closed at Indianapolis.

France put on a "elite meet" of Olympic athletes after the games at Antwerp, to show that the French people would patronize the games better than the Belgians. There were larger crowds at Columbus than at Antwerp. The Americans, as usual, won the meet.

TANLAC IS GIVEN A THOROUGH TEST

Evansville Man and Wife Are Now Convinced of Its Unusual Merits

"My wife and I have both put Tanlac to the test and we call it the best medicine in the world," said H. L. Miller, 1616 East Virginia street, Evansville, Ind.

"As for my own case," said Mr. Miller, "Tanlac has helped me out of my case of rheumatism that had followed me for twenty-eight years. At times all my joints and every bone in my body seemed to ache."

"About ten years ago my stomach got out of order. My appetite left me and I had that tired, dizzy feeling nearly all the time. The rheumatism pained me so I got very little sleep, and I was continually losing time from my work. My stomach bothered me so I couldn't half eat and I lost weight and became very weak. I was unable to digest my food and had awful pains in my stomach after meals and headaches nearly all the time."

"My wife was suffering with stomach trouble too. Her kidneys worried her a great deal and she complained of severe pains in the small of her back. She couldn't get much rest at night and most of the time was unable to do her housework."

"In fact, we were having an awful time of it until we got hold of Tanlac. After we had finished the first bottle of Tanlac we knew we were on the right road, for we had begun to feel better."

"I have used the Tanlac rheumatism treatment in connection with Tanlac and now nearly every sign of the rheumatism has left me, and I sleep so sound that I don't even hear the alarm clock ring. My appetite is so big I can hardly get enough to eat now and I am able to put in full time every day at my work. I have gained all my strength back and several pounds in weight besides."

"My wife is also enjoying fine health, as all her troubles have disappeared, and she does all her housework with ease. In fact, we are in as good health as anybody could ask to be."

Tanlac is sold in Decatur at Smith, Yager & Falk's; in Berne at Stengel & Craig's; in Geneva at F. C. Deitsch's and in Monroe at O. O. Hocker's.
