

Upon my soul, the 19th hole
Is quite a different spot,
Now every one drinks Golden
Sun,
Some take it cold, some hot.

Some like it hot—
Some iced—
but everyone likes Golden Sun. Its taste seems to tuck itself into your memory for good things. Try it today and you will say
Golden Sun is good.
And you will always remember to get it fresh from your grocer.

After being closed for three months, shrines has been reopened. A phonograph cabinet has been built during which time a new roof was vented into which small machines were set to masquerade as costlier ones.

Wife Takes Sick

The long fast of her husband was the marvel of those who watched the case. She was at Brixton prison every day apparently always cheerful.

Even at the death of the lord mayor she retained her composure. At the inquest over MacSwiney she was so cool as to disconcert the coroner.

Last night she followed the body of her husband to St. George's cathedral and took part in the simple services that accompanied arrival there.

London, Oct. 28.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Guarded by Sinn Fein soldiers, the body of Terence McSwiney is in state today in St. George's cathedral in Southwark. The casket is banked high with flowers.

The remains of the late lord mayor of Cork who died of starvation in Brixton prison after a hunger strike of twenty-four days, were carried into the cathedral yesterday afternoon, accompanied by a delegation of Sinn Feiners and friends from Ireland.

Until midnight a constant stream of visitors flowed past the casket to gaze through the glass paneled lid at the maculated features of the lord mayor.

When the doors were closed at midnight there still remained large crowds who had been unable to enter.

Police offered no interference either to the parade which escorted the body to the cathedral or to the throng which swarmed about the edifice.

Funeral services today began with mass at 11 a. m., celebrated by Archishop Mannix, with the assistance of three bishops.

At 2 o'clock a procession was to leave the church to traverse several important streets to the Euston station. It was planned the cortège should arrive at the station at 4 o'clock. The body will be taken to Holyhead, tonight, and transferred to a mail boat reaching Dublin early Friday morning.

An advance guard of Sinn Feiners, not in uniform, and a band of Irish pipers will head the procession. Next in line will be MacSwiney's remains in a motor hearse. Next members of the family to be followed by representatives of the Irish parliament, Irish municipal bodies and other organizations, including London Sinn Fein clubs. Mounted police will accompany the procession. Displays of Sinn Fein flag and colors were noted.

MacSwiney will be accorded the honors of a ruler in Ireland. The Irish parliament has proclaimed Friday a day of mourning.

All business except that of newspapers and public utilities will be suspended. Necessary industries were asked to suspend for a few moments at noon in honor of the lord-mayor.

ONCE EVERY WEEK
THAT'S ALL I ASK

It's old fashioned, of course, but the old-fashioned people who believe in herbs are healthier than the wise children of today. If you want happiness first and health—my pure herb medicine will gently regulate the bowels, stimulate the liver, flush the kidneys, sweeten the stomach and enrich the blood. Your health will begin to improve at once. All I ask is that you take it once or twice a week. My Bulgarian Blood Tea is the favorite family medicine in millions of happy homes today. Physicians recommend it, and it is well to remember that Bulgarian Blood Tea takes the steaming out at bed time kills colds. Guard against influenza and pneumonia. Just ask your druggist today. Respectfully,
