BOTH PARTIES PLEASED WITH N. R. SERVICE

New York, Nov. 8.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The United Press today received from the directors of the republican and democratic national committee the following letter:

"Mr. W. W. Hawkins, president the United Press.

"Dear Mr. Hawkins:

"Before closing my desk here at republican headquarters, I wish to express to you my very great appreciation of the Uniformly fair and generous treatment we have had at the hands of the United Press. It has been all and more than that, and the memory of it, on my part, will endure. You have a fine staff, and it was a genuine pleasure to be brought into contact with such men as Mr. Keen, my old friend, and others. They are men after my own newspaper heart.

"Please accept for yourself and extend to your associates my heartiest thanks and good wishes.

"Very sincerely yours,

(signed) "SCOTT C. BONE."

"Director of publicity, republican national committee.

"Mr. W. W. Hawkins: president United Press.

"Dear Mr. Hawkins:

"I cannot leave New York without sending you a personal word of thanks for the fair and impartial manner in which the news of the presidential contest just closed was handled by your organization, to think it only right for me to say that the best traditions of the United Press were lived up to.

"With personal regards and best wishes, I am

"Yours sincerely,

(signed) "W. J. COCHRANE."

"Director of publicity, democratic national committee."

Furbelows for Maids

Many a fair maid will rejoice in such new and smart furbelows of ribbon as are pictured here, when Christmas brings her remembrances. Here is a collar, vestee and girdle with a bag to match that are irresistible. This garniture for the waist is made of striped ribbon—showing the glowing colors in Roman stripes.

The girdle is knotted at the left side and hangs in two pointed ends. The bag is drawn up and suspended by narrow satin ribbon, has a silk ornament, like those on the collar, at the bottom.

NOT WORKING BUT TIRED OUT

When one feels always tired with out working, or suffers from back ache, lumbago, rheumatism pains, sore muscles or stiff joints it is not always easy to locate the source of trouble, but very frequently it can be traced to overworked, weakened or diseased kidneys. Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th & Edison St., La Junta, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for some time. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away."—Sold everywhere.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. E. Smith, on Third street. The ladies of the church are especially urged to attend the meeting Thursday.

A very pleasant surprise was given Sunday evening at the Martin Gerke home in honor of Miss Winifred Jerke's twentieth birth anniversary. Forty guests were present and enjoyed games and music. Prizes at games were won by Miss Clara and Carl Fuelling. A luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, cake and ice cream was served.

Regular meeting of the Rebekah Lodge at the Odd Fellows hall this evening. All members are urged to be present as there is important business to be acted upon.

Mrs. Nettie Roop will be hostess to the United Brethren Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon at her home on North Eleventh street. The ladies of the church are urged to attend.

Class No. 6 of the United Brethren Sunday school will meet Friday evening with Mrs. Ben Hoagland at her home on North Eighth street. The regular business meeting and social time will be enjoyed, and it is expected that every member will be present.

Several of the neighbors and friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robenold Sunday, and cleverly surprised Mrs. Robenold, and reminded her of her birth anniversary. The anniversaries of Mrs. Dan Weldy and Mrs. Hiberd High were also celebrated at the same time. Guests came with well-filled baskets of eatables and several freezers of ice cream. A most delightful time was spent. Those present were Mrs. Emma Crumb, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crumb, Mr. and Mrs. Hiberd High and son, Richard; Mrs. Melissa Robenold, Mr. and Mrs. Will Pennington, Messrs. W. F. Robenold, F. E. Robenold and Walter Crumb, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weldy.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. W. E. Smith Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Research club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. F. E. France on Mercer avenue and a most delightful and interesting meeting was held. Mrs. Henry Heller had the paper, her subject being, "History of Quakerism." Mrs. Jane Crabbs was an invited guest and Mrs. France served a delicious lunch. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. Horace Callow on Fourth street and Mrs. F. E. France will have the paper on the "Content."

AN ENEMY TO GOOD HEALTH

Good health has no greater enemy than constipation. You cannot "keep fit" for work or play if the bowels are irregular or clogged with a decomposed mass of undigested food from which the blood picks up disease-causing impurities and carries them throughout the entire system. Foley Cathartic Tablets are mild but sure in action. They banish biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach and other ills caused by indigestion. Take one tonight and you will feel better in the morning.—Sold everywhere.

Final Landing of the Pilgrims.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tague, living west of Monroe, were surprised Sunday when a number of their relatives came with well-filled baskets, for an old-time family visit. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clem Pittman, Mrs. G. R. Douglas and daughter, Ruth; Miss Wilda Wilson of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Raudenbush and children, Roman, Roger, Ruth and Romaine and George Raudenbush of Decatur.

ANOTHER EFFORT

Logansport, Nov. 8.—Another bill will be introduced in the Indiana legislature asking that legislation create a board to examine chiropractors, it was announced at the opening of their annual convention here today.

"A bill will be drafted and introduced at the coming session of the legislature asking that a law be passed creating a board of examiners of chiropractors," said Frank Wright, president of the Indiana Chiropractors association.

About five members were present when the gavel signalled the opening of the convention.

The day was spent in looking over the city. The business session will be held tomorrow.

CARD OF THANKS
