

THERE is a big difference between Calumet and all other Baking Powders.

First—you see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakings. They look better—finer grained.

"S-o-m-e Biscuit!"

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Finally—what a difference in the taste. There is a deliciousness, a goodness that can be had in no other manner. Biscuits, pies, cakes, muffins, doughnuts—never were so tasty—so all satisfying.

And then there is the satisfaction of knowing that Calumet is made in the World's largest, best equipped and cleanest Baking Powder Factories.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Biscuit

Recipe

4 cups of sifted pastry flour, 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 level teaspoon of salt, 2 rounding tablespoons of butter or lard, 1/2 cup of milk, 3/4 cup of water. Then mix in the regular way.

The Home Guards of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Miss Martha Schmidt, of North Third street. All members are requested to be present.

Members of the Phoebe Bible class of the Reformed church will give a two-cent supper Saturday evening at the K. of P. home. An excellent menu has been prepared and the public is assured the very best kind of a supper. The hours are from 5 to 7, and you had better prepare to get in line at 5 o'clock.

The members of the Birthday Dinner club will have their usual dinner and social time this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kirsch will be hostess and hostess at the Harry Heim home on Third street.

At the regular meeting of the members of the Helping Hand society of the Reformed church Thursday afternoon, a special surprise was arranged for Mrs. L. W. Stolte, who soon leaves with her husband for their new home at Dayton, Ohio. The usual work of the society occupied the hours during the afternoon, during which time ten comforters were made. At supper time the ladies spread an elaborate picnic dinner, and invited the Rev. Mr. Stolte to join them. The surprise for Mrs. Stolte was complete, and the ladies presented her with a fine electric toaster. Mrs. Stolte has been an active worker in the society during her residence in Decatur and she will be greatly missed. Mrs. Ben Elzey, president of the society, arranged the surprise.

The Ever-Ready class of the Methodist church, with their husbands, motored to the Zach Archbold home, south of the city last evening where they were royally entertained at a taffy-pulling. Sixty-two were present, including the Rev. and Mrs. Tinkham. The evening was spent in games and social conversation, and those fortunate enough to be in the party declare they "had the best time ever."

All children of the Missionary Band of the Reformed church are requested to meet at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All children are requested to be present.

Frank Moser, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Moser who reside on the Adam Pease farm in Washington township, was the victim of a clever surprise Wednesday evening in honor of his twenty-first birthday. The evening was most pleasantly spent in games and music. Pop corn and candy were served. The following guests enjoyed the event: Albert Walche, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Fox, Melvin Beer, Dallas Reppert, Bertha Feller, Mary Bowman, Emma Dick, Leona Beer, Mr. and Mrs. Moser.

Other plans and subjects were discussed and a motion was made to postpone next week's meeting on account of Thanksgiving.
