

Christmas Worries Ended

There's a lot of joy in buying Christmas presents, especially when you buy something that will be a constant delight to the one that receives it. Take Slippers for instance. You need not worry about getting the right size, or the right color, we'll exchange after Christmas. Look at the comfort you are going to give some one, the joy of wearing a Cushion Comfort Slipper.

DROP IN HERE TODAY.

ABOUT TOWN

Fordyce, chairman of the Decatur United charities, It's the best way to serve.

The five men who came here the other day and looked about for liquor violators were federal officers, it has been learned. They came from Fort Wayne and were accompanied by Chief Abbot of the police force of that city. No arrests were made.

R. C. Parrish, Fort Wayne attorney, attended to business here today. He reports his son, David, who is ill with diphtheria, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Robert H. Peterson of Indianapolis arrived last evening for a holiday visit with the J. S. Peterson family. "Bob", who is employed in the advertising department of the Indianapolis Star will arrive next Friday for over Christmas.

Fine home-made candies in any variety and quantity may be secured Saturday afternoon at the sale to be conducted by section one of the United Brethren Ladies' Aid society at the Meyer, Brushwiller & Beel butcher shop.

Section number one of the U. B. Aid society will have fine home-made candies on sale Saturday afternoon at the Meyer, Brushwiller & Beel meat market. You can buy the best home-made candies, and in any amount.

The Misses Katherine Wyatt and Louise Bliss of Rushville, Ind., will be guests of Miss Fanny Heller during the holiday vacation.

There are only six more shopping days until Christmas. Don't wait too long. There are still many beautiful Christmas gifts and you will do well by making up your list and getting busy at once.

If you have old clothes, food or money to give to the poor, notify Cal E. Peterson, secretary, or Col. S. B.
