ABOUT TOWN

Dr. C. R. Weaver and family leave tomorrow for Chicago where the doctor will take some special work for six months. He has not decided where he will locate after that time. During their residence here the Weavers have made many warm friends. They are most excellent people and we regret that they are leaving Decatur.

The new Bake-Rite System bakery will open tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and during the day free doughnuts will be given to those who call. Luther Hower is manager of the system. Read their announcement in today's paper.

The Daily Democrat will go to press Friday as near noon as possible and there will be no paper on Saturday. This is done to take advantage of the Christmas holiday in making some repairs to the foundation of the Goss Comet press, requiring considerable time to permit the concrete to "set." Advertisements for Friday's paper must be in by Thursday. If you wish a Christmas card be sure to get the copy in early.

The Decatur schools will close Thursday for the Christmas holidays, giving the youngsters an extra day to do their Christmas shopping and the teachers a chance to get home.

J. Dwight Peterson of Indianapolis was the guest of his parents over Sunday.

The remains of the late Lewis W. C. Johnson, who was killed Friday by a falling tree while cutting timber in a woods near Decatur, was taken to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Malda Swank, West Second street. Mr. Johnson was a son of Uriah and James Johnson and was born in Greene township, October 6, 1889. He is survived by his wife, Montana (Swank) Johnson, two small children, Stella and Cecil, two brothers, James and Ott Johnson, Mrs. Clyde Pensinger, Mrs. William Adams, and Mrs. Homer Gilliam. Funeral services will be conducted from the United Brethren church Monday afternoon at 2:30, in charge of the Rev. J. H. Hall. The American Legion of this city will attend in a body. Interment will be made at the Green Park cemetery. — Portland Commercial-Review.

Miss Elmo Goontz of Muncie and Miss Sue Welty, of Bluffton spent the week-end in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vail.

Miss Ida Fuhrman has returned home after spending the past year and a half in Montana. She spent the summers at Yellowstone National park and the winter in Livingston. On her way home she visited with relatives at Oregon, Missouri.

Adams Buettel spent Sunday in Toledo, Ohio, with his brother, Carl Buettel, who has been seriously ill for the past four months. Carl Buettel is the father of the Rev. Charles Buettel, and each is well known in this city and county, especially in and around Geneva, where the family formerly lived.

Robert Krick spent the week-end in Berne with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred King will enjoy Christmas with relatives at Celina, Ohio.

Fred Falk of Jonesboro, Ark., who arrived in the city Saturday afternoon for a short visit with relatives, left this morning for St. Mary's, Ohio, and from there will go to Muncie where he will look after business and visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Holthouse. He will return home for Christmas.

Local grocery and meat markets are requested to get their ad copy in this office by Tuesday evening in order to run in the Christmas Basket page on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. X. Ehinger and son, Father Vincent, went to Urbana, Ohio, this morning, for a two days' visit with Thomas Ehinger and family. They will return tomorrow evening.

Guy Dorwin of Fort Wayne was called on old friends here Saturday night.

Miss Tyner visited her relatives at Huntington over the week-end, returning to her school work Sunday evening.

Rolla Calderwood of Blue Creek township was looking after business and extending Christmas greetings to his many friends here today.

The college students are returning now for the Christmas vacation and there will be many happy reunions during the week.

Send in your Christmas events. A few moments time on your part will give us the story and we want it.

Don't somethin' for others don't allus pay. Look where th' democratic party is. "I'm again raisin' th' railroad fare any higher. It's all you kin do t' find a seat as it is," said Late Bud, t'day.—Abe Martin in Indianapolis News.

Entered apprentice degree will be conferred Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. R. D. MYERS, W. M.

THE SIMPLE WAY

What shall we have for the Christmas dinner? That's the question asked by mother and the good housewife who is preparing for the annual family reunion on Christmas Day. The answer is simple, read the grocery and meat market "ads" in the Daily Democrat. Christmas falling on Saturday, will eliminate the regular weekly Market Basket page on Friday. Every housewife appreciates this page of helpful shopping hints and bargains, so the Daily Democrat will arrange to run a Christmas Basket page on Wednesday evening. Local grocers and meat markets are requested to get their copy into this office by Tuesday evening. By running the page Wednesday it will give every person ample time to take advantage of the bargains. Get your ad in the Christmas Basket page. Your customers will be looking for it.
