FOR THE FARMERS

Items of Interest to the Farmers of Adams County.

(By the County Agent)

The Farmers' Short Course will be held at Purdue University January 13-14, 1921. At the same time will be held the State Corn Show, the Purdue Apple Show and the Boys' and Girls' Potato Show and other exhibits. The schedule of state associations which will hold their meeting during the weeks as follows:

Indiana Corn Growers' Association, Wednesday, January 12.

Indiana Vegetable Growers' Association, January 12.

Indiana State Dairy Association, January 13.

Indiana Home Economics Association, Thursday, January 13.

Indiana Livestock Breeders' Association, January 13.

Indiana Hereford Breeders' Association, January 13.

Indiana Shorthorn Breeders' Association, January 13.

Indiana Angus Breeders' Association, January 13.

Indiana Holstein-Friesian Association, January 14.

Indiana Guernsey Cattle Club, January 14.

Indiana Jersey Cattle Club, January 14.

Indiana Ayrshire Breeders' Association, January 14.

A large number of the strongest workers of the United States will be brought to Purdue for the Farmers' Short Course and it is an opportunity for Indiana people to get information on the important and pressing problems of the time. Farmers and their wives are urged to attend the Short Course and take part in this worth while program. County agents, home demonstration agents and club leaders should plan for this week and organize a party of their people, and bring them to Purdue so that all the counties in Indiana may be well represented. A full program of the short course will be sent upon request to the Dean of the School of Agriculture, Purdue University, LaFayette, Indiana.

Statistics show that as cold weather approaches and work grows scarcer, the army recruiting stations do more business.

(United Press Service) Muncie, Ind., Dec. 21.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Fines of $250 each were imposed on the six members of the Delaware county grand jury by Judge William A. Thompson in circuit court late today after the court had read a lengthy statement denying the charges made against him by the grand jury in its final report of the term which was returned in open court Saturday. No jail sentence was imposed by the court. The jurors had prepared to appeal to the supreme court, it was understood.

Three Link Club—At the Hall. Dutiful Daughters' Sunday School Class—Miss Florence Fisher.

The Research club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Tinkham.

The home was beautifully decorated in the Christmas decorations, and the Yuletide spirit was manifest throughout the meeting. Mrs. Hooper had the paper, her subject being, "The Mothers of Men." During the social hour that followed the Haubold children sang a Christmas song, which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Tinkham asked the assembly to the dining room, and announced that the Christmas pie was ready. This Christmas pie was the gift exchange of the club members, and each secured a "piece" of the pie in the form of a gift. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable the club has yet held.

MUST HELP EMPLOYEES

(United Press Service) Topeka, Kansas, Dec. 21.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Flour mills in Kansas which have curtailed productions must take care of faithful and skilled men during the period of industrial depression so that these employees may provide a living for their families, the Kansas court of the industrial relations ruled in an open discussion today.

The court held that the flour mills which have curtailed productions, were not operating on such a small scale as to effect the public.

The court held the mills had the right to curtail productions because of market conditions over which they have no control. However, faithful employees must be taken care of, the court decided.

Woman's Club Had Good Time

(Continued from page one) praise of Miss Irene Stolofsky, the feature artist of this company. Her associates, the talented MacGregors, have met with no less favor in their respective fields of entertainment, so that the Redpath Bureau heartily commends and guarantees the organization in its entirety.

Following the debut of Miss Stolofsky in her home city, Chicago, The Tribune commented enthusiastically upon her dexterity, intelligence and marked talent with the violin. Music News called special attention to her careful preparation for the concert stage, as well as to a sincere and unaffected manner which contributes so largely to her pleasing platform presence.

One of Miss Stolofsky's most successful seasons with the Redpath Bureau was during her tour as directress and violinist with the Kryl Orchestral Sextet.

The proceeds from these entertainments will be added to the piano fund.

STATE CLINICIAN

And Medical Consultation Staff to be Established to Fight Tuberculosis

ADVICE TO BE GIVEN
To Persons Suffering in Early Stages, and Cure Can be Easily Effectuated

December 17.—"Ninety per cent. of tuberculosis cases can be saved if they are found in time."

This is the slogan that is to guide the Indiana Tuberculosis association in its work for 1920, according to an announcement today by G. C. Johnson, of Evansville, president of the association, and Secretary Murray A. Auerbach. The association plans to attack the program of finding the cases before they are so far advanced as to be hopeless. To carry out these plans, and establish a system of finding these cases the association is bending every effort toward making as annual Christmas seal sale a success. Sales of the penny seals are expected to supply the funds with which the extended campaign may be conducted.

"One reason for the continued high death rate from tuberculosis in Indiana," said Mr. Auerbach, "is the fact that we have not succeeded in finding the cases in time to check them. Tuberculosis in the early stages can be cured."

"We are therefore planning to establish a new program, which will include a consultation staff, composed of nurses, a state clinician, and a medical and specialists. Their duties will be the establishment and promotion of clinics. Their duties will be the establishment and promotion of clinics, where all persons affected by tuberculosis, and persons who for they have symptoms, may be examined. At these clinics, advice will be given to persons suffering from the disease as to the treatment they should have."

"The clinician will work with the county organizations to help them establish clinics, and the medical consultation staff, where members will live in various parts of the state, will hold themselves in readiness to advise the several counties and assist in the establishment and operation of clinics. By these means, reenforced with visiting nurses and the county tuberculosis hospital, where they have been established, we hope to make a distinct reduction in the tuberculosis death rate. Ninety per cent. of the cases may be saved if they are found in time."

It is up to the people of Indiana, however, to help us set this new and essential program in operation. If the Christmas seal sale is successful, we can undertake the new work. It is to be hoped the people of the state will continue their purchase of the penny seals, in the interest of their own health."
