Wednesday
Eastern Star—Masonic Hall.
Thursday
Eastern Star—Masonic Hall.

The Eastern Star lodge will hold a special meeting next Wednesday evening for the purpose of initiation. All members are requested to attend the meeting.

Miss Edith Miller was host to the members of the Le-Nick club at her home on Marshall street last evening, the usual exchange of Christmas presents being made at this time. Five hundred was played, Miss Naomi Gass taking the first prize and Miss Marie Gass second. Mrs. Ernest Bailey of Fort Wayne, a former member of the club, captured the guest prize. Other guests besides Mrs. Bailey were Agnes and Tena Conter and Mrs. Will O'Brien. Santa Claus made his appearance during the evening, and Miss Miller served a delicious two-course luncheon. Mrs. Daniel Falk will entertain the club members in two weeks.

ocrat, writing copy and looking after the sales for local merchants, we believe the Daily Democrat has a combination of advertising service, national and local, unequalled in any small town daily paper in the Central West.

It pays to advertise.

Mrs. Martin Jaberg was brought to her home today from the Lutheran hospital, Fort Wayne, where she had been a patient the past four weeks. She stood the trip well, although she is quite weak.

Miss Ireta Erwin is home from Valparaiso for the Christmas vacation. Miss Doris Erwin is also home from Chicago, bringing with her a classmate, Miss Mildred Peterson, whose home is in Seattle, Wash. Miss Peterson's family formerly lived in Alaska.

Bryce Thomas is home from Pinedale for the Christmas season.

A box of "WHITE STAG" cigars are just the thing for the men to top off their Christmas dinner. Don't forget to get your box of 'em. 299-5t

HOW HE ENDED KIDNEY TROUBLE

"I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and for three weeks could not get out of doors and scarcely out of bed," writes C. E. Brewer, Village Springs, Ala. "Could not bend over at all without the most excruciating pains. I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills. Was relieved after first few doses and continued their use until completely cured. I consider Foley Kidney Pills the best kidney remedy in the world. No recurrence of my trouble."—Sold everywhere.
