Public Sale of Spotted Poland Brood Sows

50 HEAD
At Moon & Kyle Feed Barn, BLUFFTON, IND.

Monday, January 3, 1921.

I will sell to the farmers at the Moon & Kyle barn, fifty sows, bred or March and April litters. This sale is making for the farmer who does not want to pay three prices for sows, am not going to any expense at all that will make it so I can sell them practically at market price. I want them to stay in Wells and Adams counties. I ask you to come to this sale and buy yourself a sow bred to such sows as Joe M., Chief Wonder, Young Gertsdale and Old Mark Anthony. When you own one of these sows, when these sows have out what the breeders are buying, every sow is absolutely guaranteed to be a brood sow. Every sow is double immunized from cholera. Now boys, I will be glad to see you at my brood sow sale, whether you buy or not. I want your presence here. I'll make it the best visit you ever had at a sale. It will be warm in the sale barn while we are selling sows. Come on—and show yourself at this sale.

TERMS—Cash, or 3 or 6 months with approved security.

Col. J. J. Baumgartner, 29-30
