Club Calendar

Friday.
Woman's Home Missionary Society of M. E. Church—Mrs. John Vail. W. R. C.—G. A. R. Hall.

Saturday.
Evangelical Ladies' Pastry Sale—Schmitt Meat Market.

The Mary and Martha Sunday school class of the Methodist church held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. John T. Myers. The social hour was very much enjoyed by the large number of ladies present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Fred V. Mills, president; Mrs. W. A. Fomer, secretary; Mrs. Lydia Elzey, treasurer.

Six new members were added, and the class pledged sixty dollars for the relief of one Armenian child. Mrs. John H. Carmody is visiting friends in Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Ever Ready Sunday school class of the Methodist church provided a merry evening for the class and the husbands of the members last evening at the church. Ten ladies, Mrs. H. A. Hollopeter, Mrs. Guy Brown, Mrs. B. F. Farrar, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. W. E. Beery, Mrs. Harry Magner, Mrs. Forest Elzey, Mrs. Ben Devor, Mrs. Riley Chrisman and Mrs. Hugh Thomas Vail, acted as hostesses, and they provided an evening of continuous pleasure. Ninety-five men and women participated in the festivities, and the program carried out was quite clever. Miss Faye Stults organized the crowd into four high school classes and conducted a contest, in which the freshmen and juniors came out winners. The classes were led through yells that would equal those of any college youngsters, and in classes and athletics they are said to have been exceedingly good, but the freshmen and juniors proved winners. Following the social hour a luncheon was provided, the menu consisting of pressed chicken, scalloped potatoes, pocket-book rolls, Jello, cranberries, pickles and coffee.

The Royal Neighbors Camp had a most interesting meeting Thursday evening at the hall at which time the newly elected officers were installed. Mrs. Lulu Swearingner acting as the installing officer, while Mrs. Edith Richard officiated as the ceremonial officer. The following officers elected some time ago were installed: Oracle, Mrs. Frank Peterson; vice-oracle, Cecilia Mayer; past-oracle, Mrs. Enoch Eady; chancellor, Mrs. Catherine Christen; recorder, Mrs. William Biggs; receiver, Mrs. Arthur Closs; marshal, Mrs. William Roe; inner sentinel, Mrs. George Winters.

The camp voted to donate $5.00 for the Near East Relief. After the business session a social hour and pot luck lunch was enjoyed.

The C. W. B. of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. A. D. Artman and report a good attendance and a most interesting lesson study. Dr. A. G. A. Buxton gave a very instructive talk along the line of efficient leaders. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program.

Mrs. James Arnold and Miss Grace Arnold entertained fifty guests at a six o'clock dinner and card party at the Arnold home Thursday evening, in a very pleasing manner. The house decorations were hearts and pussy willows, and the home was very beautiful. The dinner was in three courses, and concealed behind a screen in an adjoining room Mrs. O. D. Arnold of Bryant rendered charming vocal solos between the courses. This feature of the dinner was a surprise to the guests and very much enjoyed. In the games which followed the dinner honors were awarded to Miss Leona Bosse, Mrs. E. X. Ehinger, Mrs. Joe Lose and Miss Mathilda Berling. Assisting the hostesses were the Misses Tootz Berling and Glenys Mangold.

The Ice-Nick club girls had their regular meeting last evening with Miss Anola Frank, at her home on West Monroe street. At five hundred, Miss Agnes Weber won first prize and Mrs. Claude Coffee, second. Miss Lafferty was awarded the guest prize. Other guests besides Miss Lafferty were Mrs. Vincent Smith and Mrs. Edward Thompson of Wapakoneta, Ohio. Miss Frank served a delicious luncheon to her guests.

The Missionary band of the Reform church will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ben Elzey. All members are urged to be present.
