

Outlook is Dark As Strikes Grow

ingham palace, in London.

London, April 9.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—"The approaching strike is the opening of a general, decisive war between capital and labor," Ramsey MacDonald, labor leader in parliament, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

MacDonald added that if the general strike is not averted, British industry will be paralyzed within a week.

There may be some "head breaking" but it will not be the result of "deliberate, planned bolshevism."

The workers now thoroughly distrust the government, believing it is an unwitting tool of capital.

The miners "hate capital now as never before."

THE COURT NEWS.

Today was the last day of the February term of the Adams circuit court. The April term will open on Monday morning, there being no vacation between the two terms.

A marriage license was issued to Carl Thieme, farmer, born August 3, 1894, son of Frederick Thieme, and Flora Gallemer, housekeeper, born April 14, 1900, daughter of William C. Gallemer.

Zehr to George Ineichen, inlot 260 and 261, Geneva, $2,600.

Frank Straub was granted a divorce in circuit court this morning from Emma Straub, the defendant failing to appear in court. The prosecuting attorney filed answer for defendant. The costs in the case were taxed against the plaintiff.

The divorce case of Elsie Koos vs. Jesse Koos was settled yesterday in the Kosciusko circuit court at Warsaw after a portion of the evidence was heard. Mrs. Koos was given a divorce and alimony in the sum of $6,500. Smith & Parrish were attorneys for Mrs. Koos and Vendeveer & Son appeared for Mr. Koos.

SECRET IS FOUND.

Okmulgee, Okla., April 9.—(Special to Daily Democrat).—Chief of police Dick Carr today knew why a certain brand of cigars are so popular here. A friend handed him one. He tried it, bit the end off—and the cigar started to leak. The liquor was analyzed and declared to be real "red liquor." The chief's "friend" is now denouncing his fate behind the bars.

HUNTING FOR DAUGHTER

New Castle, Ind., April 9.—(Special to Daily Democrat).—Still doubtful that he has a real substantial clew as to the whereabouts of his daughter, Catherine Winter who disappeared from here eight years ago, Dr. W. A. Winters prepared to go to Anderson tomorrow to run down a story of a Madison county woman that she could locate the girl.

The doctor said he believed this is just like hundreds of other "grapevines" he has followed in the eight years search for his daughter.

He was in telephone communication with Judge Kittinger of Madison county who received a letter offering to give information for $200 which would lead to finding the lost girl. Dr. Winters will see the judge and possibly the woman tomorrow.

A NEW CASHIER

A new Brandt automatic cashier has been placed in the office of County Treasurer Hite, the machine being sent in for trial, and it found satisfactory, the treasurer will ask the commissioners to install one. The machine will avoid mistakes in making change and save considerable time in the rush of taxpaying seasons.

THE M. E. SERVICES

The various classes of the Methodist Sunday school will meet Sunday in the library and central school building, as on last Sunday. There will be no other services. The pastor and others of the congregation are attending the conference at Elwood. The work of redecorating the church in progressing nicely, and it is believed will be ready for use by the congregation two weeks from tomorrow.

SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES

METHODIST CHURCH

9:30—Sunday school. C. H. Colter, superintendent. At library and Central school building. Let every Methodist find the place. This is conference Sunday and all should make a special effort to get to Sunday school. Great school last Sunday for being the first Sunday out of the church. Should be much greater tomorrow. Make Charley Colter smile by being there.

No morning or evening preaching service. This is the time to visit the other churches. Do that. Make them feel your presence. Do not visit some home and keep them away from church and not go yourself. Go to one of our churches and you will enjoy it.

6:30—Epworth League. Faye Stults, president. At library. Subject, "How Does Christ Wish His Day to Be Spent?" Leader, Gretchen Graham. Be present at league. Begin on time and close in time to go to church services.

THE FORGERY CHARGE

The Bluffton News of Friday carried the following story concerning the arrest of Earl Neuenschwander here by Sheriff Melch:

"Earl Neuenschwander, a well known young man whose home is east of Bluffton, was arrested late Thursday at Decatur, by Sheriff Melch, of Adams county, at the request of Sheriff Henry Gehret of Wells county, and the latter went to Decatur this morning, accompanied by Lem Stout, and brought the accused young man to the Bluffton jail, to await trial in circuit court on a charge of forgery.

"Bond is fixed at $1,000 and up to this afternoon Neuenschwander had not furnished bond. He is a son of Peter Neuenschwander. Several years ago he and his brother, Frank, were sentenced to Jeffersonville by Judge Eichhorn to serve a term for forgery.

"The check on which Earl Neuenschwander was arrested was presented and cashed January 25th last, at the Wells County bank here. It is for $20, and is made payable to 'John Gigue,' and is signed 'N. Neuenschwander.' It was written on a Wells County Bank check, which had been altered to read payable on the Studebaker bank.

"A second alleged bad check calls for $37.50, and was cashed February 5th at the Studebaker bank. It is made payable to 'Joe Moser,' and is signed 'Noah Neuenschwander.'

"The News was informed this afternoon that Noah Neuenschwander, whose name is alleged to have been forged, is a brother of the accused youth.

"Sheriff Melch reported that when he told Earl Neuenschwander that he was wanted here for forgery, he said 'If I wrote any bad checks I will make them right.'

"When it was suggested he would not have to make them right if he had not written them he said he would rather settle them than have any further difficulty.

"When affidavits were filed some weeks ago they were prepared against both Earl and Frank Neuenschwander, but no warrant was served on the latter, as Sheriff Gehret said comparisons of hand writing convinced him that Earl Neuenschwander was the writer of the checks. When affidavits were prepared, it was explained, there was doubt which brother wrote the checks."
