ABOUT TOWN

A number of candidates were given the rank of esquire last evening by the K. of P. lodge, the home being crowded with members to witness the work. Next Tuesday being primary election night there will be no special meeting of the lodge, but there will be work in the rank of esquire and page on Thursday evening, May 5.

Mrs. I. A. Kalver of Fort Wayne and Mrs. Jake Kalver of Chicago were in Decatur yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Zac Smith and wife of Bryant, Ohio, visited with friends here last evening and motored from here to Fort Wayne. Mr. Smith was a former resident of Decatur and is now proprietor of the Chrisman hotel at Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Dykeman of east of the city left at nine o'clock this morning in their Ford touring car for a three weeks' pleasure trip in northern Michigan. They will camp at a spot some miles north of Mackinaw City. They took with them tents and all the paraphernalia necessary for such an outing.

W. M. O'Brien was a business visitor at Fort Wayne this morning.

Miss Clara Williams is a guest in the city, coming to attend the high school play, "Green Stockings."

Bill Aspy has a hen that is doubtless the oldest bird of its kind in this community. Last summer this ancient dame raised a brood of little chicks. She has laid every year up to the present season. Her health has been somewhat poorly here of late, so perhaps her remaining days are few. The hen, a Brown Leghorn, is fourteen years old, but from her appearance cannot be told from a two-year-old. She was reared by Mrs. Aspy's mother, Mrs. Andrew Pyle, and became the property of the Aspy family after the death of the aged lady in October, 1907.—Geneva Herald.

A large crowd attended the two-cent supper at the Evangelical church. It was nicely served and as always at that popular church, tasted just right. The ladies of the church had a busy time yesterday but seemed to enjoy it.

Just about the time we think the sun is going to shine for two days in succession the weather man splashes another bucketful in our faces. We sure ought to do well with our crop of May flowers.

The wheat looks fine in this country just now. Many who supposed the open winter had ruined it have changed their minds, for the spring rains have brought it out nicely and the outlook is great.

Fred King of this office made a business trip to Berne this morning, returning at noon.

Weedan Koonz of West Milton, Ohio, will arrive in the city Saturday for an over-Sunday visit with Mrs. C. R. Hammell and family. Mr. Koonz is the proprietor of the Peoples Variety store at West Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meibers and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Falk have returned home from Newark, Ohio, where they visited Mrs. Meibers' relatives. The trip was made by auto.

About twenty-five Rotarians together with their wives or sweethearts formed a theater party to Fort Wayne last evening where they enjoyed the show at the Palace theater. Mr. and Mrs. Will Klepper acted as the chaperons and a most happy evening is reported. The party returned home on the last car.

Jess Cloud, chassis expert for the Barley Motor Car company, builders of the Roamer auto, with headquarters at Kalamazoo, Mich., stopped off here Thursday afternoon for a visit with his father, C. C. Cloud, and other relatives and friends. Jess was on his way home from Florida, where he had been assisting in trials of the Roamer speedster. He had been in the south five months with the car.

Miss Frances Dugan returned yesterday afternoon after a delightful visit at the home of Mrs. Albert Seaton and Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Indianapolis, Ind.

A nine pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Meril Schmitz at 620 W. Monroe street last evening at five o'clock. Mother and young son are getting along very well.

of Mrs. Cline.

The little girl was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer who are well known here. The family has been living at Warren but were moving back here, having rented the Peter Holthouse farm, west of Peterson and had shipped their goods here. The child had been sick with whooping cough which developed into pneumonia but had practically recovered. Mr. Shaffer had come here with the household goods and was getting ready for his wife and daughter to come on here, when the word came that the daughter had suffered a relapse and death resulted soon after.

New Pastor Here

Monroe News

J. J. MAYER, Correspondent.

Robert Sprunger, manager of the Enterprise store, is suffering from an attack of lumbago this week. He is very cautious in his movements.

William Adler living west of town, was here Saturday afternoon and informed us that his son, Louis Jr. who went to Colorado some time ago after resigning his position as cashier of the Peble State bank and who is suffering from lung trouble, is not improving as rapidly as he expected.

Farmers are busy getting in their crops, hence not much doing in town. Noah Mangold of Decatur was in town Monday afternoon looking after the oil business.

Charles Yager of Decatur was in town yesterday looking after insurance business. Sherman Gilbert, a young man employed at the Bahner barbershop of this place, while on his way to Willshire, Ohio, Tuesday, riding a motorcycle, had the misfortune to lose his pocket-book containing $35.

The G. R. & I. railroad has a force of men at work putting down a lot of side-track south of the Monroe Grain company on the site of the old hay shed, which will be used for the unloading of oil into the tanks erected by the Standard Oil company. A switch is also being put down for the stone unloading device now being erected for the unloading of stone used by Superintendent J. K. Hendricks to be used for the repairing of stone roads. Both improvements will be of much benefit to Monroe.

Ira Wagener has purchased two acres of ground from Dennis Brandyberry in the south part of the town, which he will exclusively use as a chicken industry and will embark in the raising of chickens. He will build a modern chicken house of the latest and most modern design, and will give his time and attention to that line of work.

John Glancy of Decatur, visited his son, Glenn, here Wednesday.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Mrs. Dick Peterson who has been visiting her mother in Bluffton returned to Decatur this afternoon. Miss Marguerite and Master French Peterson accompanied their mother.
