The Difference of 150 Years

You've heard the story of Paul Revere—how he clattered out of Boston and spread the alarm to every Middlesex village, etc. That was in April, 1775. It was an all night job. Today the Boston papers would slap extras on their presses and in the shake of a little lamb's tail the whole thrilling message would be in each home of the well known county.

This represents the advance of 150 years in the important business of spreading news.

The cry of "Extra—Extra" on the midnight air brings startled folks to their doors as once did the pound of a horse's hoofs and the breathless shout of the rider. Papers have supplanted the courier—multiplied his effectiveness many times—increased his speed a hundred fold.

How far back we would go without newspapers! We would remain in ignorance not only of events at home and abroad—but also of much that concerns us just as vitally—news of the very things that have to do with the personal, every-day life of each one of us.

Somebody might be selling a new, better and more economical food; or a utensil that would add immeasurably to our comfort and well-being; or some better material for making shoes or clothing—but we would never know it.

Modern advertising is a boon. It keeps our information up-to-date on the many things we need in order to live a profitable, happy and useful life in this age of progress. Do you take full advantage of the advertising?

twenty per cent, compared with the normal pre-war figure of less than three per cent. According to manufacturers the institution of the eight-hour day has injured production, all factories agreeing that there is no increase in intensity of labor to compensate for shortened hours. Eleven per cent. of the factories estimate the decrease of labor intensity at over ten per cent.

Boy Murder Case

(Continued from page one) the shooting testified that Cecil was holding the gun when the shot was fired and that Bennie before he died said: "Cecil shot me and I am going to die."

Cecil's father is a poor day laborer. Bennie was the son of a struggling cross roads merchant. The entire section of the country is divided on the question of whether Cecil should be punished. The state will not ask a heavy penalty if Cecil is convicted but demand that he be confined in some home for children.

EARTHBOUND SHOWS FOR LAST TIME TONIGHT

"No God. No sin. No future life. Nothing but the survival of the fittest, and every man for himself." That was the ruthless creed by which two men lived. They thought it had brought them success and riches until one of them was forced to sacrifice his wife upon the altar of that creed. Then he killed Dick Desborough, the man he had looked upon as his best friend, but Dick, even after death, was not free to progress. His spirit was forced to remain earthbound until he was willing to be guided by the higher creed that "love is the great progressive force both in this world and what we call the next." That is the theme about which Basil King built the powerful story, "Earthbound," which critics have recognized as the greatest and most impressive screen production ever attempted. In showing "Earthbound" at the Mecca theatre, the last time tonight, we feel that we are offering the supreme achievement of motion picture art. It is an event which no one who thinks in the higher terms of life can afford to miss.

TRROUBLED FOR YEARS

If you suffer pains and aches during the day and sleep-disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder need to be restored to healthy and regular action. J. T. Osburn, R. F. D. No. 1, Lucasville, Ohio, writes: "I had kidney trouble for ten years. I tried many remedies but they did me no good. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me so much that now I am well." Don't delay.
